DECLARATIONS OF INTERESTS - NOTE FROM THE MONITORING OFFICER

This note is for guidance only. For further details please consult the Members' Code of Conduct at Part 5.1 of the Council's Constitution.

Please note that the question of whether a Member has an interest in any matter, and whether or not that interest is a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest, is for that Member to decide. Advice is available from officers as listed below but they cannot make the decision for the Member. If in doubt as to the nature of an interest it is advisable to seek advice prior to attending a meeting.

Interests and Disclosable Pecuniary Interests (DPIs)

You have an interest in any business of the authority where that business relates to or is likely to affect any of the persons, bodies or matters listed in section 4.1 (a) of the Code of Conduct; and might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial position of yourself, a member of your family or a person with whom you have a close association, to a greater extent than the majority of other council tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the ward affected.

You must notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of any such interest, for inclusion in the Register of Members' Interests which is available for public inspection and on the Council's Website.

Once you have recorded an interest in the Register, you are not then required to declare that interest at each meeting where the business is discussed, unless the interest is a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest (DPI).

A DPI is defined in Regulations as a pecuniary interest of any of the descriptions listed at Appendix A overleaf. Please note that a Member's DPIs include his/her own relevant interests and also those of his/her spouse or civil partner; or a person with whom the Member is living as husband and wife; or a person with whom the Member is living as if they were civil partners; if the Member is aware that that other person has the interest.

Effect of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest on participation at meetings

Where you have a DPI in any business of the Council you must, unless you have obtained a dispensation from the authority's Monitoring Officer following consideration by the Dispensations Sub-Committee of the Standards Advisory Committee:-

- not seek to improperly influence a decision about that business; and
- not exercise executive functions in relation to that business.

If you are present at a meeting where that business is discussed, you must:-

- Disclose to the meeting the existence and nature of the interest at the start of the meeting or when the interest becomes apparent, if later; and
- Leave the room (including any public viewing area) for the duration of consideration and decision on the item and not seek to influence the debate or decision

When declaring a DPI, Members should specify the nature of the interest and the agenda item to which the interest relates. This procedure is designed to assist the public's understanding of the meeting and to enable a full record to be made in the minutes of the meeting.

Where you have a DPI in any business of the authority which is not included in the Member's register of interests and you attend a meeting of the authority at which the business is considered, in addition to disclosing the interest to that meeting, you must also within 28 days notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest for inclusion in the Register.

RULES OF PROCEDURE GOVERNING APPLICATIONS FOR PREMISES LICENCES AND OTHER PERMISSIONS UNDER THE LICENSING ACT 2003

Date Last Reviewed:	14th June 2016
Reviewed By:	Senior Corporate and Governance Legal Officer
Approved By:	Licensing Committee
Date Approved:	14th June 2016
Version No.	1
Document Owner:	Paul Greeno
Post Holder:	Senior Corporate and Governance Legal Officer
Date of Next Scheduled Review:	31st March 2018

1. Interpretation

- 1.1 These Procedures describe the way in which hearings will be conducted under the Licensing Act 2003, as set out in the Licensing Act 2003 (Hearings) Regulations 2005 (as amended) ('the Hearings Regulations'). The Procedures take into account the Licensing Act (Premises Licences and Club Premises Certificates) Regulations 2005.
- 1.2 Except where otherwise stated, references in this Code are to the Licensing Committee and its Sub-committees and the expression 'Licensing Committee' should be interpreted accordingly.
- 1.3 The Hearings Regulations provide (Regulation 21) that a Licensing Authority shall, subject to the provisions of those Regulations, determine for itself the procedure to be followed at a hearing.
- 1.4 These Procedures, therefore, set out the way in which Licensing Committee Meetings will be conducted under the Licensing Act 2003, following the requirements of the Hearings Regulations.
- 1.5 Proceedings will not be rendered void only as the result of failure to comply with any provision of the Hearings Regulations (Regulation 31) save that in any case of such an irregularity, the Licensing Committee shall, if it considers that any person may have been prejudiced as a result of the irregularity, take such steps as it thinks fit to cure the irregularity before reaching its determination (Regulation 32).

2. Composition of Sub-Committee

- 2.1 The Sub-Committee will consist of three (3) members and no business shall be transacted unless three (3) members of the Licensing Committee are present and able to form a properly constituted Licensing Sub-Committee. In such cases the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

3. Procedure

- 3.1 The hearing shall take place in public save that the Licensing Committee may exclude the public from all or part of a hearing where it considers that, on balance, it is in the public interest to do so. The parties and any person representing them may be excluded in the same way as another member of the public. Any person so excluded may, before the end of the hearing, submit to the Licensing Committee in writing, any information which, they would have been entitled to give orally had they not been required to leave. Where there are a number of items on the agenda, the adjournment of that item for a short period, whilst another item is heard, may allow this process to be carried out effectively.

- 3.2 The Chair will begin by asking the parties to identify themselves and confirm whether or not they are represented.
- 3.3 The Licensing Committee should always satisfy itself that sufficient notice of the hearing has been given to all parties and if not satisfied, then the Licensing Committee should take such steps as it thinks fit to deal with that issue before reaching its determination and this could include adjourning that application to a later date.
- 3.4 The Licensing Committee will then consider any requests by a party for any other person to be heard at the hearing in accordance with the Regulations. Permission will not be unreasonably withheld provided proper notice has been given.
- 3.5 The Chair will then explain how the proceedings will be conducted, and indicate any time limits that may apply to the parties to the application. In setting time limits, the Licensing Committee will take into account the importance of ensuring that all parties receive a fair hearing, and the importance of ensuring that all applications are determined expeditiously and without undue delay. Further the Licensing Committee must have regard to the requirement to allow each party an equal amount of time.
- 3.6 If a party considers that any time limit is not sufficient then they should address the Licensing Committee and which will determine accordingly.
- 3.7 If any party has informed the Authority that they will not be attending or be represented at the hearing or any party does not give notice that they will not be attending but fails to attend and is not represented, the Licensing Committee may proceed in their absence or adjourn the hearing if it considers it to be necessary in the public interest. An adjournment will not be considered where due to the operation of the Hearing Regulations it would not be possible to adjourn.
- 3.8 If the Licensing Committee adjourns the hearing to a specified date it must specify the date, time and place to which the hearing has been adjourned and why it is considered necessary in the public interest.
- 3.9 If the Licensing Committee holds the hearing in the absence of a party, it will consider at the hearing the application, representation or notice given by that party.
- 3.10 The Chair will invite an Officer of the Licensing Section to present the report by briefly summarising the application and the number and type of the representations as set out in the papers circulated. The Officer will also advise of any discussions held with the parties; any amendments made to the application; any representations withdrawn; and any agreed conditions that the Licensing Committee is being asked to consider. The Officer shall not give any opinion on the application or ask the Committee to make an inference based on such an opinion.

- 3.11 Members of the Licensing Committee can then ask questions of clarification of the Licensing Officer or seek legal advice from the Legal Adviser to the Licensing Committee if they require in respect of matters raised during the presentation by the Licensing Officer.
- 3.12 The Legal Adviser to the Licensing Committee will then give any relevant legal advice that the Licensing Committee need to take into consideration.
- 3.13 The Chair will then ask the applicant or their representative, if present, to present a summary of the nature and extent of the application. This should be brief, avoid repetition of material already available to the Licensing Committee in the Officer's report or otherwise, and include any reasons why an exception should be made to the Council's Licensing Policy, where appropriate, and respond to the written representations received. The submission may be followed by the evidence of any person who has been given permission by the Committee to give supporting evidence on behalf of the applicant or who has made a representation in favour of the application.
- 3.14 The application is to be presented within the time limit that has been set.
- 3.15 Where an applicant is unrepresented and having difficulty in presenting their application then the Legal Adviser to the Licensing Committee may ask questions of the applicant so that the relevant points are addressed and clarified for the Licensing Committee.
- 3.16 Members of the Licensing Committee may ask questions of the person presenting the case after their address as well as any other person who has spoken in support of the application. Members can also ask questions of the applicant as well as any other person present for the applicant who they consider can assist.
- 3.17 The Legal Adviser to the Licensing Committee may ask questions for the purpose of clarifying points for the Licensing Committee.
- 3.18 The Chair will then ask the persons who have made representations against the application to address the Licensing Committee within the time limit that has been set. They should not repeat what is already set out in their representations or notice or raise new matters. In their address they should provide clarification on any points previously requested by the Council. The submission may be followed by the evidence of any person who has been given permission by the Committee to give supporting evidence.
- 3.19 Members of the Licensing Committee may then ask questions of the persons making representations against the application and any other person who has spoken in support of such representation. Members can also ask questions of any other person present who they consider can assist.

- 3.20 The Legal Adviser to the Licensing Committee may ask questions for the purpose of clarifying points for the Licensing Committee.
- 3.21 Petitions will be treated as representations provided they meet the requirements for relevant representations set out in the Licensing Act 2003. Members should proceed with caution when relying upon petitions used as evidence due to the structure and wording used.
- 3.22 The Licensing Committee will disregard any information given by a party, or any other person appearing at the hearing, which is not relevant to:
 - a) their application, representation or notice; and
 - b) the promotion of the licensing objectives or the crime prevention objective where notice has been given by the police.
- 3.23 The Chair will intervene at any stage of the hearing to prevent repetitious or irrelevant points being raised.
- 3.24 Cross examination of any party or any other person allowed to appear will not be allowed unless specifically permitted by the Chair.
- 3.25 There is no right for any party to sum up but they may be permitted to do at the discretion of the Chair and within time limits prescribed by the Chair.
- 3.26 The Licensing Committee will consider its decision in private save that the Legal Adviser and Democratic Services Officer will remain with them.
- 3.27 The Licensing Committee will normally return to open session to announce its decision but in cases where the prescribed time limit allows for a later determination and it is appropriate to determine the matter within that time then the Chair will advise the parties present that the decision will not be announced then but that the determination will take place within the prescribed time limit and that written notification will be dispatched to all parties advising them of the determination.

4. Exclusions

- 4.1 In addition to any exclusion under paragraph 3.1 above, The Licensing Committee may require any person attending the hearing who in their opinion is behaving in a disruptive manner to leave the hearing and may refuse to permit the person to return; or allow them to return only on such conditions as Licensing Committee may specify.

- 4.2 Any person so excluded may, before the end of the hearing, submit to the Authority in writing, any information which, they would have been entitled to give orally had they not been required to leave.

- 5.2 Relevant Sections of the policy are brought to the attention of Members within the Licensing Officers report.
- 5.3 The Home Secretary has issued Guidance under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003. This is available on the Government's website, www.homeoffice.gov.uk. It was last revised in April 2018.
- 5.4 Relevant Sections of this advice are brought to Members attention within the Licensing Officers report. Members should note however, that in some areas Tower Hamlets, after a proper consideration of local circumstances, has not followed the Government's advice, or has developed it further.
- 6.0 Representations
- 6.1 All representations have to meet basic legal and administrative requirements. If they fail to do so they cannot be accepted. When rejected the person sending in the representation must be written to, and an explanation for rejection given in writing
- 6.2 A responsible authority or other person can make a representation. There are two tests for other persons and only one for a responsible authority. The two tests are contained in Section 18 of the Act.
- 6.3 All representations must be "about the likely effect of the grant of the premises licence on the promotion of the licensing objectives." Likely means something that will probably happen, i.e. on balance more likely than not.
- 6.4 Representations by responsible authorities do not have to meet the second test of not being vexatious and frivolous. Other persons have to meet this test.
- 6.5 The Home Office recommends that in borderline cases, the benefit of the doubt should be given to the interested party making the representation.
- 6.6 Section 182 Advice by the Home Office concerning relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations is attached as Appendix 5.

9.0 Licensing Officer Comments

- 9.1 The Live Music Act removed licensing requirements for the following:
- amplified live music and recorded music between 8am and 11pm before audiences of no more than 500 people on premises authorised to sell alcohol for consumption on the premises;
 - unamplified live music between 8am and 11pm in all venues.
 - Further exemptions apply see Section 16.5-16.6 of Section 182 Guidance.

9.2 The following is intended simply to advise Members of the relevant aspects of the Boroughs Licensing Policy, guidance from the Secretary of State, legislation and good practice. Members may depart from the Council's Licensing Policy and/or Government advice, provide they consider it appropriate to do so, and have clear reasons for their decision.

9.3 Guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

- ❖ As stated in the guidance it is “provided to licensing authorities in relation to the carrying out of their functions under the 2003 Act.” It is a key medium for promoting best practice, ensuring consistent application and promoting fairness equal treatment and proportionality (1.7).
- ❖ Also “as long as licensing authorities have properly understood this Guidance, they may depart from it if they have good reason to do so and can provide full reasons. Departure from this Guidance could give rise to an appeal or judicial review, and the reasons given will then be a key consideration for the courts when considering the lawfulness and merits of any decision taken.” Therefore licensing authorities will need to give full reasons for their actions (1.9).
- ❖ Also Members should note “A Licensing Authority may depart from its own policy if the individual circumstances of any case merit such a decision in the interests of the promotion of the licensing objectives.” (1.12)
- ❖ Also, “The licensing authority may not impose any conditions unless its discretion has been exercised following receipt of relevant representations and it is satisfied as a result of a hearing (unless all parties agree a hearing is not necessary) that it is appropriate to impose conditions to promote one or more of the four licensing objectives.” Therefore, conditions may not be imposed for the purpose other than promoting the licensing objectives and in some cases no additional conditions will be appropriate. (10.8)
- ❖ Necessary conditions should emerge from a risk assessment by the applicant, which should then be reflected in the operating schedule (10.4).
- ❖ The Guidance states: “Where there are objections to an application to extend the hours during which licensable activities are to be carried on and the licensing authority determines that this would undermine the licensing objectives, it may reject the application or grant it with appropriate conditions and/or different hours from those requested.” (10.14)
- ❖ Mandatory conditions must be imposed (10.25) and censorship avoided (10.17).

- ❖ The Guidance states: “It is still permitted to sell alcohol using promotions (as long as they are compatible with any other licensing condition that may be in force), and the relevant person should ensure that the price of the alcohol is not less than the permitted price. Detailed guidance on the use of promotions is given in the guidance document available on the Gov.uk website.” (10.58) Also, “Licensing authorities should not attach standardised blanket conditions promoting fixed prices for alcoholic drinks to premises licences or club licences or club premises certificates in an area.” (10.21)

- 9.4 The Licensing Act 2003 permits children of any age to be on the premises which primarily sells alcohol providing they are accompanied by an adult. It is not necessary to make this a condition.
- 9.5 In all cases the Members should make their decision on the civil burden of proof, that is “the balance of probability.”
- 9.6 In all cases Members should consider whether or not primary legislation is the appropriate method of regulation and should only consider licence conditions when the circumstances in their view are not already adequately covered elsewhere.
- 9.7 The Government has advised that conditions must be tailored to the individual type, location and characteristics of the premises and events concerned. Conditions cannot seek to manage the behaviour of customers once they are beyond the direct management of the licence holder and their staff and standardised conditions should be avoided where they cannot be shown to be appropriate. (1.16/1.17)
- 9.8 The Council’s Licensing Policy generally expects applicants to address the licensing objectives and discuss how to do this with the relevant responsible authorities.
- 9.9 In Appendices 27 - 35 Members are given general advice, and also have explanations of the Council’s Licensing Policy, Government advice and other legislation relating to the matters previously identified.

10.0 Legal Comments

- 10.1 The Council’s legal officer will give advice at the hearing.

11.0 Finance Comments

- 11.1 There are no financial implications in this report.

 - o a performance of amplified live music between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, at the non-residential premises of (i) a local authority, or (ii) a school, or (iii) a hospital, provided that (a) the audience does not exceed 500, and (b) the organiser gets consent for the performance on the relevant premises from: (i) the local authority concerned, or (ii) the school or (iii) the health care provider for the hospital.
- Recorded Music: no licence permission is required for:
 - o any playing of recorded music between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day on premises authorised to sell alcohol for consumption on those premises, provided that the audience does not exceed 500.

 - o any playing of recorded music between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, at the non-residential premises of (i) a local authority, or (ii) a school, or (iii) a hospital, provided that (a) the audience does not exceed 500, and (b) the organiser gets consent for the performance on the relevant premises from: (i) the local authority concerned, or (ii) the school proprietor or (iii) the health care provider for the hospital.

OPERATING SCHEDULE

The applicants are very familiar with the Brick Lane area having run the Verge Bar at the Northern end of Brick Lane for 10 years. They have worked closely with local police and attempted to set up a safer neighbourhood scheme. They are satisfied that their new venture at the southern end will not add to the cumulative impact upon the area

The applicants wish to avoid noise and nuisance as the upper part of the building is used as bed and breakfast accommodation.

They are familiar with the cumulative impact policy but believe that this venture does not breach it because

1 These premises have been licensed from the commencement of licensing having opened in at least 1811. The licence fees were not paid by a previous owner in 2014 which meant that the licence lapsed but the licence was at no time revoked

2 The number of licensed outlets in the area has reduced

3 The conditions proposed will ensure that no additional difficulties in the area arise.

These conditions take account of a consultation with the Metropolitan Police
Proposed conditions

A The prevention of crime and disorder

2 The CCTV recordings are to be maintained for 31 days and to be provided upon request to either a police officer or an officer of any responsible authority.

4 A SIA accredited person shall be present at the premises from 2100 to closing time on Fridays and Saturdays

5 A register of those door staff shall be maintained

6 Open containers of alcohol shall not be removed from the premises

7 Staff shall be trained in the law relating to underage sales

8 An incident report book must be kept and record all refusals of the sale of alcohol and any incidents of crime or disorder at the premises

9 Table meals will be available at all times.

10 A full menu and waiter/waitress service shall be available at all times as will non alcoholic drinks

B Public safety

1 Regular safety checks shall be carried out by staff

2 The premises shall maintain public liability insurance

C The prevention of public nuisance

1 No person shall be employed to solicit for custom or be permitted to solicit for custom for business at the premise in any public place with a 500 metre radius of the premises

Appendix 5

Section 182 Advice by the Home Office Updated on April 2018

Relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations

9.4 A representation is “relevant” if it relates to the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of at least one of the licensing objectives. For example, a representation from a local businessperson about the commercial damage caused by competition from new licensed premises would not be relevant. On the other hand, a representation by a businessperson that nuisance caused by new premises would deter customers from entering the local area, and the steps proposed by the applicant to prevent that nuisance were inadequate, would be relevant. In other words, representations should relate to the impact of licensable activities carried on from premises on the objectives. For representations in relation to variations to be relevant, they should be confined to the subject matter of the variation. There is no requirement for a responsible authority or other person to produce a recorded history of problems at premises to support their representations, and in fact this would not be possible for new premises.

9.5 It is for the licensing authority to determine whether a representation (other than a representation from responsible authority) is frivolous or vexatious on the basis of what might ordinarily be considered to be vexatious or frivolous. A representation may be considered to be vexatious if it appears to be intended to cause aggravation or annoyance, whether to a competitor or other person, without reasonable cause or justification. Vexatious circumstances may arise because of disputes between rival businesses and local knowledge will therefore be invaluable in considering such matters. Licensing authorities can consider the main effect of the representation, and whether any inconvenience or expense caused by it could reasonably be considered to be proportionate.

9.6 Frivolous representations would be essentially categorised by a lack of seriousness. Frivolous representations would concern issues which, at most, are minor and in relation to which no remedial steps would be warranted or proportionate.

9.7 Any person who is aggrieved by a rejection of their representations on either of these grounds may lodge a complaint through the local authority’s corporate complaints procedure. A person may also challenge the authority’s decision by way of judicial review.

9.8 Licensing authorities should not take decisions about whether representations are frivolous, vexatious or relevant to the licensing objectives on the basis of any political judgement. This may be difficult for councillors who receive complaints from residents within their own wards. If consideration is not to be delegated, contrary to the recommendation in this

Guidance, an assessment should be prepared by officials for consideration by the sub-committee before any decision is taken that necessitates a hearing. Any councillor who considers that their own interests are such that they are unable to consider the matter independently should disqualify themselves.

9.9 It is recommended that, in borderline cases, the benefit of the doubt about any aspect of a representation should be given to the person making that representation. The subsequent hearing would then provide an opportunity for the person or body making the representation to amplify and clarify it.

9.10 Licensing authorities should consider providing advice on their websites about how any person can make representations to them.

www.towerhamlets.gov.uk

Dear Sir / Madam,

The Licensing Authority has received an application for a new Premises Licence for the following licensable activities and times.

Thursday – Saturday 08:00 to 02:00 hours

It is noted that the end times have been reduced by 30 mins for the provision of late night refreshment and the sale of alcohol on Sunday to Wednesday in consultation with the Environmental Protection Team to allow 30 minutes 'drinking up' time.

As part of Tower Hamlets Licensing Policy the Council has adopted a set of framework hours as follows:

- Monday to Thursday, from 06:00 hrs to 23:30 hrs
- Friday and Saturday, from 06:00 hrs to 00:00 hrs (midnight)
- Sunday, from 06:00 hrs to 22:30 hrs

This application far exceeds these hours for closing on a Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sundays.

Section 15.8 of the Licensing Policy states:

In considering the applicability of framework hours to any particular application regard should be had to the following

- Location
- Proposed hours of regulated activities, and the proposed hours the premises are open to the public
- The adequacy of the applicant's proposals to deal with issues of crime and disorder and public nuisance
- Previous history
- Access to public transport
- Proximity to other licensed premises, and their hours

This premises is in Brick Lane which has a large number of licensed premises for both alcohol and late night refreshments.

On 18th September 2013 Tower Hamlets adopted a Cumulative Impact Policy (CIP) in the Brick Lane Area. The Council has recognised that because of the number and density of licensed premises selling alcohol, on and off the premises and the provision of late night refreshment (sale of hot food after 11pm) within the Brick Lane Area, there might be exceptional problems of nuisance, disturbance and/or disorder outside or away from those licensed premises as a result of their combined effect.

The Licensing Authority is now of the view that the number, type and density of premises selling alcohol for consumption on and off the premises and/or the provision of late night refreshment in the Brick Lane Area as having a cumulative impact on the licensing objectives and has therefore declared a Cumulative Impact Zone.

The Licensing Authority recognises that there is a wide diversity of premises requiring a licence and will have full regard to the differing impact these will have on the local community. It therefore also recognises that, within this Policy, it may be able to approve licences that are unlikely to add significantly to the saturation, and will consider the circumstances of each individual application.

The effect of this CIP is to create a rebuttable presumption for applications in respect of the sale or supply of alcohol on or off the premises and/or late Night Refreshment for new Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates or Provisional Statements and applications for variations of existing Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates (where the modifications are relevant to the issue of cumulative impact for example increases in hours or capacity). Where the premises are situated in the CIZ and a representation is received, the licence will be objected to by the Authority. To rebut this presumption the applicant is expected to show through the operating schedule and where appropriate with supporting evidence that the operation of the premises will not add to the cumulative impact already being experienced. This policy does not act as an absolute prohibition on granting/varying new licences in the CIZ.

The Licensing Authority is therefore making representation against this application on the grounds of the prevention of crime and disorder and the prevention of public nuisance as the premises lies within the CIZ.

Although the premises are offering food at all times there is no volunteered condition offering alcohol only ancillary to food hence this premises is more than likely to be a drinking establishment operating up until 02.00 hours on a Thursday to Saturday in an already saturated area. In fact within the proposed conditions the applicant states 'vertical drinking will be discouraged after 23:00 hours'. This is an unenforceable condition and should not be considered as a condition on the licence.

The Licensing Authority acknowledge the other proposed conditions and the use of SIA door staff on Fridays and Saturdays from 21:00 hours. If the licensable hours on a Thursday are the same as Friday and Saturday then door staff should be used on Thursdays as well.

It is noted that 'no open containers will be removed from the premise' which will prevent drinking outside on the street but there could still be a gathering of customers on the street who go out to smoke. There is nothing in the application to suggest how many people would be allowed outside at any one time and how this would be managed by staff especially on the days when there is no door staff employed.

This premise did previously have a licence but it was surrendered on 13th November 2014 as it had previously stopped selling alcohol in July 2013 having converted into a Halal restaurant.

The Licensing Authority notes that the applicants currently run the Verge licensed premises at Unit A, 114-118 Bethnal Green Road, London, E2 6DG. This has received no complaints to the Licensing Authority for a number of years.

I have had this premises described to me by the agents representative as a 'gastro pub' and state they have agreed with the police to have a 60% drink and 40% food use. This is therefore predominantly a drinking establishment and unlikely to have customers wanting full sit down meals late in the evening and up to 01:30 hours in the morning. Therefore during the later hours the premises will be a bar/pub until 02:00 hours.

Licensing Authority cannot support this application due to its excessive hours and the fact that it is in the CIZ and that this application does not offer sufficient supporting evidence that the late hours will not add to the cumulative impact already being experienced in the area.

If the applicant is unable to prove to the Licensing Sub Committee, through the implementation of appropriate conditions within the Operating Schedule, that the granting of the application will not affect the cumulative impact of the area, then I ask the Committee to reject the application.

Yours sincerely,

Corinne Holland
Licensing Officer

Dear Sirs,

Application ref: CLC/EHTS/LIC/108483 – INS, 13 Brick Lane, London E1 6PU

My name is Ali Azad and I reside in Flower and Dean Estate which is located directly behind 13, Brick Lane, London E1 6PU.

I am objecting against the application made by INS, 13 brick Lane for the sale of alcohol and late night opening hours.

My reasons for objecting as follows:

- Over the years we the residents of Flower and Dean State has been suffering from peoples using drugs, alcohol and antisocial activities. Where peoples have been vomiting on our door step after been drunk, human soils and urinating all over the estate.
- In 2017 Tower Hamlets Council and Metropolitan Police obtained “Public Space Protection Order” despite having the order in place we are still facing/suffering from using drugs, alcohol and antisocial activities.
- We are already facing problem from the re-heb center for (alcohol and drug) which is located around the corner from 13, Brick Lane and next door to 13 Brick Lane you have the NHS Center which provide service/medication to alcohol, drug users and homeless.

Do you really want give permission to this application – with all the surrounding issues!

If you decide to grant the license:

- We will be facing greater problem with using drugs, alcohol and antisocial activities.
- Will affect the tourist sightseeing – where you will have more vomit and other staff all over the pavements etc.
- Lively hood of our children – they will not be able to play around the estate as it will have more antisocial activities, vomit and all other staff.

I believe I am speaking for everyone from Flower and Dean Estate. We are in process to get everyone to sign the petition against this application.

Thank you,

Kind regards,

Ali Azad

Objecting on the grounds of the Crime and Disorder Objective

On every occasion a licence has been granted in relation to premises at such close proximity, there have been issues of crime and disorder. The location is totally unsuitable for a late licence of the type proposed. For decades, this premises has been an Indian restaurant which has not operated late hours which is far more suitable.

The layout of the adjoining housing estate must be borne in mind. There is an existing issue with people using the walls of adjoining properties' gardens for public convenience and it is reasonably suspected that having these premises adjoining will exacerbate the problem. Additionally, there is a health centre next door to the premises that has what can easily be described as a sitting area which is what the area is used as during the day. It is suspected that this is also what the area will be used for at night by patrons of the premises. The entrance to the premises is on Brick Lane itself whereas this is on the side of the premises and there is no confidence that even with the licence holder's will, this issue would be addressed. The other issue of course is that at present, there is no encouragement for passers by to use the area for the same purpose but the fear is that seeing people congregate in this area will encourage others to do the same.

Another fear that exists is that whenever a late licence has been issued adjoining the estate, there have been serious issues of crime and disorder. The make up of Brick Lane on this side is not suitable for this type of premises. Whereas the Shoreditch end of Brick Lane has a large number of late licences, this part is generally made up of restaurants and shops providing amenities for local people. A licence that had existed for a premises named Studio 54 which was based again adjacent to the estate was revoked due to serious crime and disorder but the significant length of time that was taken to achieve this was a length of time where tenants had to endure drunk and disorderly behaviour, drug taking and violence. The premises was closed due to the drunk and disorderly behaviour and drugs being sold within the premises.

Another premises described as Temple Rooms was eventually shut following many seriously violent incidents including a double stabbing. The risk of this type of behaviour should not exist at such close proximity to residential housing. It is relevant that this is not a block of housing where tenants are young, working and perhaps even transient. The estate is made up mostly of families with different generations and who have lived in the estate since it was opened in 1984. There are a large number of children who live with their families on the estate and within 20 metres is a large block providing specialist housing for the elderly and infirm.

Another issue is the prevalence of people being in the habit of consuming alcoholic drinks in groups prior to entering into a licensed premises which is a common thing. There is an off licence immediately opposite the proposed premises and several within close proximity to enable and perhaps even encourage this. This type of risk is lessened when one deals with a venue on a high street with no hidden place to congregate or sit around drinking without even the risk of any security staff from a relevant licensed premises observing and/or discouraging this behaviour. Due to the proposed location, the estate would provide ample space and opportunity especially two specific places with 10 and 20 metres from the proposed venue.

The risk of crime and anti-social behaviour is too great for this type of licence to be granted at this location and this is notwithstanding the best efforts of any licensee where the motivation is actually there to begin with.

Public safety

The two main thoroughfares for the estate adjoins the premises as mentioned and also adjoins the neighbouring premises. This part of Brick Lane is narrow allowing only two people to walk side by side due to the parked cars which would be in the bay immediately outside, the situation exacerbated by the road and pavement being on the same level. If some form of queueing is required which is expected, it will not be possible to do so on Brick Lane itself due to the crowding issue and the fact that other pedestrians will not be able to pass. The inevitably will be that queueing occurs on the side of the premises which forms part of the housing estate. This means that not only will this increase the likeliness of anti-social behaviour but also means that residents' safe passage will no doubt be compromised. This will not only be health and safety issue especially as this part is not well lit and perhaps sensibly as any high levels of lighting would impact on the residents who live the closest adversely. When residents are passing, it is not a stretch to imagine that altercations may be a risk especially when it is inebriated people who are causing obstruction and as such, arguably less likely to be in control of their actions and/or reasonable. Similar concerns exist in relation to smokers that would need to congregate outside again in the same area.

There is also a risk of bottles/glasses being taken outside which can cause broken glass or dangerous obstructions for residents when walking. Even with a condition such as plastic cups only being permitted to be used will not totally take this potential danger away and, based on previous experiences, even with conditions, there always remains a risk that some of these are taken without door staff noticing depending on the number of door staff and how diligent they are.

There are also other considerations. If a fire alarm goes off, the most logical place for patrons to congregate would be in the same place again causing an issue for residents. These risks are not acceptable for the purposes of allowing a commercial enterprise to operate.

The prevention of public nuisance

In relation to public nuisance, the concern comes from noise, not only those emanating from the premises itself but also from patrons as they come and go, especially when they are leaving at the end of the night. If people wish to get a taxi, the most common place to get a black taxi would be Commercial Street which would require walking through the estate. The same would happen if people wished to go towards Bishopsgate which has significant late night public transport. Notwithstanding that, there is also the factor that for people who have not finished the night and socialising and are still 'buzzing', they will look for a nice place to sit and talk most likely in a highly animated fashion. This again would mean that the estate would be used as it is the obvious choice.

The added dimension would be the threat to community safety in such circumstances for obvious reasons and the question is that should this risk be permitted simply to allow a commercial enterprise to operate where this is clearly the wrong location for such a commercial operation.

The bar would presumably be lit up during its hours of operation which would add another dimension of light pollution next to residential properties that currently do not have that issue and have not had that issue.

The nuisance of littering is also a concern as there is a risk that patrons who congregate outside would leave litter behind and also if they are sitting around the estate as described above. As for rubbish from the premises, there is no clear suitable area for rubbish bins and if the rubbish was to be placed in the bins after hours of operation, this in itself would most likely cause nuisance. Although it is accepted that this is already a licensed premises, there is a huge difference between a restaurant that usually had most patrons leave by around 9pm even when busy and where the primary purpose was to provide food and where the clientele that it actively tried to entice were mostly Bangladeshi people who, for the most part, do not consume alcohol and therefore it would be less likely that they would have waste such as glass bottles which would cause the most noise nuisance.

Another very serious issue for residents is the matter of parking. As members may be aware, parking, or the lack of it for residents, meant that, temporarily, parking restrictions in the locality were increased to 10pm due to the issue. Due to complaints from businesses and visitors, these were relaxed back to 7pm but the situation is not the same for residents. The estate has a lot of parking spaces, but due to the amount of households, the parking is not sufficient which is why the housing association that owns the properties have restricted each household to one resident's parking permit per household. However, this is on a first come first served basis as the properties outnumber the spaces.

When late licences have previously been issued adjacent or in very close proximity to the estate as this application seeks, the issues of others simply leaving their vehicles in our car parks has caused us serious issues. The issues have been two fold. On one hand, residents who work late or who have gone out to visit people or who have even gone out for the evening generally would return to find no spaces for them to park in because patrons of venues had taken advantage of parking as they have not found parking anywhere else in the locality and have stumbled across our car park. This usually spreads and it is simply not acceptable that our parking should be used by others simply to make their night out easier. When people have been challenged before, they have been abusive and on occasions altercations have occurred. Due to this issue, parking enforcement was introduced but this has meant that where permits were issued free of charge previously, they are now charged for to cover administrative costs. This did not resolve the issue however as the parking enforcement companies do not all operate late in to the night and even when they do, the service is very reduced. Even in the day if they are contacted, they may take hours to attend so one can imagine the turnaround time at night. Notwithstanding this, all that they can do is issue a parking ticket but this does not actually deal with the problem as the space is still occupied until the driver has finished his night out.

The other factor is that when people return to their cars they are in animated conversation with each other or be on their phones. They may loiter around their vehicles before they leave and when they leave, it is not unusual for cars to be revved etc. All of this causes a significant amount of disturbance to residents who usually were asleep and are woken from their sleep.

This issue is not something that is being predicted lightly but a situation that came into existence due to previous late licences and which largely disappeared when said licences were revoked. Although the cost of the permits to tenants have remained which is not ideal, the relief came from the fact that without the late licences, the issue went away.

This parking issue is not something that the venue could overcome despite all the will in the world. The venue is not in a position to provide parking for its patrons and signs, in reality, mean nothing. They simply do not work. Also, there are no nearby car parks and the only parking is on street parking which is already so difficult to get that the whole locality has an issue with vehicles being parked on double yellow lines, especially in the streets around the proposed premises, a fact that can easily be confirmed by Parking Services.

The protection of children from harm

As confirmed earlier, the venue is adjacent to residential homes where families live. Within 50 metres either way are two primary schools and the reason for this is the high number of children that live here. The proposals include a request to be issued a late licence for even a Thursday, a school night. A responsible licence holder would bear in mind suitability of what they are applying for as opposed to simply commercial interests. This clearly has not happened here and, with respect, demonstrates the primary motive and priority of the proposed licence holder. To grant the application as it stands, in effect you would be allowing for school children to be disturbed into the early hours of the morning where they have school the next day in relation to the application for Thursday night/Friday morning. Studies in relation to the importance of sleep for children are widely available and we do not intend to discuss them in detail here as the situation is uncontroversial. It is disappointing that the proposed licence holder did not have the same regards when applying for this licence.

Besides the school night, the other late hours applied for are also an issue as regardless of whether a child has school the next day or not, they require a good amount of sleep and much more than adults. This sleep should not be compromised to allow this commercial enterprise to operate.

Other issues that usually come hand in hand with a lot of these venues, and experienced first hand by residents, is issues such as patrons using strong language or expletives when they have left premises and as disgusting as it is, on occasions patrons have been found to be engaged in sexual acts and intercourse in doorways and alleys in the estate. It is simply unacceptable to risk exposing children to this.

Additionally, we say that having a late night venue here increases the likelihood that children will be exposed to or at least see increased signs of the consumption of alcohol and violence. There have been previous occasions where groups have had fights in the estate and one occasion when a fight led to a stabbing and a death and these have been confirmed to be patrons of late night venues either adjoining the premises or being very close to the premises. There have been incidents where people have scaled walls and entered residents' gardens or have been running through the estate screaming or chasing others whilst swearing and threatening.

It took a while to take a lot of these issues away through previous licences being revoked and this simply risks the issues returning.

For these reasons, we say that this application should be refused.

My Address: [REDACTED]

I was sent a letter informing me the licensing authority has received an application for a premises license for the following address: INS, 13 Brick Lane London E1 6PU

I have been notified that a night club will be opening potentially under my flat. I am absolutely frustrated and upset about this. I am currently working full time in which I need to leave my house at 5:00AM to make it to work for 6:00AM. As you can understand having a night club will lead to me having lack of sleep due to the noise and thus impact my health and difficulty in waking up in the morning. Furthermore, if a nightclub did open, I personally would not feel safe due to people being intoxicated. Being a Muslim, Islamophobia is a prevalent issue in our society, having this nightclub I personally would feel unsafe due to having the fear of being attacked.

If you can kindly consider my email and not agree to open a nightclub under my block or on the same street, I would greatly appreciate it.

Many thanks,

Iman Hossain

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you with regards to the application for a Premises Licence made by INS, 13 Bricklane for the sale of alcohol.

As a local resident this is something that I would like to object to in the strongest possible terms. I feel that if this licence was to be granted, then I and the neighbourhood would suffer in a number of ways.

An extended alcohol licence will draw unwelcome attention and increased footfall at unsociable hours to a residential area. Noise, public nuisance, anti-social behaviour, low-level nuisance (non reportable crime inc. shouting, swearing, urination in public, littering) will be increased. Residents in this area already suffer noise nuisance and antisocial behaviour at all hours of the day and night. It is totally unacceptable to expect residents to deal with increased levels of this.

I am also concerned about the potential for damage to property if customers are allowed to leave in the early hours of the morning, having drunk significant quantities of alcohol. I have suffered from this in the past (urinating on walls / door, graffiti on walls, broken windows) and feel it will only increase if the license was to be permitted.

Overall I believe the use of the premise for late night alcohol consumption is not an appropriate one because it's located so closely to a residential area.

I hope this email is taken into consideration.

Many thanks,

Karul Alom

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of myself and my fellow neighbours whom this license affects. We as a community would like to write with reference to the discussion taking place regarding the license for the above premises. We would like to inform you of our personal dismay at such a possibility due to the potential harmful implication it may have to the local residential area, namely the area of Thrawl Street, Flower and Dean Walk and Nathaniel close.

As you may be aware there has been a huge rise in drunk-and-disorderly behaviour and anti-social behaviour in the areas mentioned above which has coincided with the huge rise in licenses granted for alcohol consumption in the Bricklane area. As these areas mentioned above lie adjacent to Bricklane and are unfortunately within an enclosed area, there have been numerous incidences of violence, urination and defecation on residents' doorsteps and public access areas. The houses mainly affected are the row of houses to which my property lies.

We as a community have become defenceless against such incidents as they happen at late hours subsequent to the numerous alcohol licenses granted and members of the public/ customers finding discreet residential areas to relieve themselves. We have notified the local police and council on numerous occasions and they have informed us that they plan to increase policing and monitoring. However they are unable to police the many incidents that occur on a daily basis in our estates. We fear the granting the above license will cause a further increase in the violence and antisocial behaviour we are being subjected to on a daily basis. The incidents of violence have increased to such an extent, so much so, there was a fatal stabbing recently that took place after a drunken disagreement in the residential estate which started in a bar on Bricklane and continued in our estate. Our local area was cordoned off by police for two days while forensic investigations were taking place and caused a huge amount of anxiety, fear and inconvenience to the local residents due to restricted access during this period. We are afraid for our own safety in the evenings and late at night, we fear waking up to urine and faeces on our doorstep, and we fear our neighbourhood and community being subjected to a huge increase in anti-social behaviour that will make our lives a misery.

In conclusion, I urge you to seriously reconsider the application and granting of such a license. I urge you to seriously consider the residents within the local community who have suffered for so long and not to increase their suffering by granting this potential harm to the local community. I would appreciate your kind consideration and we would be happy to assist in any discussion that is to take place

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: Licensing Act 2003 – INS, 13 Brick Lane, E1 6PU

Your Ref: CLC/EHTS/LIC/108483

I write this letter on behalf of myself, my family and friends all, of whom live on the on the residential estate formerly known as the Toynbee Estate but now commonly known as the Flower & Dean Estate and enclosing Thrawl street and Nathaniel Close.

This letter is my formal representation to you and the Licensing Committee, requested that you deny granting the landlords and the management of 13 Brick Lane an Entertainment & late night Refreshment Licence, including the sale of alcohol based on the following grounds:

That the issuing of the licence will exponentially increase:

1. The levels public nuisance experienced by residents from having to live with the indignation and health hazard of late night visitors urinating and defecating on the estate and doors ways of our home. This is already a reality and with awarding another such licence will only make matters worse.
2. Will only heighten and increase crime and disorder on the residential estate bordering the establishment. With the residential estate bordering Spitalfields and Brick Lane, the surge in late night venues, cafes, bars and restaurants has seen the incidences of crime and disorder increase on the Flower & Dean Estate. This ranges from drug dealing, burglaries, noise nuisance, car crime, using the estate as a public toilet to serious cases of violence.
3. That public safety of not only the residents of the estate but that too of the general public will be placed at greater risk.
4. That the protection and safeguarding of children will be put in harm's way from an increase in violence from late night revellers and drug dealers who will look to expand and peddle the distribution of Class A drugs which the estate already suffers from being a neighbour of the Providence Row Dellow Centre which seeks to support vulnerable homeless people and offers shelter as a half-way house for many whose lives have already been blighted by the scourge of drugs and alcohol.

We therefore urge you to please reconsider giving the owners and management team of 13 Brick Lane any licence that will seriously adverse the lives of its residents.

New businesses are welcome but not this type of business, especially one which will be shoehorned into a thriving local community, living cheek by jowl with the residents which is completely and utterly incompatible due to it's proximity.

We sirs have to live here and bear the consequences of what follows.

We look to hear from you with positive news from the resident's perspective and make clear to you that I am prepared to attend any panel or hearing should you wish to hear my testimony in person.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. H. Ahmed

Dear Sirs,

Please find attached my objections regards to the above.

Please note that it is highly disappointing that only 3 properties in the Flower and Dean Estate received notification of this application and fortunately it was the signage displayed on the premises that has most likely prompted most objections. This of course also means that some residents may not have noticed the A4 sized signage and therefore missed the opportunity to object and as such, serious consideration should be given to extend the consultation period and also ensure all residents receive a letter, preferably translated into Bengali a large number of residents would find this useful as they may not have any fluent English speakers at home.

Objecting on the grounds of the Crime and Disorder Objective

Another fear that exists is that whenever a late licence has been issued adjoining the estate, there have been serious issues of crime and disorder. The make up of Brick Lane on this side is not suitable for this type of premises. Whereas the Shoreditch end of Brick Lane has a large number of late licences, this part is generally made up of restaurants and shops providing amenities for local people. A licence that had existed for a premises named Studio 54 which was based again adjacent to the estate was revoked due to serious crime and disorder but the significant length of time that was taken to achieve this was a length of time where tenants had to endure drunk and disorderly behaviour, drug taking and violence. The premises was closed due to the drunk and disorderly behaviour and drugs being sold within the premises.

Another premises described as Temple Rooms was eventually shut following many seriously violent incidents including a double stabbing. The risk of this type of behaviour should not exist at such close proximity to residential housing. It is relevant that this is not a block of housing where tenants are young, working and perhaps even transient. The estate is made up mostly of families with different generations and who have lived in the estate since it was opened in 1984. There are a large number of children who live with their families on the estate and within 20 metres is a large block providing specialist housing for the elderly and infirm.

Another issue is the prevalence of people being in the habit of consuming alcoholic drinks in groups prior to entering into a licensed premises which is a common thing. There is an off licence immediately opposite the proposed premises and several within close proximity to enable and perhaps even encourage this. This type of risk is lessened when one deals with a venue on a high street with no hidden place to congregate or sit around drinking without even the risk of any security staff from a relevant licensed premises observing and/or discouraging this behaviour. Due to the proposed location, the estate would provide ample space and opportunity especially two specific places with 10 and 20 metres from the proposed venue.

The risk of crime and anti-social behaviour is too great for this type of licence to be granted at this location and this is notwithstanding the best efforts of any licensee where the motivation is actually there to begin with.

Public safety

The two main thoroughfares for the estate adjoins the premises as mentioned and also adjoins the neighbouring premises. This part of Brick Lane is narrow allowing only two people to walk side by side due to the parked cars which would be in the bay immediately outside, the situation exacerbated by the road and pavement being on the same level. If some form of queueing is required which is expected, it will not be possible to do so on Brick Lane itself due to the crowding issue and the fact that other pedestrians will not be able to pass. The inevitably will be that queueing occurs on the side of the premises which forms part of the housing estate. This means that not only will this increase the likeliness of anti-social behaviour but also means that residents' safe passage will no doubt be compromised. This will not only be health and safety issue especially as this part is not well lit and perhaps sensibly as any high levels of lighting would impact on the residents who live the closest adversely. When residents are passing, it is not a stretch to imagine that altercations may be a risk especially when it is inebriated people who are causing obstruction and as such, arguably less likely to be in control of their actions and/or reasonable. Similar concerns exist in relation to smokers that would need to congregate outside again in the same area.

There is also a risk of bottles/glasses being taken outside which can cause broken glass or dangerous obstructions for residents when walking. Even with a condition such as plastic cups only being permitted to be used will not totally take this potential danger away and, based on previous experiences, even with conditions, there always remains a risk that some of these are taken without door staff noticing depending on the number of door staff and how diligent they are.

There are also other considerations. If a fire alarm goes off, the most logical place for patrons to congregate would be in the same place again causing an issue for residents. These risks are not acceptable for the purposes of allowing a commercial enterprise to operate.

The prevention of public nuisance

In relation to public nuisance, the concern comes from noise, not only those emanating from the premises itself but also from patrons as they come and go, especially when they are leaving at the end of the night. If people wish to get a taxi, the most common place to get a black taxi would be Commercial Street which would require walking through the estate. The same would happen if people wished to go towards Bishopsgate which has significant late night public transport. Notwithstanding that, there is also the factor that for people who have not finished the night and socialising and are still 'buzzing', they will look for a nice place to sit and talk most likely in a highly animated fashion. This again would mean that the estate would be used as it is the obvious choice.

The added dimension would be the threat to community safety in such circumstances for obvious reasons and the question is that should this risk be permitted simply to allow a commercial enterprise to operate where this is clearly the wrong location for such a commercial operation.

The bar would presumably be lit up during its hours of operation which would add another dimension of light pollution next to residential properties that currently do not have that issue and have not had that issue.

The nuisance of littering is also a concern as there is a risk that patrons who congregate outside would leave litter behind and also if they are sitting around the estate as described above. As for rubbish from the premises, there is no clear suitable area for rubbish bins and if the rubbish was to be placed in the bins after hours of operation, this in itself would most likely cause nuisance. Although it is accepted that this is already a licensed premises, there is a huge difference between a restaurant that usually had most patrons leave by around 9pm even when busy and where the primary purpose was to provide food and where the clientele that it actively tried to entice were mostly Bangladeshi people who, for the most part, do not consume alcohol and therefore it would be less likely that they would have waste such as glass bottles which would cause the most noise nuisance.

Another very serious issue for residents is the matter of parking. As members may be aware, parking, or the lack of it for residents, meant that, temporarily, parking restrictions in the locality were increased to 10pm due to the issue. Due to complaints from businesses and visitors, these were relaxed back to 7pm but the situation is not the same for residents. The estate has a lot of parking spaces, but due to the amount of households, the parking is not sufficient which is why the housing association that owns the properties have restricted each household to one resident's parking permit per household. However, this is on a first come first served basis as the properties outnumber the spaces.

When late licences have previously been issued adjacent or in very close proximity to the estate as this application seeks, the issues of others simply leaving their vehicles in our car parks has caused us serious issues. The issues have been two fold. On one hand, residents who work late or who have gone out to visit people or who have even gone out for the evening generally would return to find no spaces for them to park in because patrons of venues had taken advantage of parking as they have not found parking anywhere else in the locality and have stumbled across our car park. This usually spreads and it is simply not acceptable that our parking should be used by others simply to make their night out easier. When people have been challenged before, they have been abusive and on occasions altercations have occurred. Due to this issue, parking enforcement was introduced but this has meant that where permits were issued free of charge previously, they are now charged for to cover administrative costs. This did not resolve the issue however as the parking enforcement companies do not all operate late in to the night and even when they do, the service is very reduced. Even in the day if they are contacted, they may take hours to attend so one can imagine the turnaround time at night. Notwithstanding this, all that they can do is issue a parking ticket but this does not actually deal with the problem as the space is still occupied until the driver has finished his night out.

The other factor is that when people return to their cars they are in animated conversation with each other or be on their phones. They may loiter around their vehicles before they leave and when they leave, it is not unusual for cars to be revved etc. All of this causes a significant amount of disturbance to residents who usually were asleep and are woken from their sleep.

This issue is not something that is being predicted lightly but a situation that came into existence due to previous late licences and which largely disappeared when said licences were revoked. Although the cost of the permits to tenants have remained which is not ideal, the relief came from the fact that without the late licences, the issue went away.

This parking issue is not something that the venue could overcome despite all the will in the world. The venue is not in a position to provide parking for its patrons and signs, in reality, mean nothing. They simply do not work. Also, there are no nearby car parks and the only parking is on street parking which is already so difficult to get that the whole locality has an issue with vehicles being parked on double yellow lines, especially in the streets around the proposed premises, a fact that can easily be confirmed by Parking Services.

The protection of children from harm

As confirmed earlier, the venue is adjacent to residential homes where families live. Within 50 metres either way are two primary schools and the reason for this is the high number of children that live here. The proposals include a request to be issued a late licence for even a Thursday, a school night. A responsible licence holder would bear in mind suitability of what they are applying for as opposed to simply commercial interests. This clearly has not happened here and, with respect, demonstrates the primary motive and priority of the proposed licence holder. To grant the application as it stands, in effect you would be allowing for school children to be disturbed into the early hours of the morning where they have school the next day in relation to the application for Thursday night/Friday morning. Studies in relation to the importance of sleep for children are widely available and we do not intend to discuss them in detail here as the situation is uncontroversial. It is disappointing that the proposed licence holder did not have the same regards when applying for this licence.

Besides the school night, the other late hours applied for are also an issue as regardless of whether a child has school the next day or not, they require a good amount of sleep and much more than adults. This sleep should not be compromised to allow this commercial enterprise to operate.

Other issues that usually come hand in hand with a lot of these venues, and experienced first hand by residents, is issues such as patrons using strong language or expletives when they have left premises and as disgusting as it is, on occasions patrons have been found to be engaged in sexual acts and intercourse in doorways and alleys in the estate. It is simply unacceptable to risk exposing children to this.

Additionally, we say that having a late night venue here increases the likelihood that children will be exposed to or at least see increased signs of the consumption of alcohol and violence. There have been previous occasions where groups have had fights in the estate and one occasion when a fight led to a stabbing and a death and these have been confirmed to be patrons of late night venues either adjoining the premises or being very close to the premises. There have been incidents where people have scaled walls and entered residents' gardens or have been running through the estate screaming or chasing others whilst swearing and threatening.

It took a while to take a lot of these issues away through previous licences being revoked and this simply risks the issues returning.

For these reasons, we say that this application should be refused.

Objecting on the grounds of the Crime and Disorder Objective

On every occasion a licence has been granted in relation to premises at such close proximity, there have been issues of crime and disorder. The location is totally unsuitable for a late licence of the type proposed. For decades, this premises has been an Indian restaurant which has not operated late hours which is far more suitable.

The layout of the adjoining housing estate must be borne in mind. There is an existing issue with people using the walls of adjoining properties' gardens for public convenience and it is reasonably suspected that having these premises adjoining will exacerbate the problem. Additionally, there is a health centre next door to the premises that has what can easily be described as a sitting area which is what the area is used as during the day. It is suspected that this is also what the area will be used for at night by patrons of the premises. The entrance to the premises is on Brick Lane itself whereas this is on the side of the premises and there is no confidence that even with the licence holder's will, this issue would be addressed. The other issue of course is that at present, there is no encouragement for passers by to use the area for the same purpose but the fear is that seeing people congregate in this area will encourage others to do the same.

Another fear that exists is that whenever a late licence has been issued adjoining the estate, there have been serious issues of crime and disorder. As confirmed earlier, the venue is adjacent to residential homes where families live. Within 50 metres either way are two primary schools and the reason for this is the high number of children that live here. The proposals include a request to be issued a late licence for even a Thursday, a school night. A responsible licence holder would bear in mind suitability of what they are applying for as opposed to simply commercial interests. This clearly has not happened here and, with respect, demonstrates the primary motive and priority of the proposed licence holder. To grant the application as it stands, in effect you would be allowing for school children to be disturbed into the early hours of the morning where they have school the next day in relation to the application for Thursday night/Friday morning. Studies in relation to the importance of sleep for children are widely available and we do not intend to discuss them in detail here as the situation is uncontroversial. It is disappointing that the proposed licence holder did not have the same regards when applying for this licence.

Besides the school night, the other late hours applied for are also an issue as regardless of whether a child has school the next day or not, they require a good amount of sleep and much more than adults. This sleep should not be compromised to allow this commercial enterprise to operate.

Other issues that usually come hand in hand with a lot of these venues, and experienced first hand by residents, is issues such as patrons using strong language or expletives when they have left premises and as disgusting as it is, on occasions patrons have been found to be engaged in sexual acts and intercourse in doorways and alleys in the estate. It is simply unacceptable to risk exposing children to this.

Additionally, we say that having a late night venue here increases the likelihood that children will be exposed to or at least see increased signs of the consumption of alcohol and violence. There have been previous occasions where groups have had fights in the estate and one occasion when a fight led to a stabbing and a death and these have been confirmed to be patrons of late night venues either adjoining the premises or being very close to the premises. There have been incidents where people have scaled walls and entered residents' gardens or have been running through the estate screaming or chasing others whilst swearing and threatening.

It took a while to take a lot of these issues away through previous licences being revoked and this simply risks the issues returning.

For these reasons, we say that this application should be refused.

Objecting on the grounds of the Crime and Disorder Objective

On every occasion a licence has been granted in relation to premises at such close proximity, there have been issues of crime and disorder. The location is totally unsuitable for a late licence of the type proposed. For decades, this premises has been an Indian restaurant which has not operated late hours which is far more suitable.

The layout of the adjoining housing estate must be borne in mind. There is an existing issue with people using the walls of adjoining properties' gardens for public convenience and it is reasonably suspected that having these premises adjoining will exacerbate the problem. Additionally, there is a health centre next door to the premises that has what can easily be described as a sitting area which is what the area is used as during the day. It is suspected that this is also what the area will be used for at night by patrons of the premises. The entrance to the premises is on Brick Lane itself whereas this is on the side of the premises and there is no confidence that even with the licence holder's will, this issue would be addressed. The other issue of course is that at present, there is no encouragement for passers by to use the area for the same purpose but the fear is that seeing people congregate in this area will encourage others to do the same.

Another fear that exists is that whenever a late licence has been issued adjoining the estate, there have been serious issues of crime and disorder. The make up of Brick Lane on this side is not suitable for this type of premises. Whereas the Shoreditch end of Brick Lane has a large number of late licences, this part is generally made up of restaurants and shops providing amenities for local people. A licence that had existed for a premises named Studio 54 which was based again adjacent to the estate was revoked due to serious crime and disorder but the significant length of time that was taken to achieve this was a length of time where tenants had to endure drunk and disorderly behaviour, drug taking and violence. The premises was closed due to the drunk and disorderly behaviour and drugs being sold within the premises.

Another premises described as Temple Rooms was eventually shut following many seriously violent incidents including a double stabbing. The risk of this type of behaviour should not exist at such close proximity to residential housing. It is relevant that this is not a block of housing where tenants are young, working and perhaps even transient. The estate is made up mostly of families with different generations and who have lived in the estate since it was opened in 1984. There are a large number of children who live with their families on the estate and within 20 metres is a large block providing specialist housing for the elderly and infirm.

Another issue is the prevalence of people being in the habit of consuming alcoholic drinks in groups prior to entering into a licensed premises which is a common thing. There is an off licence immediately opposite the proposed premises and several within close proximity to enable and perhaps even encourage this. This type of risk is lessened when one deals with a venue on a high street with no hidden place to congregate or sit around drinking without even the risk of any security staff from a relevant licensed premises observing and/or discouraging this behaviour. Due to the proposed location, the estate would provide ample space and opportunity especially two specific places with 10 and 20 metres from the proposed venue.

The risk of crime and anti-social behaviour is too great for this type of licence to be granted at this location and this is notwithstanding the best efforts of any licensee where the motivation is actually there to begin with.

Public safety

The two main thoroughfares for the estate adjoins the premises as mentioned and also adjoins the neighbouring premises. This part of Brick Lane is narrow allowing only two people to walk side by side due to the parked cars which would be in the bay immediately outside, the situation exacerbated by the road and pavement being on the same level. If some form of queueing is required which is expected, it will not be possible to do so on Brick Lane itself due to the crowding issue and the fact that other pedestrians will not be able to pass. The inevitably will be that queueing occurs on the side of the premises which forms part of the housing estate. This means that not only will this increase the likeliness of anti-social behaviour but also means that residents' safe passage will no doubt be compromised. This will not only be health and safety issue especially as this part is not well lit and perhaps sensibly as any high levels of lighting would impact on the residents who live the closest adversely. When residents are passing, it is not a stretch to imagine that altercations may be a risk especially when it is inebriated people who are causing obstruction and as such, arguably less likely to be in control of their actions and/or reasonable. Similar concerns exist in relation to smokers that would need to congregate outside again in the same area.

There is also a risk of bottles/glasses being taken outside which can cause broken glass or dangerous obstructions for residents when walking. Even with a condition such as plastic cups only being permitted to be used will not totally take this potential danger away and, based on previous experiences, even with conditions, there always remains a risk that some of these are taken without door staff noticing depending on the number of door staff and how diligent they are.

There are also other considerations. If a fire alarm goes off, the most logical place for patrons to congregate would be in the same place again causing an issue for residents. These risks are not acceptable for the purposes of allowing a commercial enterprise to operate.

The prevention of public nuisance

In relation to public nuisance, the concern comes from noise, not only those emanating from the premises itself but also from patrons as they come and go, especially when they are leaving at the end of the night. If people wish to get a taxi, the most common place to get a black taxi would be Commercial Street which would require walking through the estate. The same would happen if people wished to go towards Bishopsgate which has significant late night public transport. Notwithstanding that, there is also the factor that for people who have not finished the night and socialising and are still 'buzzing', they will look for a nice place to sit and talk most likely in a highly animated fashion. This again would mean that the estate would be used as it is the obvious choice.

The added dimension would be the threat to community safety in such circumstances for obvious reasons and the question is that should this risk be permitted simply to allow a commercial enterprise to operate where this is clearly the wrong location for such a commercial operation.

The bar would presumably be lit up during its hours of operation which would add another dimension of light pollution next to residential properties that currently do not have that issue and have not had that issue.

The nuisance of littering is also a concern as there is a risk that patrons who congregate outside would leave litter behind and also if they are sitting around the estate as described above. As for rubbish from the premises, there is no clear suitable area for rubbish bins and if the rubbish was to be placed in the bins after hours of operation, this in itself would most likely cause nuisance. Although it is accepted that this is already a licensed premises, there is a huge difference between a restaurant that usually had most patrons leave by around 9pm even when busy and where the primary purpose was to provide food and where the clientele that it actively tried to entice were mostly Bangladeshi people who, for the most part, do not consume alcohol and therefore it would be less likely that they would have waste such as glass bottles which would cause the most noise nuisance.

Another very serious issue for residents is the matter of parking. As members may be aware, parking, or the lack of it for residents, meant that, temporarily, parking restrictions in the locality were increased to 10pm due to the issue. Due to complaints from businesses and visitors, these were relaxed back to 7pm but the situation is not the same for residents. The estate has a lot of parking spaces, but due to the amount of households, the parking is not sufficient which is why the housing association that owns the properties have restricted each household to one resident's parking permit per household. However, this is on a first come first served basis as the properties outnumber the spaces.

When late licences have previously been issued adjacent or in very close proximity to the estate as this application seeks, the issues of others simply leaving their vehicles in our car parks has caused us serious issues. The issues have been two fold. On one hand, residents who work late or who have gone out to visit people or who have even gone out for the evening generally would return to find no spaces for them to park in because patrons of venues had taken advantage of parking as they have not found parking anywhere else in the locality and have stumbled across our car park. This usually spreads and it is simply not acceptable that our parking should be used by others simply to make their night out easier. When people have been challenged before, they have been abusive and on occasions altercations have occurred. Due to this issue, parking enforcement was introduced but this has meant that where permits were issued free of charge previously, they are now charged for to cover administrative costs. This did not resolve the issue however as the parking enforcement companies do not all operate late in to the night and even when they do, the service is very reduced. Even in the day if they are contacted, they may take hours to attend so one can imagine the turnaround time at night. Notwithstanding this, all that they can do is issue a parking ticket but this does not actually deal with the problem as the space is still occupied until the driver has finished his night out.

The other factor is that when people return to their cars they are in animated conversation with each other or be on their phones. They may loiter around their vehicles before they leave and when they leave, it is not unusual for cars to be revved etc. All of this causes a significant amount of disturbance to residents who usually were asleep and are woken from their sleep.

This issue is not something that is being predicted lightly but a situation that came into existence due to previous late licences and which largely disappeared when said licences were revoked. Although the cost of the permits to tenants have remained which is not ideal, the relief came from the fact that without the late licences, the issue went away.

This parking issue is not something that the venue could overcome despite all the will in the world. The venue is not in a position to provide parking for its patrons and signs, in reality, mean nothing. They simply do not work. Also, there are no nearby car parks and the only parking is on street parking which is already so difficult to get that the whole locality has an issue with vehicles being parked on double yellow lines, especially in the streets around the proposed premises, a fact that can easily be confirmed by Parking Services.

The protection of children from harm

As confirmed earlier, the venue is adjacent to residential homes where families live. Within 50 metres either way are two primary schools and the reason for this is the high number of children that live here. The proposals include a request to be issued a late licence for even a Thursday, a school night. Notwithstanding that, there is also the factor that for people who have not finished the night and socialising and are still 'buzzing', they will look for a nice place to sit and talk most likely in a highly animated fashion. This again would mean that the estate would be used as it is the obvious choice.

The added dimension would be the threat to community safety in such circumstances for obvious reasons and the question is that should this risk be permitted simply to allow a commercial enterprise to operate where this is clearly the wrong location for such a commercial operation.

The bar would presumably be lit up during its hours of operation which would add another dimension of light pollution next to residential properties that currently do not have that issue and have not had that issue.

The nuisance of littering is also a concern as there is a risk that patrons who congregate outside would leave litter behind and also if they are sitting around the estate as described above. As for rubbish from the premises, there is no clear suitable area for rubbish bins and if the rubbish was to be placed in the bins after hours of operation, this in itself would most likely cause nuisance. Although it is accepted that this is already a licensed premises, there is a huge difference between a restaurant that usually had most patrons leave by around 9pm even when busy and where the primary purpose was to provide food and where the clientele that it actively tried to entice were mostly Bangladeshi people who, for the most part, do not consume alcohol and therefore it would be less likely that they would have waste such as glass bottles which would cause the most noise nuisance.

Another very serious issue for residents is the matter of parking. As members may be aware, parking, or the lack of it for residents, meant that, temporarily, parking restrictions in the locality were increased to 10pm due to the issue. Due to complaints from businesses and visitors, these were relaxed back to 7pm but the situation is not the same for residents. The estate has a lot of parking spaces, but due to the amount of households, the parking is not sufficient which is why the housing association that owns the properties have restricted each household to one resident's parking permit per household. However, this is on a first come first served basis as the properties outnumber the spaces.

When late licences have previously been issued adjacent or in very close proximity to the estate as this application seeks, the issues of others simply leaving their vehicles in our car parks has caused us serious issues. The issues have been two fold. On one hand, residents who work late or who have gone out to visit people or who have even gone out for the evening generally would return to find no spaces for them to park in because patrons of venues had taken advantage of parking as they have not found parking anywhere else in the locality and have stumbled across our car park. This usually spreads and it is simply not acceptable that our parking should be used by others simply to make their night out easier. When people have been challenged before, they have been abusive and on occasions altercations have occurred. Due to this issue, parking enforcement was introduced but this has meant that where permits were issued free of charge previously, they are now charged for to cover administrative costs. This did not resolve the issue however as the parking enforcement companies do not all operate late in to the night and even when they do, the service is very reduced. Even in the day if they are contacted, they may take hours to attend so one can imagine the turnaround time at night. Notwithstanding this, all that they can do is issue a parking ticket but this does not actually deal with the problem as the space is still occupied until the driver has finished his night out.

The other factor is that when people return to their cars they are in animated conversation with each other or be on their phones. They may loiter around their vehicles before they leave and when they leave, it is not unusual for cars to be revved etc. All of this causes a significant amount of disturbance to residents who usually were asleep and are woken from their sleep.

This issue is not something that is being predicted lightly but a situation that came into existence due to previous late licences and which largely disappeared when said licences were revoked. Although the cost of the permits to tenants have remained which is not ideal, the relief came from the fact that without the late licences, the issue went away.

This parking issue is not something that the venue could overcome despite all the will in the world. The venue is not in a position to provide parking for its patrons and signs, in reality, mean nothing. They simply do not work. Also, there are no nearby car parks and the only parking is on street parking which is already so difficult to get that the whole locality has an issue with vehicles being parked on double yellow lines, especially in the streets around the proposed premises, a fact that can easily be confirmed by Parking Services.

The protection of children from harm

As confirmed earlier, the venue is adjacent to residential homes where families live. Within 50 metres either way are two primary schools and the reason for this is the high number of children that live here. The proposals include a request to be issued a late licence for even a Thursday, a school night. A responsible licence holder would bear in mind suitability of what they are applying for as opposed to simply commercial interests. This clearly has not happened here and, with respect, demonstrates the primary motive and priority of the proposed licence holder. To grant the application as it stands, in effect you would be allowing for school children to be disturbed into the early hours of the morning where they have school the next day in relation to the application for Thursday night/Friday morning. Studies in relation to the importance of sleep for children are widely available and we do not intend to discuss them in detail here as the situation is uncontroversial. It is disappointing that the proposed licence holder did not have the same regards when applying for this licence.

Besides the school night, the other late hours applied for are also an issue as regardless of whether a child has school the next day or not, they require a good amount of sleep and much more than adults. This sleep should not be compromised to allow this commercial enterprise to operate.

Other issues that usually come hand in hand with a lot of these venues, and experienced first hand by residents, is issues such as patrons using strong language or expletives when they have left premises and as disgusting as it is, on occasions patrons have been found to be engaged in sexual acts and intercourse in doorways and alleys in the estate. It is simply unacceptable to risk exposing children to this.

Additionally, we say that having a late night venue here increases the likelihood that children will be exposed to or at least see increased signs of the consumption of alcohol and violence. There have been previous occasions where groups have had fights in the estate and one occasion when a fight led to a stabbing and a death and these have been confirmed to be patrons of late night venues either adjoining the premises or being very close to the premises. There have been incidents where people have scaled walls and entered residents' gardens or have been running through the estate screaming or chasing others whilst swearing and threatening.

It took a while to take a lot of these issues away through previous licences being revoked and this simply risks the issues returning.

For these reasons, we say that this application should be refused.

Objecting on the grounds of the Crime and Disorder Objective

On every occasion a licence has been granted in relation to premises at such close proximity, there have been issues of crime and disorder. The location is totally unsuitable for a late licence of the type proposed. For decades, this premises has been an indian restaurant which has not operated late hours which is far more suitable.

The layout of the adjoining housing estate must be borne in mind. There is an existing issue with people using the walls of adjoining properties' gardens for public convenience and it is reasonably suspected that having these premises adjoining will exacerbate the problem. Additionally, there is a health centre next door to the premises that has what can easily be described as a sitting area which is what the area is used as during the day. It is suspected that this is also what the area will be used for at night by patrons of the premises. The entrance to the premises is on Brick Lane itself whereas this is on the side of the premises and there is no confidence that even with the licence holder's will, this issue would be addressed. The other issue of course is that at present, there is no encouragement for passers by to use the area for the same purpose but the fear is that seeing people congregate in this area will encourage others to do the same.

Another fear that exists is that whenever a late licence has been issued adjoining the estate, there have been serious issues of crime and disorder. The make up of Brick Lane on this side is not suitable for this type of premises. Whereas the Shoreditch end of Brick Lane has a large number of late licences, this part is generally made up of restaurants and shops providing amenities for local people. A licence that had existed for a premises named Studio 54 which was based again adjacent to the estate was revoked due to serious crime an disorder but the significant length of time that was taken to achieve this was a length of time where tenants had to endure drunk and disorderly behaviour, drug taking and violence. The premises was closed due to the drunk and disorderly behaviour and drugs being sold within the premises.

Another premises described as Temple Rooms was eventually shut following many seriously violent incidents including a double stabbing. The risk of this type of behaviour should not exist at such close proximity to residential housing. It is relevant that this is not a block of housing where tenants are young, working and perhaps even transient. The estate is made up mostly of families with different generations and who have lived in the estate since it was opened in 1984. There are a large number of children who live with their families on the estate and within 20 metres is a large block providing specialist housing for the elderly and infirm.

Another issue is the prevalence of people being in the habit of consuming alcoholic drinks in groups prior to entering into a licensed premises which is a common thing. There is an off licence immediately opposite the proposed premises and several within close proximity to enable and perhaps even encourage this. This type of risk is lessened when one deals with a venue on a high street with no hidden place to congregate or sit around drinking without even the risk of any security staff from a relevant licensed premises observing and/or discouraging this behaviour. Due to the proposed location, the estate would provide ample space and opportunity especially two specific places with 10 and 20 metres from the proposed venue.

The risk of crime and anti-social behaviour is too great for this type of licence to be granted at this location and this is notwithstanding the best efforts of any licensee where the motivation is actually there to begin with.

Public safety

The two main thoroughfares for the estate adjoins the premises as mentioned and also adjoins the neighbouring premises. This part of Brick Lane is narrow allowing only two people to walk side by side due to the parked cars which would be in the bay immediately outside, the situation exacerbated by the road and pavement being on the same level. If some form of queueing is required which is expected, it will not be possible to do so on Brick Lane itself due to the crowding issue and the fact that other pedestrians will not be able to pass. The inevitable will be that queueing occurs on the side of the premises which forms part of the housing estate. This means that not only will this increase the likeliness of anti-social behaviour but also means that residents' safe passage will no doubt be compromised. This will not only be health and safety issue especially as this part is not well lit and perhaps sensibly as any high levels of lighting would impact on the residents who live the closest adversely. When residents are passing, it is not a stretch to imagine that altercations may be a risk especially when it is inebriated people who are causing obstruction and as such, arguably less likely to be in control of their actions and/or reasonable. Similar concerns exist in relation to smokers that would need to congregate outside again in the same area.

There is also a risk of bottles/glasses being taken outside which can cause broken glass or dangerous obstructions for residents when walking. Even with a condition such as plastic cups only being permitted to be used will not totally take this potential danger away and, based on previous experiences, even with conditions, there always remains a risk that some of these are taken without door staff noticing depending on the number of door staff and how diligent they are.

There are also other considerations. If a fire alarm goes off, the most logical place for patrons to congregate would be in the same place again causing an issue for residents. These risks are not acceptable for the purposes of allowing a commercial enterprise to operate.

The prevention of public nuisance

In relation to public nuisance, the concern comes from noise, not only those emanating from the premises itself but also from patrons as they come and go, especially when they are leaving at the end of the night. If people wish to get a taxi, the most common place to get a black taxi would be Commercial Street which would require walking through the estate. The same would happen if people wished to go towards Bishopsgate which has significant late night public transport. Notwithstanding that, there is also the factor that for people who have not finished the night and socialising and are still 'buzzing', they will look for a nice place to sit and talk most likely in a highly animated fashion. This again would mean that the estate would be used as it is the obvious choice.

The added dimension would be the threat to community safety in such circumstances for obvious reasons and the question is that should this risk be permitted simply to allow a commercial enterprise to operate where this is clearly the wrong location for such a commercial operation.

Sorry my bad it is 13 Bricklane
And the problems we face on the estate is already hard with drink and drugs coming from commercial street westside and now If this licence is issued on eastside of estate then too will be happening on both ends of estate. If only people were liberal when they drink then I have no issues but it's caused too many problems on the estate.
We see a lot of stuff like vomit, empty drink bottles and noise.
Hope this explains it

Objecting on the grounds of the Crime and Disorder Objective

On every occasion a licence has been granted in relation to premises at such close proximity, there have been issues of crime and disorder. The location is totally unsuitable for a late licence of the type proposed. For decades, this premises has been an Indian restaurant which has not operated late hours which is far more suitable.

The layout of the adjoining housing estate must be borne in mind. There is an existing issue with people using the walls of adjoining properties' gardens for public convenience and it is reasonably suspected that having these premises adjoining will exacerbate the problem. Additionally, there is a health centre next door to the premises that has what can easily be described as a sitting area which is what the area is used as during the day. It is suspected that this is also what the area will be used for at night by patrons of the premises. The entrance to the premises is on Brick Lane itself whereas this is on the side of the premises and there is no confidence that even with the licence holder's will, this issue would be addressed. The other issue of course is that at present, there is no encouragement for passers by to use the area for the same purpose but the fear is that seeing people congregate in this area will encourage others to do the same.

Another fear that exists is that whenever a late licence has been issued adjoining the estate, there have been serious issues of crime and disorder. The make up of Brick Lane on this side is not suitable for this type of premises. Whereas the Shoreditch end of Brick Lane has a large number of late licences, this part is generally made up of restaurants and shops providing amenities for local people. A licence that had existed for a premises named Studio 54 which was based again adjacent to the estate was revoked due to serious crime and disorder but the significant length of time that was taken to achieve this was a length of time where tenants had to endure drunk and disorderly behaviour, drug taking and violence. The premises was closed due to the drunk and disorderly behaviour and drugs being sold within the premises.

Another premises described as Temple Rooms was eventually shut following many seriously violent incidents including a double stabbing. The risk of this type of behaviour should not exist at such close proximity to residential housing. It is relevant that this is not a block of housing where tenants are young, working and perhaps even transient. The estate is made up mostly of families with different generations and who have lived in the estate since it was opened in 1984. There are a large number of children who live with their families on the estate and within 20 metres is a large block providing specialist housing for the elderly and infirm.

Another issue is the prevalence of people being in the habit of consuming alcoholic drinks in groups prior to entering into a licensed premises which is a common thing. There is an off licence immediately opposite the proposed premises and several within close proximity to enable and perhaps even encourage this. This type of risk is lessened when one deals with a venue on a high street with no hidden place to congregate or sit around drinking without even the risk of any security staff from a relevant licensed premises observing and/or discouraging this behaviour. Due to the proposed location, the estate would provide ample space and opportunity especially two specific places with 10 and 20 metres from the proposed venue.

The risk of crime and anti-social behaviour is too great for this type of licence to be granted at this location and this is notwithstanding the best efforts of any licensee where the motivation is actually there to begin with.

Public safety

The two main thoroughfares for the estate adjoins the premises as mentioned and also adjoins the neighbouring premises. This part of Brick Lane is narrow allowing only two people to walk side by side due to the parked cars which would be in the bay immediately outside, the situation exacerbated by the road and pavement being on the same level. If some form of queueing is required which is expected, it will not be possible to do so on Brick Lane itself due to the crowding issue and the fact that other pedestrians will not be able to pass. The inevitable will be that queueing occurs on the side of the premises which forms part of the housing estate. This means that not only will this increase the likeliness of anti-social behaviour but also means that residents' safe passage will no doubt be compromised. This will not only be health and safety issue especially as this part is not well lit and perhaps sensibly as any high levels of lighting would impact on the residents who live the closest adversely. When residents are passing, it is not a stretch to imagine that altercations may be a risk especially when it is inebriated people who are causing obstruction and as such, arguably less likely to be in control of their actions and/or reasonable. Similar concerns exist in relation to smokers that would need to congregate outside again in the same area.

There is also a risk of bottles/glasses being taken outside which can cause broken glass or dangerous obstructions for residents when walking. Even with a condition such as plastic cups only being permitted to be used will not totally take this potential danger away and, based on previous experiences, even with conditions, there always remains a risk that some of these are taken without door staff noticing depending on the number of door staff and how diligent they are.

There are also other considerations. If a fire alarm goes off, the most logical place for patrons to congregate would be in the same place again causing an issue for residents. These risks are not acceptable for the purposes of allowing a commercial enterprise to operate.

The prevention of public nuisance

In relation to public nuisance, the concern comes from noise, not only those emanating from the premises itself but also from patrons as they come and go, especially when they are leaving at the end of the night. If people wish to get a taxi, the most common place to get a black taxi would be Commercial Street which would require walking through the estate. The same would happen if people wished to go towards Bishopsgate which has significant late night public transport. Notwithstanding that, there is also the factor that for people who have not finished the night and socialising and are still 'buzzing', they will look for a nice place to sit and talk most likely in a highly animated fashion. This again would mean that the estate would be used as it is the obvious choice.

The added dimension would be the threat to community safety in such circumstances for obvious reasons and the question is that should this risk be permitted simply to allow a commercial enterprise to operate where this is clearly the wrong location for such a commercial operation.

The bar would presumably be lit up during its hours of operation which would add another dimension of light pollution next to residential properties that currently do not have that issue and have not had that issue.

The nuisance of littering is also a concern as there is a risk that patrons who congregate outside would leave litter behind and also if they are sitting around the estate as described above. As for rubbish from the premises, there is no clear suitable area for rubbish bins and if the rubbish was to be placed in the bins after hours of operation, this in itself would most likely cause nuisance. Although it is accepted that this is already a licensed premises, there is a huge difference between a restaurant that usually had most patrons leave by around 9pm even when busy and where the primary purpose was to provide food and where the clientele that it actively tried to entice were mostly Bangladeshi people who, for the most part, do not consume alcohol and therefore it would be less likely that they would have waste such as glass bottles which would cause the most noise nuisance.

Another very serious issue for residents is the matter of parking. As members may be aware, parking, or the lack of it for residents, meant that, temporarily, parking restrictions in the locality were increased to 10pm due to the issue. Due to complaints from businesses and visitors, these were relaxed back to 7pm but the situation is not the same for residents. The estate has a lot of parking spaces, but due to the amount of households, the parking is not sufficient which is why the housing association that owns the properties have restricted each household to one resident's parking permit per household. However, this is on a first come first served basis as the properties outnumber the spaces.

When late licences have previously been issued adjacent or in very close proximity to the estate as this application seeks, the issues of others simply leaving their vehicles in our car parks has caused us serious issues. The issues have been two fold. On one hand, residents who work late or who have gone out to visit people or who have even gone out for the evening generally would return to find no spaces for them to park in because patrons of venues had taken advantage of parking as they have not found parking anywhere else in the locality and have stumbled across our car park. This usually spreads and it is simply not acceptable that our parking should be used by others simply to make their night out easier. When people have been challenged before, they have been abusive and on occasions altercations have occurred. Due to this issue, parking enforcement was introduced but this has meant that where permits were issued free of charge previously, they are now charged for to cover administrative costs. This did not resolve the issue however as the parking enforcement companies do not all operate late in to the night and even when they do, the service is very reduced. Even in the day if they are contacted, they may take hours to attend so one can imagine the turnaround time at night. Notwithstanding this, all that they can do is issue a parking ticket but this does not actually deal with the problem as the space is still occupied until the driver has finished his night out.

The other factor is that when people return to their cars they are in animated conversation with each other or be on their phones. They may loiter around their vehicles before they leave and when they leave, it is not unusual for cars to be revved etc. All of this causes a significant amount of disturbance to residents who usually were asleep and are woken from their sleep.

This issue is not something that is being predicted lightly but a situation that came into existence due to previous late licences and which largely disappeared when said licences were revoked. Although the cost of the permits to tenants have remained which is not ideal, the relief came from the fact that without the late licences, the issue went away.

This parking issue is not something that the venue could overcome despite all the will in the world. The venue is not in a position to provide parking for its patrons and signs, in reality, mean nothing. They simply do not work. Also, there are no nearby car parks and the only parking is on street parking which is already so difficult to get that the whole locality has an issue with vehicles being parked on double yellow lines, especially in the streets around the proposed premises, a fact that can easily be confirmed by Parking Services.

The protection of children from harm

As confirmed earlier, the venue is adjacent to residential homes where families live. Within 50 metres either way are two primary schools and the reason for this is the high number of children that live here. The proposals include a request to be issued a late licence for even a Thursday, a school night. A responsible licence holder would bear in mind suitability of what they are applying for as opposed to simply commercial interests. This clearly has not happened here and, with respect, demonstrates the primary motive and priority of the proposed licence holder. To grant the application as it stands, in effect you would be allowing for school children to be disturbed into the early hours of the morning where they have school the next day in relation to the application for Thursday night/Friday morning. Studies in relation to the importance of sleep for children are widely available and we do not intend to discuss them in detail here as the situation is uncontroversial. It is disappointing that the proposed licence holder did not have the same regards when applying for this licence.

Besides the school night, the other late hours applied for are also an issue as regardless of whether a child has school the next day or not, they require a good amount of sleep and much more than adults. This sleep should not be compromised to allow this commercial enterprise to operate.

Other issues that usually come hand in hand with a lot of these venues, and experienced first hand by residents, is issues such as patrons using strong language or expletives when they have left premises and as disgusting as it is, on occasions patrons have been found to be engaged in sexual acts and intercourse in doorways and alleys in the estate. It is simply unacceptable to risk exposing children to this.

Additionally, we say that having a late night venue here increases the likelihood that children will be exposed to or at least see increased signs of the consumption of alcohol and violence. There have been previous occasions where groups have had fights in the estate and one occasion when a fight led to a stabbing and a death and these have been confirmed to be patrons of late night venues either adjoining the premises or being very close to the premises. There have been incidents where people have scaled walls and entered residents' gardens or have been running through the estate screaming or chasing others whilst swearing and threatening.

It took a while to take a lot of these issues away through previous licences being revoked and this simply risks the issues returning.

For these reasons, we say that this application should be refused.

Noise while the premise is in use

General Advice

If they conclude this is a problem Members should consider whether it is possible to carry out suitable and proportionate noise control measures so that noise leakage is prevented. In addition Members may consider that only certain activities are suitable.

The hours of operation also need to be considered (see below).

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem of noise while the premises are in use and it cannot be proportionately address by licensing conditions they should refuse the application.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that noise nuisance can be an issue, especially if a premises is open late at night. (See Sections 10.1 of the Licensing Policy). While all applications will be considered on their merits, consideration will be given to imposing stricter conditions in respect of noise control where premises are situated close to local residents. (See Section 15.10).

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all nuisance issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice from the Council's Environmental Health Officers. (See Section 10.2 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to prevent nuisance and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Poll of Conditions relating to Crime and Disorder. (See Appendix 3 Annex D of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- hours of opening (this needs to be balanced against potential disorder caused by artificially early closing times)
- Whether certain parts should close earlier than the rest (for example a "beer garden", or restricted in their use)
- Whether or not certain activities should have to close at an early hour, for example live music
- Conditions controlling noise or vibration (for example, noise limiters, keeping doors and windows closed).
- Prominent clear and legible notices at all exits requesting the public to respect the needs of local residents and leave the premises and area quietly
- Conditions controlling the use of explosives, pyrotechnics and fireworks
- Conditions controlling the placing of refuse
- Conditions controlling noxious smells
- Conditions controlling lighting (this needs to be balanced against potential crime prevention benefits)

Police Powers

Part 8 of the Licensing Act 2003 enables a senior police officer to close down a premises for up to 24 hrs where public nuisance is being caused by noise coming from the premises and the closure of the premises is necessary to prevent that nuisance.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The Licensing Policy has adopted the recommended Pool of Conditions as permitted (Annex D).

The prevention of public nuisance could include low-level nuisance, perhaps affecting a few people living locally as well as major disturbance affecting the whole community (2.15).

Licence conditions should not duplicate other legislation (1.16).

Necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods (2.19) and may address disturbance as customers enter or leave the premises but it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder.

Other Legislation

The Environmental Protection Act 1990, Part 111 gives Environmental Health Officers the power to deal with statutory nuisances.

The Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Sections 40 and 41 give Environmental Health Officers the power of closure up to 24 hours in certain circumstances.

Appendix 28

Access and Egress Problems

Such as:

- Disturbance from patrons arriving/leaving the premises on foot
- Disturbance from patrons arriving/leaving the premises by car
- Lack of adequate car parking facilities
- Close proximity to residential properties

Comment

The above have been grouped together as egress problems. Of course the particular facts will be different for each alleged problem.

Egress only is referred to-if necessary access can be added or substituted in.

General Advice

In considering concerns relating to disturbance from egress, Members need to be satisfied that the premises under consideration has been identified as the source of the actual or potential disturbance. If they are satisfied that this is a problem, then proportionate conditions should be considered.

The hours of operation also need to be considered.

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem concerning egress and it cannot be proportionately addressed by licensing conditions, they should refuse the application.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that noise nuisance can be an issue, especially if a premises is open late at night. (See Section 10 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all nuisance issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice from the Council's Environmental Health Officers. (See Section 10.2 of the Licensing Policy).

The policy also recognises that staggered closing can help prevent problems at closure time (See Section 15.1).

However, while all applications will be considered on their merits, consideration will be given to imposing stricter conditions in respect of noise control where premises are situated close to local residents. (See Section 15.5)

The Council has adopted a set of framework hours (See 15.8 of the licensing policy). This relates to potential disturbance caused by late night trading.

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to prevent nuisance and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Pool of Conditions relating to the prevention of Public Nuisance. (See Annex G of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- hours of opening (this needs to be balanced against potential disorder caused by artificially early closing times)
- Whether certain parts should close earlier than the rest (for example a “beer garden”, or restricted in their use)
- Whether or not certain activities should have to close at an early hour, for example live music
- Conditions controlling noise or vibration (for example, noise limiters, keeping doors and windows closed).
- Prominent clear and legible notices at all exits requesting the public to respect the needs of local residents and leave the premises and area quietly

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The prevention of public nuisance could include low-level nuisance, perhaps affecting a few people living locally as well as major disturbance affecting the whole community. (2.15).

Licence conditions should not duplicate other legislation (1.16).

Any conditions should be tailored to the type, nature and characteristics of the specific premises. Licensing authorities should be aware of the need to avoid inappropriate or disproportionate measures that could deter events that are valuable to the community, such as live music. Noise limiters, for example, are very expensive to purchase and install and are likely to be a considerable burden for smaller venues. (2.19)

Measures can include ensuring the safe departure of customers, these can include:

- Providing information on the premises of local taxi companies who can provide safe transportation home; and
- Ensuring adequate lighting outside the premises, particularly on paths leading to and from the premises and in car parks

Necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods (2.19) and may address disturbance as customers enter or leave the premises but it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder.

Appendix 29

Anti-Social Behaviour on the Premises

Licensing Policy

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all crime and disorder issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice. (See Section 6 of the Licensing Policy)

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to deter crime and disorder and these may include conditions drawn from the Model Poll of Conditions relating to Crime and Disorder. (See Appendix 3 of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- Methods of management communication
- Use of registered Door Supervisors
- Bottle Bans
- Plastic containers
- CCTV
- Restrictions on open containers for “off sales”
- Restrictions on drinking areas
- Capacity
- Proof of Age scheme
- Crime prevention notices
- Drinks promotions-aimed at stopping irresponsible promotions
- Signage
- Seating plans
- Capacity

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem of anti-social behaviour and it cannot be proportionately addressed by licensing conditions they should refuse the application.

Police Powers

The Licensing Act 2003, Part 8 gives a senior police officer the power to close a premises for up to 24 hours where the officer believes there is, or is likely to be disorder on or in the vicinity and closure is necessary in the interests of public safety.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The pool of conditions, adopted by the Council is recommended (Annexe D).

The key role of the Police and SIA is acknowledged (2.1-2.2).

Conditions attached to licences cannot seek to manage the behaviour of customers once they are beyond the direct management of the licence holder and their staff or agents, but can directly impact on the behaviour of customers in the immediate vicinity of the premises as they seek entry or leave (1.16).

Conditions are best targeted on deterrence and preventing crime and disorder (2.3) communication, CCTV, police liaison, no glasses, capacity limits are all relevant (2.3 - 2.6).

The Guidance recognises working with Home Office Immigration Enforcement in the prevention of immigration crime. Licence conditions that are considered appropriate for the prevention of illegal working in licensed premises might include requiring a premises licence holder to undertake right to work checks on all staff employed at the licensed premises or requiring that a copy of any document checked as part of a right to work check are retained at the licensed premises.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

Conditions can be imposed for large capacity “vertical consumption” premises (10.23 – 10.24).

Guidance Issued by the Office of Fair Trading

This relates to attempts to control minimum prices.

Other Legislation

- The Council has a duty under Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 to do all it reasonably can to prevent crime and disorder

Appendix 30

Anti-Social Behaviour from Patrons Leaving the Premises

General Advice

Members need to bear in mind that once patrons have left a premises they are no longer under direct control. Members will need to be satisfied that there is a link between the way the premises is operating and the behaviour that is complained of. An example of this would be that irresponsible drinking is being encouraged. Before deciding that any particular licensing conditions are proportionate, Members will also need to be satisfied that other legislation is not a more effective route. For example, if the problem is drinking in the street it may be that the Council should designate the area as a place where alcohol cannot be consumed in public.

Members may also wish to consider whether the hours of opening relate to any problems of anti-social behaviour.

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem of anti-social behaviour and it cannot be proportionately addressed by licensing conditions they should refuse the application.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that other legislation or measures may be more appropriate but also states that licensing laws are “a key aspect of such control and will always be part of an overall approach to the management of the evening and night time economy” (see Section 4.15 and 4.16 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all crime and disorder issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice. (See Sections 6.2 of the Licensing Policy)

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to deter crime and disorder and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Poll of Conditions relating to Crime and Disorder. (See Appendix 3 of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- Bottle Bans
- Plastic containers
- CCTV (outside the premises)
- Restrictions on open containers for “off sales”
- Proof of Age scheme
- Crime prevention notices
- Drinks promotions-aimed at stopping irresponsible promotions
- Signage

Cumulative Impact

There is a process by which the Licensing Authority can determine that an area is saturated following representations. However, the process for this involves wide consultation and cannot come from representations about a particular application. (See Section 8 of the Licensing Policy).

Police Powers

The Licensing Act 2003, Part 8 gives a senior police officer the power to close a premises for up to 24 hours where the officer believes there is, or is likely to be disorder on or in the vicinity and closure is necessary in the interests of public.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The key role of the Police is acknowledged (2.1).

Conditions attached to licences cannot seek to manage the behaviour of customers once they are beyond the direct management of the licence holder, but can relate to the immediate vicinity of the premises as they seek entry or leave (1.16).

Conditions are best targeted on deterrence and preventing crime and disorder (2.3) CCTV inside & out, communication, police liaison, no glasses are all relevant

There is also guidance issued around public nuisance (2.15 – 2.21).

The pool of conditions, adopted by the Council is recommended (see Appendix 3 of the Licensing Policy). Licence conditions should not duplicate other legislation (1.16).

Necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods and may address disturbance as customers enter or leave the premises but it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder (2.18/2.21).

Licensing law is not the primary mechanism for the general control of nuisance and anti-social behaviour by individuals once they are away from the licensed premises and, therefore, beyond the direct control of the individual, club or business holding the licence, certificate or authorisation concerned (14.13).

Other Legislation

Crime and Disorder Act 1998

The Council has a duty under Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 to do all it reasonably can to prevent crime and disorder.

The Act also introduced a wide range of measures designed to address anti-social behaviour committed by adults and young people. These include:

- Anti-Social Behaviour Orders
- Child Curfew Schemes
- Truancy
- Parenting Orders
- Reparation Orders
- Tackling Racism

Appendix 31

Underage Drinking or Other Harm to Minors

General Advice

If Members hear evidence that gives them cause for concern in relation to the licensing objective of protecting children from harm, and provided it is proportionate they should consider a licence condition that all under 18 year olds are excluded, and that a registered door supervisor is employed to check the age of all customers. This should be done where the activities to be carried on, previous history or lack of effective management justifies it.

There are also other licensing conditions that may be appropriate, as explained below. This may be appropriate where the premises may have children present and it is not primarily a place for consuming alcohol. For example a restaurant or a Cinema.

Of course, it is not necessary to restate the existing law in relation to any licensing conditions.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that children need to be protected (See Section 9 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Policy expects applicants to have sought appropriate advice from the Area Child Protection Agency. (See 9.3).

The following are examples of premises that will raise concern:

- Where there have been convictions for serving alcohol to minors or with a reputation for underage drinking
 - With a known association with drug taking or dealing
 - Where there is a strong element of gambling on the premises
 - Where entertainment of an adult or sexual nature is provided
 - Where irresponsible drinking is encouraged or permitted
- (See 9.4).

The Licensing Authority expects all applicants who are supplying alcohol to have addressed the issues relating to the protection of children from harm, and to have robust measures in place to protect children. (See Section 9.9)

The policy expects all licence holders to comply with the Portman Group Code of Practice, and in particular the Retailer Alert Bulletin. (See Section 9.8).

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to protect children and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Pool of Conditions relating to Protecting Children from Harm. (See Appendix 2 Annex H of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider the following: (this list is not exhaustive):

- Restricting access to premises where heavy or binge or underage drinking is a problem
- Restricting access where significant gambling, or adult entertainment is an issue
- There is a general presumption that where the public are allowed on a premises after 11pm children under 12 will not be allowed unaccompanied by an adult (for example a supermarket)-the applicant can however rebut this
- Restrictions may be applied at particular times, for example when adult entertainment takes place or “happy hours”
- Age restrictions that apply to cinema performances
- Age restrictions for theatres where the entertainment is “adult”
- Conditions relating to the safety of children at performances, or as performers-such as venue, fire safety, special effects and dangerous equipment
- The Portman Code relating to the naming, packaging and promotion of alcoholic drinks

Licensing Act 2003 (Part 7)

The Licensing Act 2003 only permits under 16 years olds onto premises exclusively or primarily used for the supply of alcohol when accompanied by adults.

Children under 16 years old must be accompanied by an adult to be present between midnight and 5am on all premises supplying alcohol.

Restaurants may serve wine, beer or cider for consumption to 16-18 year olds with a meal-this is the only significant exception to the prohibition of selling alcohol to minors, and the purchase itself must be by an adult.

The Licensing Act 2003 makes it a criminal offence to serve alcohol to minors (there is however a defence of due diligence). Applicants are always free to exclude minors if they wish to do so.

Other Legislation

The Children (Performances) Regulations 1968 sets out the requirements for protecting child performers

Appendix 32

Revised Guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003
Updated in April 2018

Public safety

2.7 Licence holders have a responsibility to ensure the safety of those using their premises, as a part of their duties under the 2003 Act. This concerns the safety of people using the relevant premises rather than public health which is addressed in other legislation. Physical safety includes the prevention of accidents and injuries and other immediate harms that can result from alcohol consumption such as unconsciousness or alcohol poisoning. Conditions relating to public safety may also promote the crime and disorder objective as noted above. There will of course be occasions when a public safety condition could incidentally benefit a person's health more generally, but it should not be the purpose of the condition as this would be outside the licensing authority's powers (be ultra vires) under the 2003 Act. Conditions should not be imposed on a premises licence or club premises certificate which relate to cleanliness or hygiene.

2.8 A number of matters should be considered in relation to public safety. These may include:

- Fire safety;
- Ensuring appropriate access for emergency services such as ambulances;
- Good communication with local authorities and emergency services, for example communications networks with the police and signing up for local incident alerts (see paragraph 2.4 above);
- Ensuring the presence of trained first aiders on the premises and appropriate first aid kits;
- Ensuring the safety of people when leaving the premises (for example, through the provision of information on late-night transportation);
- Ensuring appropriate and frequent waste disposal, particularly of glass bottles;
- Ensuring appropriate limits on the maximum capacity of the premises (see paragraphs 2.12-2.13, and Chapter 10; and
- Considering the use of CCTV in and around the premises (as noted in paragraph 2.3 above, this may also assist with promoting the crime and disorder objective).

2.9 The measures that are appropriate to promote public safety will vary between premises and the matters listed above may not apply in all cases. As set out in Chapter 8 (8.38-8.46), applicants should consider when making their application which steps it is appropriate to take to promote the public safety objective and demonstrate how they achieve that.

Ensuring safe departure of those using the premises

2.10 Licence holders should make provision to ensure that premises users safely leave their premises. Measures that may assist include:

- Providing information on the premises of local taxi companies who can provide safe transportation home; and
- Ensuring adequate lighting outside the premises, particularly on paths leading to and from the premises and in car parks.

Maintenance and repair

2.11 Where there is a requirement in other legislation for premises open to the public or for employers to possess certificates attesting to the safety or satisfactory nature of certain equipment or fixtures on the premises, it would be inappropriate for a licensing condition to require possession of such a certificate. However, it would be permissible to require as a condition of a licence or certificate, if appropriate, checks on this equipment to be conducted at specified intervals and for evidence of these checks to be retained by the premises licence holder or club provided this does not duplicate or gold-plate a requirement in other legislation. Similarly, it would be permissible for licensing authorities, if they receive relevant representations from responsible authorities or any other persons, to attach conditions which require equipment of particular standards to be maintained on the premises. Responsible authorities – such as health and safety authorities – should therefore make their expectations clear in this respect to enable prospective licence holders or clubs to prepare effective operating schedules and club operating schedules

Safe capacities

2.12 “Safe capacities” should only be imposed where appropriate for the promotion of public safety or the prevention of disorder on the relevant premises. For example, if a capacity has been imposed through other legislation, it would be inappropriate to reproduce it in a premises licence. Indeed, it would also be wrong to lay down conditions which conflict with other legal requirements. However, if no safe capacity has been imposed through other legislation, a responsible authority may consider it appropriate for a new capacity to be attached to the premises which would apply at any material time when the licensable activities are taking place and make representations to that effect. For example, in certain circumstances, capacity limits may be appropriate in preventing disorder, as overcrowded venues can increase the risks of crowds becoming frustrated and hostile.

2.13 The permitted capacity is a limit on the number of persons who may be on the premises at any time, following a recommendation by the relevant fire and rescue authority under the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005. For any application for a premises licence or club premises certificate for premises without an existing permitted capacity

2.14 where the applicant wishes to take advantage of the special provisions set out in section 177 of the 2003 Act¹, the applicant should conduct their own risk assessment as to the appropriate capacity of the premises. They should send their recommendation to the fire and rescue authority which will consider it and decide what the “permitted capacity” of those premises should be.

2.15 Public safety may include the safety of performers appearing at any premises, but does not extend to the prevention of injury from participation in a boxing or wrestling entertainment.

Council's Licensing Policy (2013-2018)
Updated on April 2018

9 Public Safety

9.1 The 2003 Act covers a wide range of premises that require a licence, and so such premises present a mixture of risks to users and should be constructed or adapted and operated so as to acknowledge and safeguard occupants against these risks.

9.2 The Licensing Authority will expect Operating Schedules to satisfactorily address these issues and applicants are advised to seek advice from the Council's Environmental Health (Health & Safety) Officers and the London Fire and Emergency Planning Authority before preparing their plans and Schedules.

9.3 Where an applicant identifies an issue in regard to public safety (including fire safety) which is not covered by existing legislation, the applicant should identify in their operating schedule the steps that will be taken to ensure public safety. This needs to take into account any unique characteristics that arise in connection with the licensable activity, any requirements that are specific to the premises.

9.4 The Licensing Authority, where its discretion is engaged, will consider attaching Conditions to licences and permissions to promote safety, and these may include Conditions drawn from a Model Pool of Conditions as proportionate and appropriate are contained in Appendix 2.

9.5 The Licensing Authority will impose conditions that relate to its licensing objectives, and in a way that is proportionate to the individual circumstances of the premises seeking a licence.

Appendix 33

Planning

An application for a Premises Licence can be made in respect of a premises even where the premises does not have relevant Planning Permission. That application has to be considered and Members can only refuse the application where the application itself does not promote one or more of the Licensing Objectives. Members cannot refuse just because there is no planning permission. Where a Premises Licence is granted and which exceeds what is allowed by the Planning Permission and that Premises then operates in breach of planning then the operator would be liable to enforcement by Planning.

Appendix 34

Licensing Policy Relating to Hours of Trading

All applications have to be considered on their own merits.

The Council has however adopted a set of framework hours as follows:

- Monday to Thursday, from 06:00 hrs to 23:30 hrs
- Friday and Saturday, from 06:00 hrs to 00:00 hrs (midnight)
- Sunday, from 06:00 hrs to 22:30 hrs

(see 15.8 of the Licensing Policy)

In considering the applicability of frame work hours to any particular application regard should be had to the following

- Location
- Proposed hours of regulated activities, and the proposed hours the premises are open to the public
- The adequacy of the applicant's proposals to deal with issues of crime and disorder and public nuisance
- Previous history
- Access to public transport
- Proximity to other licensed premises, and their hours

(See 15.9 of the licensing policy)

Subject to any representations to the contrary in individual cases the following premises are not generally considered to contribute to late night anti-social behaviour and will therefore generally have greater freedom

- Theatres
- Cinemas
- Premises with club premises certificates

Appendix 35

8 Special Cumulative Impact Policy for the Brick Lane Area

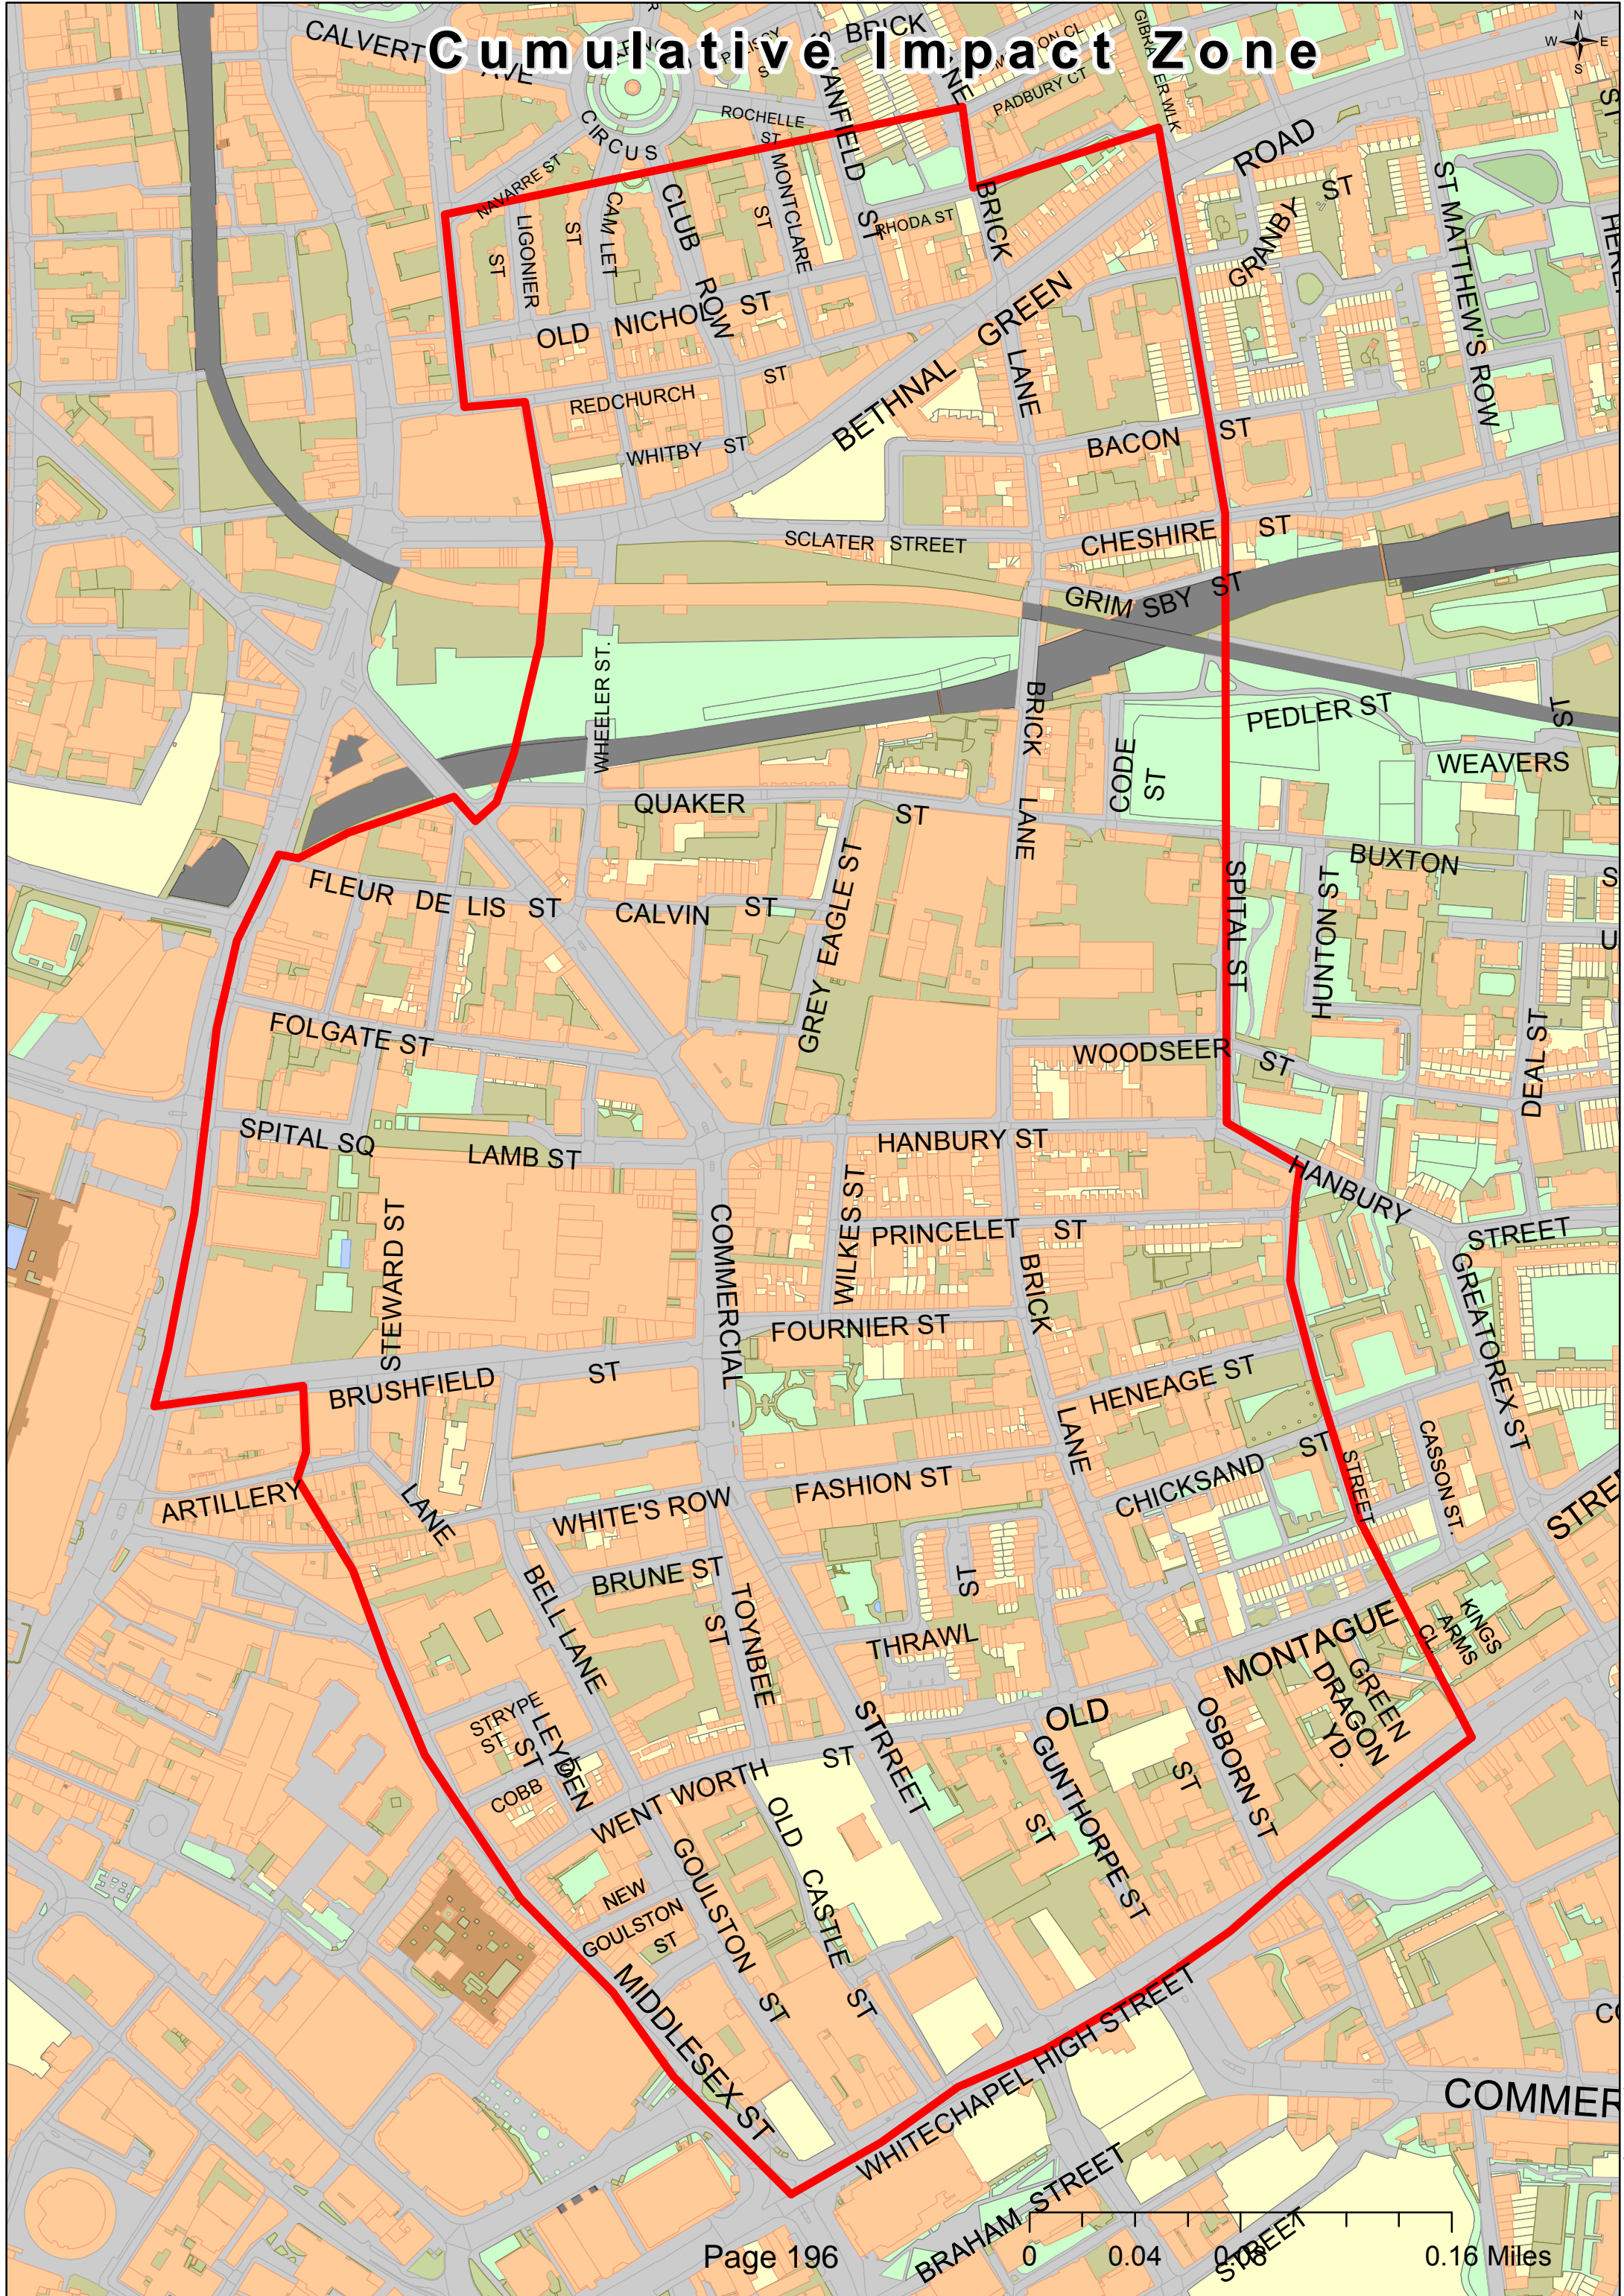

- 8.1 As with many other London Borough's the majority of late night licensed premises are concentrated within one area of the Borough. Following guidance issued under the Licensing Act 2003 a cumulative impact policy was adopted on 18th September 2013 by the Council.
- 8.2 After consultation the Council recognises that because of the number and density of licensed premises selling alcohol, on and off the premises and the provision of late night refreshment (sale of hot food after 11pm) within the Brick Lane Area as defined in Figure One, there might be exceptional problems of nuisance, disturbance and/or disorder outside or away from those licensed premises as a result of their combined effect.
- 8.3 The Licensing Authority is now of the view that the number, type and density of premises selling alcohol for consumption on and off the premises and/or the provision of late night refreshment in the area highlighted in Figure One is having a cumulative impact on the licensing objectives and has therefore declared a cumulative impact zone.
- 8.4 The effect of this Special Cumulative Impact Policy is to create a rebuttable presumption for applications in respect of the sale or supply of alcohol on or off the premises and/or late Night Refreshment for new Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates or Provisional Statements and applications for variations of existing Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates (where the modifications are relevant to the issue of cumulative impact for example increases in hours or capacity). Where the premises are situated in the cumulative impact zone and a representation is received, the licence will be refused. To rebut this presumption the applicant would be expected to show through the operating schedule and where appropriate with supporting evidence that the operation of the premises will not add to the cumulative impact already being experienced. This policy does not act as an absolute prohibition on granting/varying new licences in the Cumulative Impact Zone.
- 8.5 The Special Cumulative Impact policy will not be used to revoke an existing licence or certificate and will not be applicable during the review of existing licences.

The Cumulative Impact Zone is detailed in the map below. The map shows all of the premises (dots) currently licensed under the Licensing Act 2003 in the Brick Lane Area. The Cumulative Impact Zone is defined by the dark line.

5.0 Licensing Policy and Government Advice

- 5.1 The Council has adopted a licensing policy and this is available from the Licensing Section, and at the hearing. The revised policy came into effect on the 1st November 2013.
- 5.2 Relevant Sections of the policy are brought to the attention of Members within the Licensing Officers report.
- 5.3 The Home Secretary has issued Guidance under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003. This is available on the Government's website, www.homeoffice.gov.uk. It was last revised in April 2018.
- 5.4 Relevant Sections of this advice are brought to Members attention within the Licensing Officers report. Members should note however, that in some areas Tower Hamlets, after a proper consideration of local circumstances, has not followed the Government's advice, or has developed it further.

6.0 Representations

- 6.1 All representations have to meet basic legal and administrative requirements. If they fail to do so they cannot be accepted. When rejected the person sending in the representation must be written to, and an explanation for rejection given in writing

- 6.2 A responsible authority or other person can make a representation. There are two tests for other persons and only one for a responsible authority. The two tests are contained in Section 18 of the Act.
- 6.3 All representations must be “about the likely effect of the grant of the premises licence on the promotion of the licensing objectives.” Likely means something that will probably happen, i.e. on balance more likely than not.
- 6.4 Representations by responsible authorities do not have to meet the second test of not being vexatious and frivolous. Other persons have to meet this test.
- 6.5 The Home Office recommends that in borderline cases, the benefit of the doubt should be given to the interested party making the representation.
- 6.6 Section 182 Advice by the Home Office concerning relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations is attached as Appendix 5.
- 6.7 All the representations in this report have been considered by the relevant officer (Team Leader Licensing & Safety) and determined to have met the requirements of the Licensing Act 2003.
- 6.8 This hearing is required by the Licensing Act 2003, because relevant representations have been made by the Licensing Authority acting in its role as a responsible authority (Appendix 6).
- 6.9 All of the responsible authorities have been consulted about this application. They are as follows:
 - The Licensing Authority
 - The Metropolitan Police
 - The LFEPA (the London Fire and Emergency Planning Authority).
 - Planning
 - Health and Safety
 - Noise (Environmental Health)
 - Trading Standards
 - Child Protection
 - Public Health
 - Home Secretary (Home Office Immigration Enforcement)
- 6.10 In addition the application was required to be advertised in a local newspaper and by a blue poster. Only representations that relate to the following licensing objectives are relevant:
 - the prevention of crime and disorder
 - public safety
 - the prevention of public nuisance
 - the protection of children from harm

- 6.11 Essentially, the relevant parties oppose the application because in their opinion, the applicant has not explained how within the context of the application they will meet licensing objective of the prevention of public nuisance and the prevention of crime and disorder.
- 6.12 There are strict time limits to any representations. The time limits are contained in The Licensing Act 2003 (Premises licences and club premises certificates) Regulations 2005.
- 6.13 The applicant has offered measures in the operating schedule of the application that address the promotion of the Licensing Objectives. If there were no representations, the Licensing Authority would grant the licence, with conditions consistent with the operating schedule, which are relevant, proportionate and enforceable. Members are asked to consider the schedule and incorporate any conditions as necessary to address the licensing objectives.

9.0 Licensing Officer Comments

9.1 The Live Music Act removed licensing requirements for the following:

- amplified live music and recorded music between 8am and 11pm before audiences of no more than 500 people on premises authorised to sell alcohol for consumption on the premises;
- unamplified live music between 8am and 11pm in all venues.
- Further exemptions apply see Section 16.5-16.6 of Section 182 Guidance.

9.2 The following is intended simply to advise Members of the relevant aspects of the Boroughs Licensing Policy, guidance from the Secretary of State, legislation and good practice. Members may depart from the Council's Licensing Policy and/or Government advice, provide they consider it appropriate to do so, and have clear reasons for their decision.

9.3 Guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

- ❖ As stated in the guidance it is “provided to licensing authorities in relation to the carrying out of their functions under the 2003 Act.” It is a key medium for promoting best practice, ensuring consistent application and promoting fairness equal treatment and proportionality (1.7).
- ❖ Also “as long as licensing authorities have properly understood this Guidance, they may depart from it if they have good reason to do so and can provide full reasons. Departure from this Guidance could give rise to an appeal or judicial review, and the reasons given will then be a key consideration for the courts when considering the lawfulness and merits of any decision taken.” Therefore licensing authorities will need to give full reasons for their actions (1.9).
- ❖ Also Members should note “A Licensing Authority may depart from its own policy if the individual circumstances of any case merit such a decision in the interests of the promotion of the licensing objectives.” (1.12)
- ❖ Also, “The licensing authority may not impose any conditions unless its discretion has been exercised following receipt of relevant representations and it is satisfied as a result of a hearing (unless all parties agree a hearing is not necessary) that it is appropriate to impose conditions to promote one or more of the four licensing objectives.” Therefore, conditions may not be imposed for the purpose other than promoting the licensing objectives and in some cases no additional conditions will be appropriate. (10.8)
- ❖ Necessary conditions should emerge from a risk assessment by the applicant, which should then be reflected in the operating schedule (10.4).

- ❖ The Guidance states: “Where there are objections to an application to extend the hours during which licensable activities are to be carried on and the licensing authority determines that this would undermine the licensing objectives, it may reject the application or grant it with appropriate conditions and/or different hours from those requested.” (10.14)
 - ❖ Mandatory conditions must be imposed (10.25) and censorship avoided (10.17).
 - ❖ The Guidance states: “It is still permitted to sell alcohol using promotions (as long as they are compatible with any other licensing condition that may be in force), and the relevant person should ensure that the price of the alcohol is not less than the permitted price. Detailed guidance on the use of promotions is given in the guidance document available on the Gov.uk website.” (10.58) Also, “Licensing authorities should not attach standardised blanket conditions promoting fixed prices for alcoholic drinks to premises licences or club licences or club premises certificates in an area.” (10.21)
- 9.4 The Licensing Act 2003 permits children of any age to be on the premises which primarily sells alcohol providing they are accompanied by an adult. It is not necessary to make this a condition.
 - 9.5 In all cases the Members should make their decision on the civil burden of proof, that is “the balance of probability.”
 - 9.6 In all cases Members should consider whether or not primary legislation is the appropriate method of regulation and should only consider licence conditions when the circumstances in their view are not already adequately covered elsewhere.
 - 9.7 The Government has advised that conditions must be tailored to the individual type, location and characteristics of the premises and events concerned. Conditions cannot seek to manage the behaviour of customers once they are beyond the direct management of the licence holder and their staff and standardised conditions should be avoided where they cannot be shown to be appropriate. (1.16/1.17)
 - 9.8 The Council’s Licensing Policy generally expects applicants to address the licensing objectives and discuss how to do this with the relevant responsible authorities.

9.9 In Appendices 7 - 13 Members are given general advice, and also have explanations of the Council's Licensing Policy, Government advice and other legislation relating to the matters previously identified.

10.1 The Council's legal officer will give advice at the hearing.

school, or (iii) a hospital, provided that (a) the audience does not exceed 500, and (b) the organiser gets consent for the performance on the relevant premises from: (i) the local authority concerned, or (ii) the school or (iii) the health care provider for the hospital.

 - any playing of recorded music between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, at the non-residential premises of (i) a local authority, or (ii) a school, or (iii) a hospital, provided that (a) the audience does not exceed 500, and (b) the organiser gets consent for the performance on the relevant premises from: (i) the local authority concerned, or (ii) the school proprietor or (iii) the health care provider for the hospital.

Appendix 5

Section 182 Advice by the Home Office Updated on April 2018

Relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations

- 9.4 A representation is “relevant” if it relates to the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of at least one of the licensing objectives. For example, a representation from a local businessperson about the commercial damage caused by competition from new licensed premises would not be relevant. On the other hand, a representation by a businessperson that nuisance caused by new premises would deter customers from entering the local area, and the steps proposed by the applicant to prevent that nuisance were inadequate, would be relevant. In other words, representations should relate to the impact of licensable activities carried on from premises on the objectives. For representations in relation to variations to be relevant, they should be confined to the subject matter of the variation. There is no requirement for a responsible authority or other person to produce a recorded history of problems at premises to support their representations, and in fact this would not be possible for new premises.
- 9.5 It is for the licensing authority to determine whether a representation (other than a representation from responsible authority) is frivolous or vexatious on the basis of what might ordinarily be considered to be vexatious or frivolous. A representation may be considered to be vexatious if it appears to be intended to cause aggravation or annoyance, whether to a competitor or other person, without reasonable cause or justification. Vexatious circumstances may arise because of disputes between rival businesses and local knowledge will therefore be invaluable in considering such matters. Licensing authorities can consider the main effect of the representation, and whether any inconvenience or expense caused by it could reasonably be considered to be proportionate.
- 9.6 Frivolous representations would be essentially categorised by a lack of seriousness. Frivolous representations would concern issues which, at most, are minor and in relation to which no remedial steps would be warranted or proportionate.
- 9.7 Any person who is aggrieved by a rejection of their representations on either of these grounds may lodge a complaint through the local authority’s corporate complaints procedure. A person may also challenge the authority’s decision by way of judicial review.
- 9.8 Licensing authorities should not take decisions about whether representations are frivolous, vexatious or relevant to the licensing objectives on the basis of any political judgement. This may be difficult for councillors who receive complaints from residents within their own wards. If consideration is not to be delegated, contrary to the recommendation in this

Guidance, an assessment should be prepared by officials for consideration by the sub-committee before any decision is taken that necessitates a hearing. Any councillor who considers that their own interests are such that they are unable to consider the matter independently should disqualify themselves.

9.9 It is recommended that, in borderline cases, the benefit of the doubt about any aspect of a representation should be given to the person making that representation. The subsequent hearing would then provide an opportunity for the person or body making the representation to amplify and clarify it.

9.10 Licensing authorities should consider providing advice on their websites about how any person can make representations to them.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Licensing Act 2003
Re: Redchurch Townhouse, 56 Redchurch Street, London E2 7DP

I am writing in my capacity of Licensing Authority in relation to the premises licence application for the above address.

On 1st November 2013, Tower Hamlets adopted a Cumulative Impact Policy (CIP) in and around the Brick Lane/Spitalfields Area. The Council has recognised that because of the number and density of licensed premises selling alcohol, on and off the premises and the provision of late night refreshment (sale of hot food after 11pm) within the Brick Lane Area, there might be exceptional problems of nuisance, disturbance and/or disorder outside or away from those licensed premises as a result of their combined effect.

The Licensing Authority recognises that there is a wide diversity of premises requiring a licence and will have full regard to the differing impact these will have on the local community. It therefore also recognises that, within this Policy, it may be able to approve licences that are unlikely to add significantly to the saturation, and will consider the circumstances of each individual application. The Authority may therefore consider that the imposition of conditions is unlikely to address these problems and may consider the adoption of a special policy of refusing new licences because the area is saturated with licensed premises and the granting of any more would undermine one of the licensing objectives.

The Licensing Authority is now of the view that the number, type and density of premises selling alcohol for consumption on and off the premises and/or the provision of late night refreshment in the Brick Lane/Spitalfields Area as having a cumulative impact on the licensing objectives and has therefore declared a Cumulative Impact Zone (CIZ).

The effect of this CIZ is to create a rebuttable presumption for applications in respect of the sale or supply of alcohol on or off the premises and/or late Night Refreshment for new Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates or Provisional Statements and applications for variations of existing Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates (where the modifications are relevant to the issue of cumulative impact for example increases in hours or capacity). Where the premises are situated in the CIZ and a representation is received, the licence will be objected to by the Authority. To rebut this presumption the applicant is expected to show through the operating schedule and where appropriate with supporting evidence that the operation of the premises will not add to the cumulative impact already being experienced. This policy does not act as an absolute prohibition on granting/varying new licences in the CIZ.

Despite the applicant offering a large number of conditions, going some way to meet the impacts of the CIZ, it does not dissuade from the fact that the hours applied for will impact on the area with members of the public leaving at 1am in the morning especially during the weekdays and impacting on the residents in the vicinity. There are already a number of venues with late hours of which adding another to this will increase the public nuisance to this area.

This Authority asks where the designated smoking area will be and requests that further condition is imposed to limit the numbers of people outside. It is suggested that the normal hours of operation to members of the public is limited to the framework hours:-

Sunday - 06 00 hrs to 22 30 hrs

Monday to Thursday - 06 00 hrs to 23 30 hrs Friday and Saturday - 06 00hrs and midnight

I would also request an amendment to condition 5 of the operating schedule to state the following:

“No Music or Amplified Sound shall be generated on the premises to give rise to a nuisance to neighbouring residents”

I am therefore making representation against the application on the grounds of the prevention of crime and disorder and the prevention of public nuisance as the premises lies within the CIZ.

Yours sincerely,

Kathy Driver
Principal Licensing Officer

Noise while the premise is in use

General Advice

If they conclude this is a problem Members should consider whether it is possible to carry out suitable and proportionate noise control measures so that noise leakage is prevented. In addition Members may consider that only certain activities are suitable.

The hours of operation also need to be considered (see below).

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem of noise while the premises are in use and it cannot be proportionately address by licensing conditions they should refuse the application.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that noise nuisance can be an issue, especially if a premises is open late at night. (See Sections 10.1 of the Licensing Policy). While all applications will be considered on their merits, consideration will be given to imposing stricter conditions in respect of noise control where premises are situated close to local residents. (See Section 15.10).

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all nuisance issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice from the Council's Environmental Health Officers. (See Section 10.2 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to prevent nuisance and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Poll of Conditions relating to Crime and Disorder. (See Appendix 3 Annex D of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- hours of opening (this needs to be balanced against potential disorder caused by artificially early closing times)
- Whether certain parts should close earlier than the rest (for example a "beer garden", or restricted in their use)
- Whether or not certain activities should have to close at an early hour, for example live music
- Conditions controlling noise or vibration (for example, noise limiters, keeping doors and windows closed).
- Prominent clear and legible notices at all exits requesting the public to respect the needs of local residents and leave the premises and area quietly
- Conditions controlling the use of explosives, pyrotechnics and fireworks
- Conditions controlling the placing of refuse
- Conditions controlling noxious smells
- Conditions controlling lighting (this needs to be balanced against potential crime prevention benefits)

Police Powers

Part 8 of the Licensing Act 2003 enables a senior police officer to close down a premises for up to 24 hrs where public nuisance is being caused by noise coming from the premises and the closure of the premises is necessary to prevent that nuisance.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The Licensing Policy has adopted the recommended Pool of Conditions as permitted (Annex D).

The prevention of public nuisance could include low-level nuisance, perhaps affecting a few people living locally as well as major disturbance affecting the whole community (2.15).

Licence conditions should not duplicate other legislation (1.16).

Necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods (2.19) and may address disturbance as customers enter or leave the premises but it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder.

Other Legislation

The Environmental Protection Act 1990, Part 111 gives Environmental Health Officers the power to deal with statutory nuisances.

The Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003, Sections 40 and 41 give Environmental Health Officers the power of closure up to 24 hours in certain circumstances.

Appendix 8

Access and Egress Problems

Such as:

- Disturbance from patrons arriving/leaving the premises on foot
- Disturbance from patrons arriving/leaving the premises by car
- Lack of adequate car parking facilities
- Close proximity to residential properties

Comment

The above have been grouped together as egress problems. Of course the particular facts will be different for each alleged problem.

Egress only is referred to-if necessary access can be added or substituted in.

General Advice

In considering concerns relating to disturbance from egress, Members need to be satisfied that the premises under consideration has been identified as the source of the actual or potential disturbance. If they are satisfied that this is a problem, then proportionate conditions should be considered.

The hours of operation also need to be considered.

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem concerning egress and it cannot be proportionately addressed by licensing conditions, they should refuse the application.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that noise nuisance can be an issue, especially if a premises is open late at night. (See Section 10 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all nuisance issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice from the Council's Environmental Health Officers. (See Section 10.2 of the Licensing Policy).

The policy also recognises that staggered closing can help prevent problems at closure time (See Section 15.1).

However, while all applications will be considered on their merits, consideration will be given to imposing stricter conditions in respect of noise control where premises are situated close to local residents. (See Section 15.5)

The Council has adopted a set of framework hours (See 15.8 of the licensing policy). This relates to potential disturbance caused by late night trading.

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to prevent nuisance and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Pool of Conditions relating to the prevention of Public Nuisance. (See Annex G of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- hours of opening (this needs to be balanced against potential disorder caused by artificially early closing times)
- Whether certain parts should close earlier than the rest (for example a “beer garden”, or restricted in their use)
- Whether or not certain activities should have to close at an early hour, for example live music
- Conditions controlling noise or vibration (for example, noise limiters, keeping doors and windows closed).
- Prominent clear and legible notices at all exits requesting the public to respect the needs of local residents and leave the premises and area quietly

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The prevention of public nuisance could include low-level nuisance, perhaps affecting a few people living locally as well as major disturbance affecting the whole community. (2.15).

Licence conditions should not duplicate other legislation (1.16).

Any conditions should be tailored to the type, nature and characteristics of the specific premises. Licensing authorities should be aware of the need to avoid inappropriate or disproportionate measures that could deter events that are valuable to the community, such as live music. Noise limiters, for example, are very expensive to purchase and install and are likely to be a considerable burden for smaller venues. (2.19)

Measures can include ensuring the safe departure of customers, these can include:

- Providing information on the premises of local taxi companies who can provide safe transportation home; and
- Ensuring adequate lighting outside the premises, particularly on paths leading to and from the premises and in car parks

Necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods (2.19) and may address disturbance as customers enter or leave the premises but it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder.

Appendix 9

Anti-Social Behaviour on the Premises

Licensing Policy

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all crime and disorder issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice. (See Section 6 of the Licensing Policy)

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to deter crime and disorder and these may include conditions drawn from the Model Poll of Conditions relating to Crime and Disorder. (See Appendix 3 of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- Methods of management communication
- Use of registered Door Supervisors
- Bottle Bans
- Plastic containers
- CCTV
- Restrictions on open containers for “off sales”
- Restrictions on drinking areas
- Capacity
- Proof of Age scheme
- Crime prevention notices
- Drinks promotions-aimed at stopping irresponsible promotions
- Signage
- Seating plans
- Capacity

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem of anti-social behaviour and it cannot be proportionately addressed by licensing conditions they should refuse the application.

Police Powers

The Licensing Act 2003, Part 8 gives a senior police officer the power to close a premises for up to 24 hours where the officer believes there is, or is likely to be disorder on or in the vicinity and closure is necessary in the interests of public safety.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The pool of conditions, adopted by the Council is recommended (Annexe D).

The key role of the Police and SIA is acknowledged (2.1-2.2).

Conditions attached to licences cannot seek to manage the behaviour of customers once they are beyond the direct management of the licence holder and their staff or agents, but can directly impact on the behaviour of customers in the immediate vicinity of the premises as they seek entry or leave (1.16).

Conditions are best targeted on deterrence and preventing crime and disorder (2.3) communication, CCTV, police liaison, no glasses, capacity limits are all relevant (2.3 - 2.6).

The Guidance recognises working with Home Office Immigration Enforcement in the prevention of immigration crime. Licence conditions that are considered appropriate for the prevention of illegal working in licensed premises might include requiring a premises licence holder to undertake right to work checks on all staff employed at the licensed premises or requiring that a copy of any document checked as part of a right to work check are retained at the licensed premises.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

Conditions can be imposed for large capacity “vertical consumption” premises (10.23 – 10.24).

Guidance Issued by the Office of Fair Trading

This relates to attempts to control minimum prices.

Other Legislation

- The Council has a duty under Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 to do all it reasonably can to prevent crime and disorder

Appendix 10

Anti-Social Behaviour from Patrons Leaving the Premises

General Advice

Members need to bear in mind that once patrons have left a premises they are no longer under direct control. Members will need to be satisfied that there is a link between the way the premises is operating and the behaviour that is complained of. An example of this would be that irresponsible drinking is being encouraged. Before deciding that any particular licensing conditions are proportionate, Members will also need to be satisfied that other legislation is not a more effective route. For example, if the problem is drinking in the street it may be that the Council should designate the area as a place where alcohol cannot be consumed in public.

Members may also wish to consider whether the hours of opening relate to any problems of anti-social behaviour.

If Members believe that there is a substantial problem of anti-social behaviour and it cannot be proportionately addressed by licensing conditions they should refuse the application.

Licensing Policy

The policy recognises that other legislation or measures may be more appropriate but also states that licensing laws are “a key aspect of such control and will always be part of an overall approach to the management of the evening and night time economy” (see Section 4.15 and 4.16 of the Licensing Policy).

The Licensing Authority expects the applicant to have addressed all crime and disorder issues relating to the premises in their operating schedule and to have sought appropriate advice. (See Sections 6.2 of the Licensing Policy)

The Licensing Authority will consider attaching conditions to deter crime and disorder and these may include Conditions drawn from the Model Poll of Conditions relating to Crime and Disorder. (See Appendix 3 of the Licensing Policy). In particular Members may wish to consider (this list is not exhaustive):

- Bottle Bans
- Plastic containers
- CCTV (outside the premises)
- Restrictions on open containers for “off sales”
- Proof of Age scheme
- Crime prevention notices
- Drinks promotions-aimed at stopping irresponsible promotions
- Signage

Cumulative Impact

There is a process by which the Licensing Authority can determine that an area is saturated following representations. However, the process for this involves wide consultation and cannot come from representations about a particular application. (See Section 8 of the Licensing Policy).

Police Powers

The Licensing Act 2003, Part 8 gives a senior police officer the power to close a premises for up to 24 hours where the officer believes there is, or is likely to be disorder on or in the vicinity and closure is necessary in the interests of public.

Guidance Issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003

The key role of the Police is acknowledged (2.1).

Conditions attached to licences cannot seek to manage the behaviour of customers once they are beyond the direct management of the licence holder, but can relate to the immediate vicinity of the premises as they seek entry or leave (1.16).

Conditions are best targeted on deterrence and preventing crime and disorder (2.3) CCTV inside & out, communication, police liaison, no glasses are all relevant

There is also guidance issued around public nuisance (2.15 – 2.21).

The pool of conditions, adopted by the Council is recommended (see Appendix 3 of the Licensing Policy). Licence conditions should not duplicate other legislation (1.16).

Necessary and appropriate conditions should normally focus on the most sensitive periods and may address disturbance as customers enter or leave the premises but it is essential that conditions are focused on measures within the direct control of the licence holder (2.18/2.21).

Licensing law is not the primary mechanism for the general control of nuisance and anti-social behaviour by individuals once they are away from the licensed premises and, therefore, beyond the direct control of the individual, club or business holding the licence, certificate or authorisation concerned (14.13).

Other Legislation

Crime and Disorder Act 1998

The Council has a duty under Section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 to do all it reasonably can to prevent crime and disorder.

The Act also introduced a wide range of measures designed to address anti-social behaviour committed by adults and young people. These include:

- Anti-Social Behaviour Orders
- Child Curfew Schemes
- Truancy
- Parenting Orders
- Reparation Orders
- Tackling Racism

Appendix 11

Planning

An application for a Premises Licence can be made in respect of a premises even where the premises does not have relevant Planning Permission. That application has to be considered and Members can only refuse the application where the application itself does not promote one or more of the Licensing Objectives. Members cannot refuse just because there is no planning permission. Where a Premises Licence is granted and which exceeds what is allowed by the Planning Permission and that Premises then operates in breach of planning then the operator would be liable to enforcement by Planning.

Appendix 12

Licensing Policy Relating to Hours of Trading

All applications have to be considered on their own merits.

The Council has however adopted a set of framework hours as follows:

- Monday to Thursday, from 06:00 hrs to 23:30 hrs
- Friday and Saturday, from 06:00 hrs to 00:00 hrs (midnight)
- Sunday, from 06:00 hrs to 22:30 hrs

(see 15.8 of the Licensing Policy)

In considering the applicability of frame work hours to any particular application regard should be had to the following

- Location
- Proposed hours of regulated activities, and the proposed hours the premises are open to the public
- The adequacy of the applicant's proposals to deal with issues of crime and disorder and public nuisance
- Previous history
- Access to public transport
- Proximity to other licensed premises, and their hours

(See 15.9 of the licensing policy)

Subject to any representations to the contrary in individual cases the following premises are not generally considered to contribute to late night anti-social behaviour and will therefore generally have greater freedom

- Theatres
- Cinemas
- Premises with club premises certificates

Appendix 13

8 Special Cumulative Impact Policy for the Brick Lane Area

- 8.1 As with many other London Borough's the majority of late night licensed premises are concentrated within one area of the Borough. Following guidance issued under the Licensing Act 2003 a cumulative impact policy was adopted on 18th September 2013 by the Council.
- 8.2 After consultation the Council recognises that because of the number and density of licensed premises selling alcohol, on and off the premises and the provision of late night refreshment (sale of hot food after 11pm) within the Brick Lane Area as defined in Figure One, there might be exceptional problems of nuisance, disturbance and/or disorder outside or away from those licensed premises as a result of their combined effect.
- 8.3 The Licensing Authority is now of the view that the number, type and density of premises selling alcohol for consumption on and off the premises and/or the provision of late night refreshment in the area highlighted in Figure One is having a cumulative impact on the licensing objectives and has therefore declared a cumulative impact zone.
- 8.4 The effect of this Special Cumulative Impact Policy is to create a rebuttable presumption for applications in respect of the sale or supply of alcohol on or off the premises and/or late Night Refreshment for new Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates or Provisional Statements and applications for variations of existing Premises Licences, Club Premises Certificates (where the modifications are relevant to the issue of cumulative impact for example increases in hours or capacity). Where the premises are situated in the cumulative impact zone and a representation is received, the licence will be refused. To rebut this presumption the applicant would be expected to show through the operating schedule and where appropriate with supporting evidence that the operation of the premises will not add to the cumulative impact already being experienced. This policy does not act as an absolute prohibition on granting/varying new licences in the Cumulative Impact Zone.
- 8.5 The Special Cumulative Impact policy will not be used to revoke an existing licence or certificate and will not be applicable during the review of existing licences.

Figure One

The Cumulative Impact Zone in the Brick Lane area

The Cumulative Impact Zone is detailed in the map below. The map shows all of the premises (dots) currently licensed under the Licensing Act 2003 in the Brick Lane Area. The Cumulative Impact Zone is defined by the dark line.
