File Name(s):	Redbud London Limited – 1 Whites Row, London E1 – breach of special treatment licence
File Ref(s):	CEHCRS.2515/VW
Offence(s):	contravention of special treatment licence legislation
Fee Earner:	Vivienne Walker (David Wong appearing)
Contra:	Mr. Charles of Hussain Solicitors
Also Present: (For LBTH)	Nobody
Date:	15.11.2018
Place:	Thames Magistrates' Court
Courtroom:	6
Coram:	District Judge Rose
Defendants:	Redbud London Limited & Ms. Ying Zhou
Outcome:	The Defence pleaded guilty to charge 2, but in respect of charges 1 & 3, maintained their not guilty plea on the basis (a) they had no knowledge of the unlawful behaviour complained of, (b) they assert they had reasonable procedures in place to avoid the Law being broken, and (c) they assert we cannot rely upon matters which they say pre-date Ms. Zhou's involvement in the business. Adjourned for trial on 27.3.2019 @ 9.30am for 10am at this court. The judge's time estimate for that was 2½ hrs. Prosecution directed to serve its unused material by 13.12.2018. The evidence of Kevin Crump, Natalie Thompson and Charlotte Basten is agreed. It was agreed that the evidence of Saira Parveen being of background use only (NetWatch Global search into background of defendant business), and not being probative of the offences, we were not relying upon her evidence. The clerk said the Court will email a copy of the PET form to us.
