3.0 Background

3.1 This is an application for a Standard Temporary Event Notice.

3.2 Enclosed is a copy of the application. (See Appendix 1).

3.3 The premises that has been applied for is:

3 Hancock Road, London, E3 3DA

3.4 The applicant has described the nature of the application as a music event with DJ's for the supply of alcohol and regulated entertainment.

3.5 The dates and times that have been applied for are as follows:

24th August 2014 from 14:00 hours to 23:00 hours

3.6 A map showing the relevant premises and immediate area is included as Appendix 2.

4.0 Temporary Event Notices

4.1 Temporary Event Notices (TENs) are a creation of the Licensing Act 2003. They provide a method by which licensable activities can be carried out on a temporary basis (max. 168 hrs) without a licence. The maximum number that can attend at any one time is 499. At least 10 full working days notice must be given to the licensing authority. When a TEN cannot be obtained, for example the event is over 499, then a full premises licence must be obtained, for a limited duration.

4.2 The licensing authority cannot oppose an application, (nor can local residents or businesses). The licensing authority must reject any application that does not meet the rules as to numbers, maximum per year etc. The limits are now as follows: 12 TEN per calendar year or 21 days. The responsible authorities that can object is the Metropolitan Police or Environmental Protection.

4.3 The Police and Environmental Protection can object on the grounds that allowing the event to go ahead will undermine one of the Licensing Objectives.

4.4 Following an objection by the relevant responsible authority one or more conditions may be imposed by the Licensing Authority

- (a) if it considers it appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives to do so,
- (b) the conditions are also imposed on a premises licence or club premises certificate that has effect in respect of the same

- premises, or any part of the same premises, as the temporary event notice, and
- (c) the conditions would not be inconsistent with the carrying out of the licensable activities under the temporary event notice.
- 4.5 Where the authority decides to impose one or more conditions;
- (a) the authority must give the premises user notice of the decision;
 - (b) the notice must be accompanied by a separate statement (the “statement of conditions”) which sets out the conditions that have been imposed on the temporary event notice; and
 - (c) a copy of the notice and statement of conditions must be given to each relevant party.
- 4.6 LATE TENs have been created through the Police Reform and Social Responsibilities Act 2011, a Late TEN can be made no later than FIVE working days and no earlier than NINE working days before the event. The limits to these applications are no more than 2 for a non personal licence holder or no more than 10 for a personal licence holder.
- 4.7 The Police and Environmental Protection can object to Late TENs, if an objection is made the Licensing Authority must issue a counter notice advising the event cannot take place.

5.0 Objections

- 5.1 The Police objections are contained in Appendix 3.
- 5.2 Environmental Protection objections are contained in Appendix 4.

Advice to Members

- 6.0 The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 have amended legislation whereby Environmental Protection alongside Police can object to Temporary Event Notice under any of the licensing objectives.
- 6.1 This hearing is required by the Licensing Act 2003. As always the decision is on the civil burden of proof, i.e. the balance of probability.
- 6.2 Members can consider any of the licensing objectives. Other matters can also be dealt with elsewhere by primary legislation.
- 6.3 Premises users are not required to be on the premises for the entire duration of the event authorised by the TEN, but they will remain liable to prosecution for certain offences that may be committed at the premises during the period covered by it. These include, for example, the offences of the sale of alcohol to a person who is drunk; persistently selling alcohol to children; and allowing disorderly conduct on licensed premises.

- 6.4 The police or local authority exercising environmental health functions may contact the premises user to discuss their objections and try to come to an agreement which will allow the proposed licensable activities to proceed. The TEN can be modified. If there is no agreement, the licensing authority must hold a hearing to consider the notice.

7.0 Legal Comments

- 7.1 The Council's legal officer will give advice at the hearing.

8.0 Finance Comments

- 8.1 There are no financial implications in this report.

Dear Mr McCrohan

Re: Application for Temporary Event Notice for Half Baked on 24th August

2014

I write with reference to the above application which was received in the Licensing Office on the 24th July 2014.

Police object the application for a Temporary Event Notice for the 24th August 2014 on the grounds of Crime and Disorder and Prevention of Public Nuisance.

The Temporary Event Notice is for an event at 3 Hancock Road, Bromley by Bow on Notting Hill Carnival Weekend. This is a weekend when Police resources are incredibly stretched.

By having a dance music event that runs from 2:00pm to 11:00 where people will be consuming alcohol during that time, runs the risk of creating alcohol related crime and disorder.

Such events also attract drug use and where there is drug use there are drug dealers who supply them.

While under normal circumstances Police would be able to work with promoters and venue operators to ensure the safe running of the event, during Notting Hill there are simply not the resources available to do this.

This is demonstrated as at the last event at Hancock Road on the 27th July, Police were called to deal with a fight that broke out at the venue. The incident required additional Police to be deployed to the venue.

Given that this is not a venue specifically designed to host such events, and that there is the possibility of alcohol related disorder and drug use we therefore object to the Temporary Event Notice being granted and ask that it is refused by committee.

Subject: RE: Objection Half Baked 24th August

Please accept this email as a representation against the TEN application for 3 Hancock Rd on the 24th August 2014.

The site is an open air venue that has had events previously.

I attended a call from a local resident on Sunday 27th July 2014. I visited the event first and spoke with the organiser. I advised him the reason of my visit and he lowered the Funktion 1 sound system that was playing dance/house music. I also commented on the strong smell of cannabis throughout the site. There were nearly 400 people in attendance, and when I asked the SIA door supervisors if they had confiscated any drugs, they said 'no' and that the guests hide them.

I then attended the complainants property and could clearly hear a bass beat thumping on their balcony and inside their property. The couple were very reasonable and said that they didn't mind a one off event, but this has been happening most weekends through the summer, and were now at the end of their tether with the fact that they are unable to have peaceful enjoyment of their property during the weekend especially the day before the new working week.

The site is not conducive to open air events as the area has a lot of hard, reflective surfaces along with the canal, that just reverberate sound around the area, with very little absorption.

It is our recommendation that this TEN is cancelled.

Dear Bruno,

Tower Hamlets Police also object to the Temporary Event Notice on the grounds of Crime and Disorder.

On the 27th July 2014 at the same venue another late night dance event was held which resulted in a call to Police as a fight had broken out at the venue, upon arrival Police units requested another unit to attend due to the situation.

This is in essence a day time "Rave" where people will gather to dance to electronic dance music. With this type of event there is always the possibility of drug use and as we say at the event last weekend, violence. By having this event as part of a Temporary Event Notice, no conditions can be imposed upon the event, there is no security plan agreed with Police, or noise management plan agreed with the Local Authority. As a results stretched public services are having to pick up the peice's when things invariably go wrong.

Because of the risk of crime and disorder Tower Hamlets Police formally object to this Temporary Event Notice and ask for it to be refused.

Dear all, please accept this as a representation against this application for a Late TEN. I attended this address last night in relation to a noise complaint from a local resident. Even after I attended site and spoke to Bruno who reduced the levels, the music was clearly audible in the complainants property. I could also clearly hear the bass beat over 100m away. The site is not suitable for an outside event using a Funktion 1 type sound system playing house/dance type music.

This would cause considerable Public Nuisance and should therefore not go ahead.

Hi all,
Hope you are well.

I've had an issue with the venue for the event on the 10th August where I had a last minute cancellation and the only venue left I have to do my event is Hancock studios . I'm so sorry for the last minute TEN but unfortunately I don't have any other place .

Here is the license for Half Baked event that will be taking take place at Hancock Studios (3 Hancock Road E3 3DA) on the 13th July (Sunday) from 2pm till 11 pm .

We will make sure to give a letter to ever resident with our contact number and all the details of the event in case the sound or any other reason that could potentiall disturb the residents around (you can find the letter attached on this email) . .

The DCBs will be on the Sound check places :

- 1- In front of the venue . (Hancock road)
- 2- Otis Street
- 3 Washignton Street
- 4- Franklin Street
- 5- Priory Street .

To avoid the last issue we had at the last event of people that has been refused to come in trying to jump the next door gate . I made sure to book one extra steward to stay on the street overlooking the road as you can see on the 696 .

Pls don't hesitate to contact for any futher question.

Have a good weekEnd .

Regards .
