DECLARATIONS OF INTERESTS - NOTE FROM THE MONITORING OFFICER

This note is for guidance only. For further details please consult the Members’ Code of Conduct at Part 5.1 of the Council’s Constitution.

Please note that the question of whether a Member has an interest in any matter, and whether or not that interest is a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest, is for that Member to decide. Advice is available from officers as listed below but they cannot make the decision for the Member. If in doubt as to the nature of an interest it is advisable to seek advice prior to attending a meeting.

Interests and Disclosable Pecuniary Interests (DPIs)

You have an interest in any business of the authority where that business relates to or is likely to affect any of the persons, bodies or matters listed in section 4.1 (a) of the Code of Conduct; and might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial position of yourself, a member of your family or a person with whom you have a close association, to a greater extent than the majority of other council tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the ward affected.

You must notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of any such interest, for inclusion in the Register of Members’ Interests which is available for public inspection and on the Council’s Website.

Once you have recorded an interest in the Register, you are not then required to declare that interest at each meeting where the business is discussed, unless the interest is a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest (DPI).

A DPI is defined in Regulations as a pecuniary interest of any of the descriptions listed at Appendix A overleaf. Please note that a Member’s DPIs include his/her own relevant interests and also those of his/her spouse or civil partner; or a person with whom the Member is living as husband and wife; or a person with whom the Member is living as if they were civil partners; if the Member is aware that that other person has the interest.

Effect of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest on participation at meetings

Where you have a DPI in any business of the Council you must, unless you have obtained a dispensation from the authority’s Monitoring Officer following consideration by the Dispensations Sub-Committee of the Standards Advisory Committee:-
- not seek to improperly influence a decision about that business; and
- not exercise executive functions in relation to that business.

If you are present at a meeting where that business is discussed, you must:-
- Disclose to the meeting the existence and nature of the interest at the start of the meeting or when the interest becomes apparent, if later; and
- Leave the room (including any public viewing area) for the duration of consideration and decision on the item and not seek to influence the debate or decision
When declaring a DPI, Members should specify the nature of the interest and the agenda item to which the interest relates. This procedure is designed to assist the public's understanding of the meeting and to enable a full record to be made in the minutes of the meeting.

Where you have a DPI in any business of the authority which is not included in the Member’s register of interests and you attend a meeting of the authority at which the business is considered, in addition to disclosing the interest to that meeting, you must also within 28 days notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest for inclusion in the Register.

1 SUMMARY

1.1 This report briefly explains the terms of reference, Membership, and Quorum of the Licensing Committee and sets out the process for the determination of Sexual Entertainment Venues (SEVs) and the imposition of conditions on SEV licenses.

2 TERMS OF REFERENCE, MEMBERSHIP & QUORUM

2.1 The terms of Reference, Membership, and Quorum are set out in Appendices 1 and 2 to this report.

2.2 The function for determining SEV applications was reserved to the Licensing Committee by the Council when the legislation for licensing of SEVs was adopted on 26 March 2014. A copy of the report extract and decision are set out in Appendices 3 and 4 to this report.

3 INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND:

3.2 The Policing and Crime Act 2009 (Commencement No.1 and Transitional and Savings Provisions) (England) Order 2010 (‘the Order’) makes special transitional provisions in relation to SEVs during the transitional period.
3.3 The transitional period lasts for 12 months starting from the ‘first appointed day, which is the day when the LGMPA comes into force in the local authority’s area (i.e. 1 June 2014). The day six months following the ‘first appointed day’ is known as the ‘second appointed day’ (1 December 2014), and the day on which the transitional period ends is known as the ‘third appointed day’ (1 June 2015).

4 APPLICATIONS FOR SEVS

4.1 Since the first appointed day, new applicants, i.e. people wishing to use premises as a SEV who did not already have a premises licence or club premises certificate to operate as such under the Licensing Act 2003 Act, or did have such a licence but had not taken any steps towards operating as such immediately before 1 June 2014, have not been able to operate as a SEV without a SEV licence.

4.2 Existing operators who immediately before the first appointed day had a Licensing Act 2003 (‘the 2003 Act’) premises licence, and lawfully used premises as a SEV under that licence or were undertaking preparatory work to use the venue in that way, have been allowed to continue to provide relevant entertainment until the third appointed day (1 June 2015), or the determination of any application they submit before 1 June 2015 (including any appeal against refusal to grant a licence), whichever is later.

4.3 As the Licensing Authority is able under the statutory scheme to refuse applications by having regard to the number of SEVs that they consider appropriate for a particular locality, all applications made on or after the first appointed day but on or before the second appointed day (i.e. between 1 June and 1 December 2014 inclusive) must be considered together prior to a determination being made in respect of any of them, as required by article 7(2) of the Order.

4.4 New applications made after the second appointed day cannot be determined until all the previous applications have been determined.

4.5 The Tower Hamlets Sex Establishment Licensing Policy proposes ‘nil’ as the appropriate number of SEVs for the borough. The Policy provides that the Council will not apply this limitation when considering applications from existing operators if they can demonstrate in their application:

- High standards of management
- A management structure and capacity to operate the venue and
- The ability to adhere to the standard conditions for SEVs.
4.6 Article 7(3) of the Order provides that if an existing operator who made one of the applications referred to in paragraph 4.4 above is granted a licence before the third appointed day that licence does not take effect until the third appointed day, 1 June 2015.

4.7 Five applications in total have been received for the grant of a SEV Licence between the first appointed day and the second appointed day in respect of the following venues:

- Charlie’s Angels, 30 Alie Street, E1
- Metropolis, 234 Cambridge Heath Road, E2
- Nag’s Head, 17-19 Whitechapel Road, E1
- White Swan, 556 Commercial Road, E14
- White’s Gentleman’s Club, 32-38 Leman Street, E1

4.8 Charlie’s Angels was accepted as an application by a new operator and the remaining four as applications from existing operators. In order to allow sufficient time to determine the applications a waiver for a SEV License was granted to Charlie’s Angels until 1 July 2015, which allows it to continue to operate for the short-term.

4.9 Applications in each matter were referred to the Licensing Committee for determination in accordance with the London Borough of Tower Hamlet’s Scheme of Delegation.

4.10 The Committee held hearings as follows:

- Nag’s Head Public House on 17 March 2015
- White’s Gentleman’s Club on 14 April 2015
- Charlie’s Angels on 12 May 2015

4.11 A hearing was not required in respect of Metropolis and White Swan applications, which were initially considered on paper, as there were no objections or history of complaints. A Committee Meeting took place on 28 April to consider these two application as well as the standard conditions for all applicants.

4.12 On 28 April 2015, for each application the Committee outlined any concerns that it had in respect of the specific applications concerning the character of the applicant, the layout etc. of the proposed SEV premises, the use of other premises in the vicinity and the character of the relevant locality, along with the Council’s Sex Establishment Licensing Policy. The Committee discussed the existing standard conditions, the proposed additional conditions and those conditions offered at the hearings. During this discussion it became apparent that there was a lack of clarity to some existing conditions. It was also considered that in the key areas of performer welfare, customer tariffs and advertising that there was a lack of clarity, consistency and a failure to meet the objectives of the SEV policy in the Borough. The Committee accordingly approved a fresh set of draft standard conditions reflecting the applications, submissions and policy consideration and provided these to the applicants for comment prior to any final decision being taken.
4.13 The minutes for the above hearings are set out in Appendices 5 to 8 to this report.

4.14 Agenda Packs in respect of each of these applications and the relevant hearings can be found on the Council’s website at the following link: http://edemoc2ksrv:8070/ieListMeetings.aspx?CId=324&Year=0. The Agenda Packs have not been reproduced as this Meeting will be dealing with Conditions only.

5 GRANT AND REFUSAL OF SEV LICENSES

5.1 The options open to this Committee in respect of determining each application are:
   • Grant the licence as applied for, attaching the standard conditions; or
   • Grant the licence, varied from what was applied for and/or attaching expressly varied conditions instead of or in addition to the standard conditions; or • Refuse the application.

5.2 Once the Committee has decided to grant a licence they are able to impose terms, conditions and restrictions on that licence, either in the form of conditions specific to the individual licence under paragraph 8 of Schedule 3 to the LGMPA or standard conditions applicable to all sex establishments, or particular types of sex establishments, prescribed by regulations made by the appropriate authority under paragraph 13 of Schedule 3 of the LGMPA.

5.3 Paragraph 13 provides examples of the matters that standard conditions may address which include but are not restricted to:
   • The hours of opening and closing
   • Displays and advertisements on or in sex establishments
   • The visibility of the interior of a sex establishment to passers-by
   • Any change of use from one kind of sex establishment to another

5.4 The Council has adopted standard conditions that act as default conditions attached to SEV licenses. The standard conditions are considered by the Licensing Authority to be appropriate for the type of venue but they provide leeway for some variation in consultation with Licensees. The original standard conditions prepared by the Council are set out at Appendix 9.

5.5 In consideration of the applications, a revised set of standard conditions to be attached to those licenses that the Committee determines to grant was prepared. This set of revised conditions incorporated and mostly reflected the previous standard conditions but where relevant conditions were reviewed and amended in light of the applications and submissions made and Councillor comments and concerns. The revised standard conditions were sent out to the applicants and their Legal Representatives for comment on 11 May 2015 for the four existing operators. In addition they were put to the applicant and his legal representatives for Charlie’s Angels at the hearing on 12 May 2015. The Revised Standard Conditions are set out at Appendix 10.
5.6 Minor matters, were raised in correspondence on 18 May by Dadds Solicitors acting for White Swan and White’s Gentleman’s Club, whereby it was asked that the Committee consider the revised wording for condition 31 and delete the words “or clearly advertised discounts to the tariff” as a discount should not give rise to any misunderstanding or complaint. Copies of the letters received from Dadds Solicitors are at Appendices 11 and 12.

5.7 Matters were raised in respect of Nag’s Head and Metropolis by Jeffrey Russell Grant Ltd on 15 May 2015 with Legal Services which the applicants had not had the opportunity to deal with before the Committee.

5.8 There was correspondence in March and April between Licensing Officers and Julian Skeens of Jeffrey Russell Grant in respect of conditions for the Nag’s Head Public House. Amendments to the Council’s standard Conditions were submitted as a tracked changes document and a clean copy of the same. These changes can be summarised broadly as:

- Removal of standard conditions 3 – 6 of the LBTH Standard Conditions for SEVs.
- Amended wording from standard condition 11 on the basis that “a satisfactory level of decorum” was deemed by Jeffrey Russell Grant as being too subjective and imprecise.
- Removal of standard condition 14 and substitution with Additional Condition 4.
- When making the application (which was before the publication of the LBTH Standard Conditions for SEVs came out);
- The proposal of additional conditions dealing with drink/dance tariffs.

Further to on-going communication between officers and solicitors for the applicant, a revised set of conditions was offered whereby Jeffrey Russell Grant honed the conditions previously submitted. These revised conditions for Nag’s Head are set out at Appendix 13 together a new proposed plan in draft form for approval.

5.9 Gareth Hughes of Jeffrey Russell Grant acting for Metropolis asked that documents previously not before the Committee for Metropolis be considered in the determination of their clients’ applications. The additional documents for Metropolis are set out at Appendix 14.

5.10 Further/revised conditions have also been put forward in respect of Charlie’s Angels, following the Committee hearing of that matter. A copy of correspondence sent in by Fletcher Day, the Legal Representative, is attached as Appendix 15.

5.11 The LGMPA requires that applicants receive an opportunity of appearing before, and of being heard by, a Committee before their application is refused. In addition it has been determined by the Licensing Authority that where operators propose large-scale variations from the standard conditions representations in that regard must go before the Committee as being outside the delegated powers to settle the wording of conditions.
5.12 In light of paragraphs 5.6 to 5.10 above a further Extraordinary Committee Meeting has been convened to consider their further representations before determination of the grant.

6 COMMENTS OF THE CHIEF FINANCE OFFICER

6.1 There are no direct financial implications arising directly from the report. However, there are possible cost implications if the Decision was appealed to the Magistrates' Court, Crown Court or if a Judicial Review was lodged. Licence fees are expected to cover the cost of administration and compliance.

7 LEGAL COMMENTS

7.1 Legal Information is set out in the main body of this report. The relevant law for the consideration of applications is set out in the ‘Legal Comments’ section of each of the four Licensing Committee reports made under the LGMPA for a SEV licence appended hereto.

7.2 The decisions made by the Committee could be subject to an appeal to the Magistrates’ Court, as set out in paragraph 27 of Schedule 3 of LGMPA.

APPENDIX 3

Council report for consideration of the adoption of the SEV Licensing Regime
1 SUMMARY

1.1 It is proposed that the Council adopt a legislative scheme for the control of lap dancing and striptease premises in Tower Hamlets, set out in Schedule 3 to the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982. If the Council determines that the scheme should apply in Tower Hamlets, then no person may operate a sex establishment (including a sexual entertainment venue) in the borough without first obtaining a licence from the Council.

1.2 The proposal was initially considered by the Licensing Committee on 8th October 2013, at which time the Committee was not in favour of adopting the scheme. Concerns were expressed regarding the treatment of premises known as the White Swan, should the scheme be adopted and the level of the application fee to be charged.

1.3 On the 8th January 2014 the matter of adoption of Schedule 3 to the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 was brought before the Licensing Committee to enable a further exploration and discussion of the issues of concern.

1.4 At the meeting on 8th January 2014 the Licensing Committee resolved to recommend to full Council that Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, as amended, should apply to the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, along with the proposed standard conditions and fees. This will bring into effect the Sexual Entertainment Venues Policy, which applies a nil limit for new establishments but exempts current operators from the nil limit criteria.
2 RECOMMENDATIONS

Full Council is requested to –

2.1 Consider whether it is appropriate to reconsider whether to adopt Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

2.2 Should Full Council consider it appropriate to adopt then to resolve that Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 shall apply in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets area and which shall come into force on 1st June 2014.

2.3 Should Full Council pass the resolution in 2.2 then Full Council is also requested to agree the proposed standard conditions in Appendix 2 and to also agree the fee structure in Appendix 3.

2.4 Note that the policy in Appendix 1, which will apply on the application of Schedule 3 in Tower Hamlets, and which supports continued operation of existing premises, including the White Swan.

3 BACKGROUND

3.1 The legislation brought in by Government in 2009 allows Local Authorities the discretion to adopt the legislation to regulate sexual entertainment venues. Once the powers have been adopted the Council can, through its licensing processes:

(a) Control the number of premises
(b) Control the location of premises
(c) Give local people a greater say over sexual entertainment venues in their area.

3.2 If Full Council is of the view that the above activities are appropriate for the Council to undertake then it will adopt the relevant powers. This report requests consideration of the adoption of the provisions for regulating sexual establishments which cover licences for sex shops, sex cinemas and sexual entertainment venues (SEVs) as set out in the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 ('the 1982 Act') as amended by the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

3.3 If the framework legislation is adopted, Members sitting on the Licensing Committee will determine the relevant applications. A policy has been adopted by Cabinet (Appendix 1) that provides a decision making framework for the Licensing Committee to draw upon when making its decisions. It should be noted that the Licensing Committee remains free to and is obliged by law to consider each application on its merits. This flexibility provides Licensing Committee Members with sufficient leeway to consider direct representations made by different communities within the Borough and to make decisions that are sensitive to residents' concerns, equalities issues and take into account the views of the sexual entertainment venues and those in the community that make use of its services on an application by application basis.

3.4 The proposed standard conditions are detailed in Appendix 2 and the schedule of fees at Appendix 3, are not Executive functions and Full Council can consider and approve.

3.5 A report relating to the adoption of the framework agreement as set out in the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 was submitted to the Licensing Committee on the 8th October 2013.

3.6 Legal representatives from the Sexual Entertainment Venues attended the Licensing Committee on the 8th October 2013 and 8th January 2014 and made oral representations. They also made written representations and which are in Appendix 4.

3.7 At the Licensing Committee on the 8th October 2013 the committee was of the view that the framework legislation to enable licensing of sexual entertainment venues should not be adopted by the Council. It also moved to change the Policy to exclude a specific business from the Policy but as this is an Executive function this is not possible. The minutes of this meeting are at Appendix 5.

3.8 As requested, a report was prepared to be brought before full Council on the 27th November 2013 to reconsider the adoption of the legal framework. On advice from the Monitoring Officer, that report was pulled and presented to an Extraordinary Licensing Committee in the first instance to enable them to reconsider the matter and to focus on the key areas of concerns previously raised by the Licensing Committee.

3.9 The extraordinary Licensing Committee was held on the 8th January 2014 and further letters of representation from the legal representatives of local venues with a striptease waiver were received. Whilst these mainly dealt with what they considered to be the unlawfulness of the Licensing Committee sitting again to consider the matter, they did raise some additional matters. These letters are also contained in Appendix 4.

3.10 The Licensing Committee considered the circumstances of the White Swan, an iconic gay venue in Commercial Road. The White Swan currently holds a strip tease waiver on its licence and advertises professional strip tease nights on its website. The premises would be affected by adoption of the proposed licensing regime, because sexual entertainment is conducted at the premises.
3.11 Members had previously wished to exempt the White Swan from being required to apply for an SEV licence should the legislation be adopted.

3.12 The legal and policy position remained the same as it was when the Licensing Committee considered adoption of the scheme and may be summarised as follows in relation to existing premises—

- If adopted the scheme will apply to all sexual entertainment venues, including the White Swan and all premises will need a licence from the Council.
- The Council’s policy provides an exemption from the nil limits for existing premises. This does not provide any guarantee that existing premises would be successful in obtaining licences under the scheme, as all applications must be considered on their merits.
- The exemption from the nil limits would, however, remove the requirement for existing premises to demonstrate why the Council should depart from its nil policy.
- The Policy is an Executive Function falling outside the remit of Licensing Committee to change.

3.13 It is considered that the nil policy with a limited exception for existing premises strikes the appropriate balance between human rights, the legal requirement to consider every application on its merits and the assorted views of those who do not support a nil policy.

3.14 The Licensing Committee was also concerned by the amount of the proposed application fee to be charged by the Council. A proposed fee of £9,000 per application has been proposed. The Committee considered a more detailed explanation of the charging approach and considered it to be consistent with relevant case law and justifiable. This fee has now been increased to £9,070 to take into account the legal fees are now estimated at £1,070 (see Appendix 6 for breakdown).

3.15 In calculating the fee for sexual entertainment venues in the Borough, the following costs have been estimated. As this is a new licensing regime a review of the fees will be undertaken and the end of the first licensing period to ensure that the fees are fair and equitable. The table below demonstrates predicted costs.

3.16 A further breakdown of costs Licensing Officer time, compliance visits costs, Democratic Services costs and Legal Service costs are presented in Appendix 6.

3.17 Following the decision of the Court of Appeal in R (Hemming) v Westminster City Council, it has been made clear that the Council may only charge for authorisation procedures when setting its fees.

3.18 It is estimated that Licensing Officers will spend 15 working days on administering each application. Officers will have to –

- Examine the application forms
- Examination of plans
- Meeting with applicant
- Visiting premises to determine accuracy of plans
- Consideration of conditions and survey of premises
- Liaison with responsible authorities
- Liaise with the applicant and objectors.
- Administer the consultation process
- Prepare a committee report
- Attend any licensing committee hearing.
- Administration of determination
- Costs associated with appeals

3.19 The cost of compliance monitoring and enforcement against an applicant who is given a licence can fall within the costs of ‘authorisation procedures’ and therefore can be included in the licence fee.

3.20 These are visits that take place during the course of the year to ensure that conditions are being maintained and that the premises are being managed in line with the licence. Due to the late night operation of these premises, compliance audits are undertaken in the evening and early morning, with more than one Officer in attendance. These audits will require reports to be written and discussion to be held with the licence holder to ensure that compliance with the licensing conditions continue.
3.21 There is a considerable amount of test purchasing monies that would need to be made available when undertaking compliance visits. Due to complaints received against a lap dancing club, in 2010, two officers had to spend over £1,000 in that premises to ascertain the veracity of the complaint and to establish whether licence conditions were being complied with.

3.22 Costs in relation to compliance visits results from:

- Overtime for overt visits – undertaken in pairs
- Report writing and feedback to operator
- Overtime for covert visits
- Test purchase monies
- Review costs
- Committee Hearing costs
- Investigation costs – e.g. examining CCTV footage

3.23 Due to the public interest in the Sexual Entertainment Venue consultation, there will be an expectation that compliance visits are undertaken throughout the regime. In subsequent years the fee structure will be reviewed to ensure that fees are recovered on a cost basis.

3.24 The Council must determine its fees on a cost-recovery basis, so comparison with fees in other boroughs is not a relevant consideration. Officers have, however, conducted a benchmarking exercise in respect of 13 other London boroughs and there is nothing to suggest that the Council's costs are excessive. Five London Borough's charge a lesser fee (£3,500 – £8,224) and eight London Boroughs charge more that the proposed £9,000 fee (£10,000-£22,523). The fees cannot be compared with those under the Licensing Act 2003 as this a different regime and the fees are set by statute.

3.25 The fees estimate the amount of time that Council Officers will spend on their part of the Licensing process.

3.26 The costs of convening the committee and legal oversight of the SEV process have also been estimated.

3.27 At the end of the first year of the SEV process, the actual cost of the new regime will be calculated and the fees will be adjusted accordingly. Should the amount collected be in excess of the actual cost of the SEV regime then the fees will be reduced for the coming year and where applicable refunds made.

3.28 Once again during the second year, the amount it costs to administer and ensure compliance with the SEV regime will be calculated and fees adjusted accordingly.
3.29 After considering further information the Licensing Committee resolved to recommend to full Council that Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended, should apply to the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, Appendix 7.

Consultation

3.29 Consultation on the adoption of the sexual entertainment venues legal framework ran for six weeks from March 18th 2013 to April 29th 2013. The consultation was promoted through East End Life, press releases to all local and Bengali media and on the council’s website. Emails notifying about the consultation were sent out, this included emails sent to the responsible authorities, the Licensing Committee, Faith groups, Community Safety Partnership, Women’s Organisations, Networks and Forums, Advocacy Services and RSL and Housing Associations. All sexual entertainment venues and their registered owners received letters notifying them of the consultation.

3.30 The consultation was hosted online on the Council’s website and paper copies were provided if requested. The consultation posed the question ‘Do you think the council should adopt new powers to regulate sexual entertainment venues via an enhanced licensing regime?’ A concern has been raised that the Council’s system permitted only one response per computer, which may have restricted the representations that could be made. This is a possibility which may have affected representations for and against the scheme.

3.31 A total of 4,973 responses (526 online and 4,447 paper returns) were received, with 1,400 forms being returned from a single sexual entertainment premises within the Borough. The responses were as follows:

108 (2.2%) ‘Yes’ responses, in favour of adopting 4,865 (97.8) ‘No’ responses, not in favour of adopting

3.32 It is noted the some of the local venues ran a campaign to encourage persons to register their opposition to adoption of the scheme. There is nothing illegitimate about such a campaign. The representatives for these venues have asserted that there is no basis for concluding that this campaign skewed the outcome of consultation Whether or not there were campaigns ‘for’ and ‘against’ which took place during consultation about adoption of the scheme, it must be recognised that there was a strong expression of public opinion against adoption.

3.33 However it should also be considered, the results are in contrast to the community response received to the Council’s consultation on the policy approach that might be taken to control sex entertainment venues where there was up to 75% in favour of aspects of sex establishment policy (specifically delineation of localities) control and a 52% to 48% split in favour of a blanket nil policy. The position on the nil limits was effectively split, when sampling error is taken into account.

3.34 In contrasting the two sets of consultation results, Members should bear in mind that the survey in respect of the Policy came first and as people were consulting on a policy they may have assumed that the Act was already in force and therefore did not respond to a consultation on adopting. It is fair to say that there was not an overwhelming support for a nil limit, which is why the Policy did not extend the “Nil” limit to existing operators.

3.35 The Committee should, take the consultation response into consideration when reaching a decision. Whilst the Council is required to undertake consultation on the adoption of the legislation, a strong ‘No’ response does not prevent adoption if there remain good reasons for regulation of sexual entertainment venues under the scheme established by Schedule 3 to the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982. Specifically if the Council considers that there are good reasons for the Council to

(a) Control the number of premises
(b) Control the location of premises
(c) Give local people a greater say over sexual entertainment venues in their area.

In forming this view, the following should be taken into account –

- The overall consultation response represents only a small percentage of those who live and work in the borough. It is not possible to know whether those who did not make representations would have supported or been against adoption of the scheme.
- Adoption of the scheme will enable the Council to regulate the number, location and conduct of premises in the borough. Whilst this will apply to all premises, it will be particularly important when dealing with applications from new premises.
- A licensing scheme will give local people a greater say over venues in their areas.
- The adoption of the scheme will facilitate policy interventions that enhance the ability of the Council to limit impact of SEV’s on the community and on particular groups at risk of exploitation.
- Each case will be considered by the Licensing Committee on its own merits, having regard to the Council’s policy. The policy provides support for the continuation of existing premises which meet their licence considerations.
- The licensing regime will allow the Council to take broader policy implications into consideration when judging applications including limiting any negative impacts on local communities brought about by these venues.
3.36 Concerns were raised by Members in discussion, that operators may not be granted their annual licences. This concern is recognised, but in determining applications, members of the Licensing Committee should take account of the Council's policy and also existing operations and whether they have been well controlled.

3.37 These considerations are good reasons for the regulation of sexual entertainment venues under the scheme. On balance, and taking into consideration the outcome of the consultation exercise, it is considered preferable to adopt the scheme in Tower Hamlets and take into account the views of those in favour of sexual entertainment venues when considering each application and in any policy deliberations.

4. COMMENTS OF THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

4.1 The adoption of the provision will introduce a new fee structure for sexual entertainment venues. They will need to hold two licences one for alcohol and another for the venue. The new fees for the SEV's are set out in Appendix 3. The number of SEV's that would be affected by the adoption of the new licensing regime is currently 11. If all apply and were granted SEV licenses this would achieve £99,000 in fees. This is the maximum that could be achieved and would be dependent on the relative number of refusals for which there is a partial return of the fee paid. The fee will need to be utilised to fund the administration of the new regime process and any potential legal challenge upon refusal.

4.2 With the threat of any legal challenge arising from adoption of the policy considerably reduced, the service will need to ensure that the policy can be adopted within existing budgeted resources.

5 LEGAL COMMENTS

5.1 On 6 April 2010, amendments to the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 ("the 1982 Act") came into effect which permitted local authorities to regulate sexual entertainment venues ("the SEV amendments") in addition to other sex establishments.

5.2 For the purposes of the 1982 Act a sexual entertainment venue ("SEV") means any premises at which entertainment of the following kind is provided before a live audience for the financial gain of the organiser or the entertainer-

- A live performance or a live display of nudity
- Which is of such a nature that, ignoring financial gain, it must reasonably be assumed to be provided solely or principally for the purpose of sexually stimulating any member of the audience (whether by verbal or other means).
5.3 The following are not SEVs for the purposes of the 1982 Act –

- Sex cinemas and sex shops (which come within the more general definition of sex establishments).
- Premises at which the relevant entertainment has been provided no more than 11 times in a 12 month period, provided that on each occasion the entertainment has not been provided for more than 24 hours and the occasions are at least a month apart.

5.4 Under section 2 of the 1982 Act the Council may decide that Schedule 3 to the Act, which contains a regime for controlling sex establishments, is to apply in Tower Hamlets. If the Schedule 3 regime is applied in Tower Hamlets, then no person may operate a sex establishment (including an SEV) in the borough without first obtaining a licence from the Council. The requirement for a licence is backed up by provision for offences, each of which carry a maximum penalty of £20,000.

5.5 If premises obtain a sex establishment licence under the Schedule 3 licensing regime, those premises will not also require a licence under the Licensing Act 2003 in respect of entertainment permitted by the sex establishment licence. The premises would still, however, require permission under the Licensing Act 2003 in respect of other licensable activities conducted at the premises (e.g. the sale of alcohol or the provision of regulated entertainment that is not permitted by the sex establishment licence).

5.6 Prior to the SEV amendments in 2010, the Council had determined that the scheme for licensing sex establishments in Schedule 3 of the 1982 Act should apply in Tower Hamlets. However, at the time of introducing the SEV amendments in 2010, the Policing and Crime Act 2009 put in place transitional arrangements (“the Transitional Arrangements”), which specified that a new resolution is required if a local authority wants the Schedule 3 licensing scheme to extend to SEVs in addition to other types of sex establishments such as sex cinemas and sex shops.

5.7 The procedure for deciding that Schedule 3 of the 1982 Act should apply in Tower Hamlets is as follows–

- The Council must consult local people about whether or not to apply the SEV licensing regime in Tower Hamlets. The Transitional Arrangements set up an initial 12-month period in which local authorities might resolve that the SEV amendments would apply in their areas. If an authority did not resolve to adopt the SEV amendments within the timeframe (i.e. by 5 April 2011), then the authority was then required to consult local people about whether to adopt the SEV amendments. The Council was caught by this requirement to consult and the report sets out the results of that consultation.

- The Council must pass a resolution specifying that the Schedule shall apply in Tower Hamlets. The resolution must specify the day on which the Schedule shall come into force ("the Specified Day"), which must be more than one month after the day on which the resolution is passed.
- The Council must then publish a notice that it is adopting the Schedule 3 regime. This must be published for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper which is circulated in Tower Hamlets. The first publication of the notice must be at least 28 days before the Specified Day. The notice must state the general effect of Schedule 3.

5.8 The Council should have a rational basis for any resolution to adopt the sex establishment (including SEV) licensing regime in Tower Hamlets. The results of the consultation exercise must be taken into account. In this respect, the consultation conducted in relation to whether or not to adopt the sex establishment licensing regime (the 2013 consultation), is the more relevant of the two consultation exercises referred to in the report. If the Council intends to take a different approach than that indicated by the preponderance of views expressed in the 2013 consultation, then it will need to be satisfied there are good reasons for taking that approach. There is material in the report both in favour of and against the adoption of the SEV licensing regime. Before adopting the regime, the Licensing Committee will have to be satisfied that the reasons in favour of adoption are sufficiently cogent.

5.9 Standard conditions have been proposed that will be applied to all licensed SEVs (see Appendix 2). Paragraph 13(1) of Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act gives the Council power to make regulations prescribing standard conditions (i.e. the terms, conditions and restrictions on or subject to which licences under Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act are in general to be granted, renewed or transferred by the Council). Such conditions must be proportionate and must be precise so that everyone (Premises Licence holder, those charged with enforcing the conditions, and local residents) would know where they stand. These proposed conditions meet those criteria.

5.10 It is proposed to introduce application fees as set out in Appendix 3. Paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act allows the Council to set a fee. Such fee must be reasonable and should properly reflect the anticipated costs for the Council in administering the application, holding a hearing to consider the application (including legal costs) and the costs associated with licensing visits should a licence be granted. Fees should not therefore be set at an unreasonably high level to dissuade applications. Further, whilst such fees cannot include costs associated with enforcement of unlicensed venues. The breakdown as to calculation of those fees is in Appendix 6.
5.11 Before taking the proposed decisions in relation to the licensing of SEVs, the Council must have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful conduct under the Equality Act 2010, the need to advance equality of opportunity and the need to foster good relations between persons who share a protected characteristic and those who do not. Equality analyses have been conducted and are set out in Appendices 8 and 9.

5.12 The Council’s Constitution provides that the power to licence sex shops and sex cinemas, as provided in section 2 and Schedule 3 of the Local Government Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 is delegated to the Licensing Committee. On one view, this delegation includes a power to decide that the licensing scheme should apply in Tower Hamlets, but another view is that this at best permits the Licensing Committee to express an advisory view about adoption of the scheme.
Irrespective of the position concerning the Licensing Committee’s role, two matters are clear:

- Full Council may determine whether or not the scheme should apply in Tower Hamlets.
- Full Council is not prevented from determining whether or not the scheme should apply in Tower Hamlets by reason of any prior consideration by the Licensing Committee.

5.13 Determining the Council’s policy in relation to licensing under the scheme (should it be adopted) is an executive function which is the responsibility of the Mayor.
On 11 September 2013, the Mayor in Cabinet agreed that the policy in Appendix 1 should apply in the event that the scheme is adopted in Tower Hamlets.

6. ONE TOWER HAMLETS CONSIDERATIONS

6.1 Legislation gives local authorities the opportunity to control sexual entertainment venues. The legislation was drafted to allow communities to have a say about whether sexual entertainment venues should be allowed to operate in their community and it gives the local authority the power to determine limits on numbers and localities. An equalities impact assessment is provided at Appendix 5. In addition as the decision to adopt the framework legislation will bring the policy into effect. Members may wish to consider the equalities impact assessment at Appendix 6 in relation to the policy.

6.2 The adoption of Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 will enable this to happen.

6.3 It is important to note that, after adopting the above legislation, the Licence Sub Committee remains free to and is obliged by law to consider each application on its merits. The Sexual Entertainment Venue policy provides flexibility for Licensing Committee Members, to consider representations made by different communities within the Borough and to make decisions that are sensitive to equalities issues and where relevant to the needs of the sexual entertainment venues and those within the community who make use of its services.

7. SUSTAINABLE ACTION FOR A GREENER ENVIRONMENT

7.1 There are no adverse impacts identified.

8. RISK MANAGEMENT IMPLICATIONS

8.1 The Mayor in Cabinet has adopted the policy on sexual entertainment venues for the Borough. Full Council is being requested to re-consider the adoption of the legislation to enable the policy to take effect. There is potential for legal challenge to the Council’s adoption of the licensing regime for sex establishments, which will have significant associated costs.

9. CRIME AND DISORDER REDUCTION IMPLICATIONS

9.1 Adoption of this legislative framework will complement the Crime and Drug Reduction Partnership Plan.

10. EFFICIENCY STATEMENT

10.1 There are no efficiency considerations arising from the report.

Tower Hamlets Council

Sex Establishment Licensing Policy

Introduction

This policy sets out Tower Hamlets Council's proposed approach to regulating sex establishments and the procedure that it will adopt in relation to applications for sex establishment licences.

The policy of the Council is to refuse applications for sexual entertainment venues. This policy is intended to be strictly applied and will only be overridden in genuinely exceptional circumstances. Such circumstances will not be taken to include the quality of the management, its compliance with licence conditions, the size of the premises or its operating hours.

The policy is intended as a guide to applicants, licence holders, people who want to object to applications and members of the Licensing Committee who are responsible for determining contested applications. It also aims to guide and reassure the public and other public authorities, ensuring transparency and consistency in decision making.

When the decision making powers of the Council are engaged each application will be dealt with on its own merits but this policy gives prospective applicants an early indication of whether their application is likely to be granted or not. It also provides prospective applicants details of what is expected of them should an application be made.

The legal controls for sex establishment premises are contained in the Local Governmental (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by the Policing and Crime Act 2009,
There are 3 types of sex establishments which fall into the licensing regime:-

Sex shops

Sex cinemas

Sexual entertainment venues

The role of the Council in its position as Licensing Authority is to administer the licensing regime in accordance with the law and not in accordance with moral standing. The Council recognises that Parliament has made it lawful to operate a sex establishment and such businesses are a legitimate part of the retail and leisure industries.

Policy Rationale

The policy has been developed that sets out how the legislation will be administered and applied. The policy identifies how the Council would exercise the licensing regime in relation to sexual entertainment venues.

The policy has been developed to reflect and complement existing Council plans and strategic approach, namely:-

• Tower Hamlets Community Plan.
• Tower Hamlets Crime & Drug Reduction Partnership Plan.
• Tower Hamlets Enforcement Policy.
• Tower Hamlets Core Strategy.
• TowerHamletsTown Centre Spatial Strategy.
• Tower Hamlets Statement of Licensing Policy (Licensing Act 2003).
• Tower Hamlets Statement of Licensing Policy (Gambling Act 2005).

The policy has also been prepared with regard to:

• Consultation responses
• Human Rights Act 1998
• Equalities Act 2010

The policy seeks to contribute to the "One Tower Hamlets" principle by fostering community cohesion, reducing inequalities and empowering communities. The public consultation that was undertaken concerning the adoption of a nil policy did not have overwhelming support. Therefore careful consideration has been given to the policy response, given the balance that the consultation returns did not give overwhelming support.

Policy Considerations

Existing Licensed Premises

The Council has had the ability to licence sex shops and sex cinemas under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 for many years.

There are no licensed sex shops in Tower Hamlets.

The businesses that hold premises licences under the Licensing Act 2003 with permissions that will be affected by the adoption of the sexual entertainment venue licensing regime are as follows:-

Tower Hamlets Council has adopted schedule 3 Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 with effect from 1st June 2014 so that it can:

- set a limit on the number of sexual entertainment venues
- determine premises that are appropriate for the borough and
- licence sexual entertainment venues
Sexual entertainment venues are those that regularly provide lap dancing and other forms of live performance or live display of nudity.

Establishments that hold events involving full or partial nudity less than once a month may be exempt from the requirements to obtain a sex establishment licence and applicants are advised to contact the Licensing Team for advice.

Limits on the number of licensed premises

The Council has determined that there are a sufficient number of sex shops, sex cinemas and sexual entertainment venues currently operating in the borough and it does not want to see an increase in the numbers of premises that are currently providing these activities.

The Council intends to adopt a policy to limit the number of sexual entertainment venues in the borough to nil however it recognises that there are a number of businesses that have been providing sexual entertainment in Tower Hamlets for several years. The Council will not apply this limitation when considering applications for premises that were already trading with express permission for the type of entertainment which is now defined as sexual entertainment on the date that the licensing provisions were adopted by the authority if they can demonstrate in their application:

- High standards of management
- A management structure and capacity to operate the venue
- The ability to adhere to the standard conditions for sex establishments

The Council will consider each application on its merit although new applicants will have to demonstrate why the Council should depart from its policy. Furthermore if any of the existing premises cease trading there is no presumption that the Council will consider any new applications more favourably.
Location of premises

The Council’s policy is that there is no locality within Tower Hamlets in which it would be appropriate to license a sex establishment. Accordingly, the appropriate number of sex establishments for each and every locality within Tower Hamlets is zero.

As previously stated in the policy the Council will treat each application on its own merits however applicants should be aware that the Council will take into consideration the location of the proposed premises and its proximity to:

- residential accommodation,
- schools,
- premises used by children and vulnerable persons
- youth, community & leisure centres,
- religious centres and public places of worship
- access routes to and from premises listed above
- existing licensed premises in the vicinity

Impact

In considering applications for the grant of new or variation applications the Council will assess the likelihood of a grant causing impacts, particularly on the local community.

The Council will take the following matters into account:

- the type of activity
- the duration of the proposed licence
- the proposed hours of operation
- the layout and condition of the premises
- the use of other premises in the vicinity
- the character and locality of the area
- the applicant’s previous knowledge and experience
- the applicant’s ability to minimise the impact of their business on local residents and businesses
• any evidence of the operation of existing /previous licences held by the applicant
• any reports about the applicant and management of the premises received from residents, Council officers or the police
• the ability of the proposed management structure to deliver compliance with licensing requirements, policies on staff training and the welfare of performers
• crime and disorder issues
• cumulative impact of licensed premises, including hours of operation
• the nature and concerns of local residents
• any evidence of complaints about noise or disturbance caused by premises
• planning permission and planning policy considerations

In considering applications for renewal the Council will take into account
• the applicant's ability to minimise the impact of their business on local residents and businesses
• any reports about the licensee and management of the premises received from residents, Council officers or the police
• whether appropriate measures have been agreed and put into place to mitigate any adverse impacts
• any evidence of complaints about noise or disturbance caused by premises

In considering applications for transfer the Council will take into account:
• the applicants previous knowledge and experience
• the applicants ability to minimise the impact of their business on local residents and businesses
• any evidence of the operation of existing /previous licences held by the applicant
• any reports about the applicant and management of the premises received from residents, Council officers or the police
the ability of the proposed management structure to deliver compliance with licensing requirements, policies on staff training and the welfare of performers

Applicants

Where appropriate the Council expects applicants to:

- demonstrate that they are qualified by experience
- have an understanding of general conditions
- propose a management structure which will deliver compliance
- with operating conditions for example through
  - Management competence
  - Presence
  - Credible management structure
  - enforcement of rules internally – training & monitoring
  - a viable business plan covering door staff, CCTV
  - policies for welfare of performers
  - demonstrate that they can be relied upon to act in best interests of performers through remuneration, facilities, protection, physical and psychological welfare
  - have a transparent charging scheme with freedom from solicitation
  - a track record of management compliant premises or employ individuals with such a track record

New applicants may be invited for interview by the Licensing Officer and/or Police Officer prior to the application being referred to the Licensing Committee for determination.

Applications from anyone who intends to manage the premises on behalf of third party will be refused.

Premises appearance and layout

The Council expects premises to:-

- have an external appearance which is in keeping with the locality
- prevent the display outside the premises of photographs or other images which may be construed as offensive to public decency
- adequate lighting to allow monitoring of all public areas
- surveillance by CCTV
- surveillance by CCTV of all private booths

Conditions

The council will prescribe, and from time to time revise, standard conditions which will apply generally to licences that the council will grant or renew.

Through standard conditions the council seeks to ensure that sexual entertainment venues are well managed and supervised, restrict the sexual entertainment activities and the manner in which they are permitted to be provided, protect performers, and control the impact of the venue and its customers in relation to its locality.

Specifically, standard conditions could include measures which are found in the appendix of this policy.

The Application Process

Making a new, renewal, transfer or variation application

The Act requires the Council to refuse all application if the applicant:

- Is under the age of 18 or
- Has had their licence revoked in the last 12 months or
- Is not resident in the UK, or has not been a UK resident for the last 6 months or
- Has been refused an application in the last 12 months or
- Is a corporate body which is not incorporated in the UK

Applications forms and details of current fee levels are available:

- on the Council's website (www.towerhamlets.gov.uk)
- from the Licensing Team on 020 7364 5008
- by email to licensing@towerhamlets.gov.uk

The Council prefers to receive electronic applications and offers a choice of payment options the details of which are contained in the application pack.
The Council expects the premises to have planning consent for the intended use and hours of operation, or otherwise have lawful planning status before making an application for a new licence.

In order for the application to be valid the applicant must:

- Submit the completed application form
- Pay the application fee
- Submit a floor plan, drawn to scale showing the layout of the premises(n new applications only)
- Submit a location plan (1:1250) showing the location of the premises(NB. plans will not be required for transfers nor renewal applications)
- 2 passport size photos of the applicant where the applicant is an individual rather than a limited company
- 2 passport size photos of the manager if applicant is a limited company(NB: photos will only be required if there has been a change of applicant or manager since the last application)
- Display an A4 notice at the proposed premises for 21 days following the date that the completed application is submitted setting out the application details. The notice must be in a prominent position so that it can be easily read by passers-by. A notice template will be provided with the application form.
- Publish a notice on at least one occasion in a local newspaper, during the period of ten working days starting on the day the application was given Council. The advert can be any size or colour but must be readable.

Applicants who wish to advertise the application in another local newspaper are advised to contact the Licensing Team beforehand, to confirm that it is acceptable.

On receipt of a valid application the Council will consult:

- The Police
- The Fire Brigade
- Building Control
- Health and Safety
- Ward Councillors
For new and variation applications the Council will also consult:

- Development Control Team
- Local residents living within 50m of the premises

Authorised Officers from the Council, Fire Brigade and Police may choose to inspect the premises and require works to be carried out to bring the premises up to the required standard before the premises can be used for licensable activities.

The Council will not determine an application for a licence unless the applicant allows an authorised officer reasonable opportunity to enter the premises to make such examination and enquiries as may be necessary to determine the suitability of the applicant and the sex establishment.

Representations
Anyone wishing to object to the application must submit a representation, in writing, within 28 days of the date that the valid application was received by the Council.

Representations can either be submitted via
- Our website: www.towerhamlets.gov.uk
- Email to: licensing@towerhamlets.gov.uk
- Post to: Consumer and Business Regulations, Licensing Team, 6th Floor, Mulberry Place, 5 Clove Crescent, E14 2BG.

A person making a representation must clearly state their name, address, and the grounds for objecting to the application and indicate whether they consent to have their name and address revealed to the applicant. Copies of representations will be made available to the applicant 14 days before the committee hearing.

The Council will not consider objections that are frivolous or vexatious or which relate to moral grounds (as these are outside the scope of the Act). The Council prefers to receive electronic representations.
Late representations may be admissible at the discretion of the Council if there's sufficient reason to indicate that applicants will not be significantly prejudiced by the decision to allow a late objection to be considered. In making such a decision the Council will take into account:

- The length of the delay
- The amount of time that the applicant has to consider the representation before the hearing date
- If other representations have been received before the deadline

Determining an application

Applications with no representations will be approved under delegated authority to officers.

Applications with representations recommending that conditions be attached to the licence and which are acceptable to both the applicant and person making the representation can be approved under delegated authority to officers.

All other contested applications will be referred to the Licensing Committee for determination. The applicant, anyone making a representation and the ward Councillors will be notified the date, time and venue of the hearing and invited to attend to address the committee in person.

Applications can take up to 14 weeks to be determined. If an application is likely to take longer than 14 weeks to determine the Council will notify the applicant in writing before this deadline. Applications for sex establishment licenses are exempt from the tacit consent provisions of the EU Services Directive on the grounds of public interest and the legitimate interests of third parties.

The applicant will be notified in writing about the outcome of their application within 5 working days of the decision being made.
Sex Establishment licences are usually issued for 12 months, but can be issued for a shorter period if deemed appropriate.

In order to continue operating as a sex establishment the licence holder must make a renewal application prior to the expiry of the existing licence.

Appeals
Any applicant who is aggrieved by a decision to refuse an application or by the imposition of any conditions can appeal to the Magistrates Court within 21 days of receiving the decision in writing.

Grounds for refusing an application

1. The applicant is unsuitable to hold a licence by reason of having been convicted of any offence or for any other reason

2. That if the license were to be granted, renewed or transferred the business to which it relates would be managed by or carried on for the benefit of a person, other than the applicant, who would be refused the grant, renewal or transfer of such a license if he made the application himself

3. That the number of sex establishments in the relevant locality at the time the application is made is equal to or exceeds the number which the authority consider is appropriate for that locality

4. That the grant or renewal of the license would be inappropriate, having regard:-

   a. to the character of the relevant locality

   b. to the use to which any premises in the vicinity are put; or

   c. to the layout, character or condition of the premises, vehicle, vessel or stall in respect of which the application is made.
Transitional Arrangements

Broadly speaking, those existing sexual entertainment venues (lap dancing clubs etc) with a premises licence under the Licensing Act 2003, under which it is lawful to provide such entertainment, will continue to be able to operate for one year after the Council adopts the 2009 Act provisions or, if later, the determination of any application submitted during that year.

The ‘transitional period’ will last for 12-months beginning with the date that the Council resolves that Schedule 3 as amended by the 2009 Act will come into force in their area (‘the 1st appointed day’). Six months following the 1st appointed day will be known as the ‘2nd appointed day’ and the day on which the transitional period ends will be known as the ‘3rd appointed day’.

Existing Operators
To allow time to comply with the new regime, existing operators, who, immediately before the 1st appointed day, have a 2003 Act licence and lawfully use premises as a sexual entertainment venue under that licence or are undertaking preparatory work to use the venue in that way will be allowed to continue to provide relevant entertainment until the 3rd appointed day or the determination of any application they have submitted before that time (including any appeal against the refusal to grant a licence), whichever is later.

“Preparatory work” refers to work carried out by an operator, such as a refurbishment or refit, in order that they can use the premises as a sexual entertainment venue in the future. The operator will have been granted a 2003 Act licence before the 1st appointed day but will not have used the premises as a sexual entertainment venue by that date. It is likely that such operators will be known to the Council. However, where a dispute arises between the Council and a licence-holder over whether the licence-holder qualifies as an existing operator by virtue of this provision the Council will need to seek evidence from the licence-holder to demonstrate that they clearly intended to operate a sexual entertainment venue in the future and work had been done to achieve this end.

For the purposes of the Transition a “2003 Act Licence” means a premises licence or club premises certificate under the Licensing Act 2003 under which it is lawful to provide relevant entertainment.

Appointed Days

1st Appointed Day
The day on which the Sexual Entertainment Venue regime comes into force in the Borough and the beginning of the transitional period (1st June 2014)

2nd Appointed Day
The day 6 months after the 1st appointed day (1st December 2014)

3rd Appointed Day
The day 6 months after the 2nd appointed day and the end of the transitional period (1st June 2015)

New Applications

New applicants are people who wish to use premises as a sexual entertainment venue after the 1st appointed day but do not already have a premises licence or club premises certificate to operate as such under the 2003 Act or do have such a licence but have not taken any steps towards operating as such. After the 1st appointed day new applicants will not be able to operate as a sexual entertainment venue until they have been granted a sexual entertainment venue licence.
Determining Applications Received On or Before the 2nd Appointed Day

Applicants will be able to submit their application for a sexual entertainment venue from the 1st appointed day onwards.

As the Council is able to refuse applications having regard to the number of sex establishment they consider appropriate for a particular locality, all applications made on or after the 1st appointed day but on or before the 2nd appointed day shall be considered together. This will ensure that applicants are given sufficient time to submit their application and all applications received on or before the 2nd appointed day are considered on their individual merit and not on a first come first serve basis.

No applications shall be determined before the 2nd appointed day. After the 2nd appointed day the appropriate authority shall decide what if any licences should be granted. If a new applicant is granted a licence it will take effect immediately. If an existing operator is granted a licence, it will not take effect until the 3rd appointed day, up to which point they will be allowed to continue to operate under their existing premises licence or club premises certificate.

Determining Applications Received After the 2nd Appointed Day

Applications made after the 2nd appointed day shall be considered when they are made but only once all applications made on or before that date have been determined. However, reference to determination here does not include references to the determination of any appeal against the refusal of a licence.

As with applications received on or before the 2nd appointed day, licences granted to new applicants shall take effect immediately and licences granted to existing operators shall take effect from the 3rd appointed day or, if later, the date the application is determined.

Outstanding Applications

The Council will attempt where possible to determine outstanding applications made under the 2003 Act, which include an application for the provision of relevant entertainment, before the date that Schedule 3 as amended by the 2009 Act comes into force in their area.

Where it has not been possible to determine application before the 1st appointed day, applicants will need to submit an application for a sex establishment licence as set out in Schedule 3 if they wish to provide relevant entertainment. From the 1st appointed day onwards outstanding applicants shall be dealt with as though they are new applicants.

Appendix Two

STANDARD CONDITIONS FOR SEXUAL ENTERTAINMENT VENUES

General
1. The Licensee must remain in personal control of the premises at all times that it is trading or nominate in writing an individual over the age of 18 with the authority to direct activities within the Premises.
2. The licensee shall notify the Council, in writing, of any change in directors, trustees, partners or other persons concerned in the management of the licensed activities within fourteen days of such change.
3. The Licensee shall provide in a timely fashion copies of any documents reasonably required by an authorised officer of the Council to prove compliance with this Licence.
4. The licensee must give written notice to the Council if s/he wishes to surrender the licence.
5. The Council reserves the right to amend or alter these conditions (provided that such change will not prevent the operators from viably carrying on the business of the premises) following consultation with licensees.
6. The meaning of "sexual entertainment" is given in Section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

Management
7. A suitable and sufficient number of door supervisors and trained staff will be employed (based on a risk assessment) when sexual entertainment is offered. Their duties will include monitoring customers and performers to ensure that the Code of Conduct for Dancers and the House Rules are being obeyed and enforcing if necessary.
8. The Licensee shall prepare and implement a Code of Conduct for Performers. The Code shall be approved by the council and will not be altered without their consent.
9. The Licensee shall prepare House Rules governing the conduct of customers. The Rules shall be approved by the council and shall not be altered without their consent.

Premises
10. The approved layout of the premises shall not be altered without prior consent of the council.
11. The Licensee shall ensure that the interior of the premises where sexual entertainment is offered shall not be capable of being seen from the outside of the premises, and that the exterior is maintained to a satisfactory level of decorum.
12. The sexual entertainment shall take place only in the areas designated by the Council and the approved access to the dressing room(s) shall be maintained whilst sexual entertainment is taking place and immediately thereafter.
13. CCTV shall be installed to cover the inside and the outside of the premises covering all areas to which the public have access, including private performance areas and booths, entrances and exits but excluding toilets. All cameras shall continually record whilst the premises are open to the public and the recorded images shall be kept available for a minimum of 31 days. Recorded images shall be made available to an authorised officer or a police officer together with facilities for viewing. The recordings for the preceding two days shall be made available immediately on request. Recordings outside this period shall be made available on 24 hours’ notice.

Advertising
14. The Licensee shall not permit the display outside of the premises of photographs or other images, excluding trademarks or logos, which are unacceptable to the Council, and which indicate or suggest that sexual entertainment takes place on the premises.
15. Where the Council has given notice in writing to the Licensee objecting to an advertisement on the grounds that, if displayed, it would offend public decency or be likely to encourage or incite crime and disorder that advertisement shall be removed or not be displayed.

Admission to the Premises
16. No person under the age of 18 years shall be permitted on the premises when sexual entertainment is being offered, and a clear notice to this effect will be displayed at the entrance.
17. Customers who appear to be under the age of 21 must be asked to provide a Pass-Scheme approved photographic card, their passport or photographic driving licence to prove their age. Prominent notices must be clearly displayed to this effect at the entrance(s) to the premises.
18. The content of the House Rules will be made known to customers prior to their admission to the premises when sexual entertainment is provided.
19. Signs must be displayed at appropriate locations advising that any customer attempting to make physical contact with a performer will be asked to leave;

Performers

20. Entertainment will be given only by the performers engaged by or through the Licensee and there will be no audience participation.

21. The licensee shall keep a record of each performer, including their proper name and any aliases, and their residential address. With each record the licensee shall keep a copy of a photographic form of identity and proof of address of the performer.

22. On days when sexual entertainment is provided, the licensee, or their representative, shall keep a record of those performers working at the premises on that day in a daily record. The daily record shall be immediately available for inspection by authorised officers.

23. The licensee shall ensure that each performer signs the code of conduct in their proper name, acknowledging that they have read and understood and are prepared to abide by the code of conduct, and signed copies be kept on the premises for inspection by authorised officers.

24. During a performance there shall be no full bodied physical contact between the customer and the dancer other than the transfer of money or token at the beginning, during and conclusion of the dance.

25. During a performance there shall be no full bodied physical contact between dancers and they are not to touch each other's breasts and or genitalia.

26. Performers must remain fully dressed while on the premises, except while performing in areas approved by the Council for sexual entertainment and in the approved changing rooms.

27. Performers must redress at the conclusion of the performance.

28. Performers must never be in the company of a customer except in an area open to the public (excluding the toilets) within the premises.

29. The Licensee is to implement a policy for the safety of the performers when they leave the premises.

Customers

30. The House Rules regarding customer behaviour will be implemented at all times that the premises are operating with sexual entertainment.

31. No member of the public shall be admitted or allowed to remain in the dance area if they appear to be intoxicated or under the influence of illegal substances.
32. Customers may not be permitted to photograph film or electronically record any performance.

33. Customers shall not be permitted to enter non-public areas of the premises such as changing rooms.

Dear Sirs,

Re: Adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Licensing Regime under Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982

We write with reference to the above and confirm we are instructed on behalf of Whites Brasserie of 32-38 Lehman Street, London, E1 8EW to make further submissions to you in respect of the matter to be determined at the Licensing Committee Hearing on 8th January 2014.

It is our opinion based on the information presently before us that the Extraordinary Meeting of the licensing committee is not constitutional and any decision it makes ultra vires.

The reason for this is that the council licensing committee meeting held on 8th October 2013 resolved not to adopt Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous provisions) Act 1982 as amended by Section 27 of the Police and Crime Act 2009. This decision of the licensing committee is a valid one and properly made.

As you will be aware the cabinet met on the 11th September 2013 and the Mayor resolved to ask the licensing committee to consider whether to adopt Schedule 3 as aforementioned. Please be aware of the decision of the Mayor in the Minutes of the meeting of the 11th September 2013.

Therefore the authority and delegation for the licensing committee to resolve to refuse to adopt has been made via the resolution of the Mayor.

We do not see on any information before us that the Cabinet has met since the 8th October 2013 decision and resolved any other resolution that would in effect ask the licensing committee to consider this matter again. We also note that previously the licensing committee were asked to resolve the matter in its entirety whereas the proposed resolution for the hearing of tonight, 8th January, just asks whether to recommend to full council to resolve and adopt Schedule 3 as aforementioned.
Therefore the licensing committee are being asked to undertake a completely different task in any event and regardless of the adoption or not it would appear that would be a route for which this matter will then proceed to full council. Clearly this course of action has not been resolved by any Cabinet decision that we are aware of.

May we suggest that someone within the local authority, whether it be an officer or a political member, is not happy with decision of 8th October 2013 and wishes for that to be set aside and for the decision to be made again at full council. It is our opinion based on information before us and having regard to the Constitution, that any decision made by the licensing committee tonight would be ultra vires.

We draw your attention to previous correspondence where we set out our view in relation to overturning decisions made by the Council and its committees and the required procedure and signatures required.

Furthermore we are concerned that an Extraordinary Meeting has been called to discuss fee structure and whilst that has been discussed the officer sets out amongst other things that it is an opportunity for members to reconsider their decision of 8th October to refuse to adopt. We say this will be unlawful as the Council's procedure does not allow for other business to be discussed or decided upon at the Extraordinary Meeting.

The suggestion that the licensing committee requested an Extraordinary Meeting to discuss the fee structure for Sexual Entertainment Venues is misconceived because whilst concerns were raised regarding fees they were advised by Paul Greeno solicitor that if they did not choose to adopt Schedule 3 then there would be no need to discuss fees further.

We are surprised of the very short notice given just prior to Christmas and the way in which this matter, being of such importance to our client and many others, of having to respond to such an issue in short notice given the Local Authority as well as most businesses close for an extended period over the holiday period.

In relation to what the committee are being asked to consider this evening notwithstanding the aforementioned comments we say the following:

1. Mr Paul Greeno advised the committee that if they did not adopt Schedule 3 as aforementioned then there would be no requirement to consider the proposed standard conditions and fee structure. Therefore we are surprised that the Local Authority are proceeding to call this Extraordinary Meeting to discuss fee structure when its own Legal Adviser has made it clear that if the matter was not resolved in a positive way then they need not proceed to discuss fees, as the matter falls away in its entirety.
2. The matters raised regards to White Swan remain the same. in other words if it is deemed necessary they would have to apply for a licence had the Local Government (Miscellaneous provisions) Act 1982 as amended by Section 27 of the Police and Crime Act 2009 (Schedule 3) been adopted. The position remains the same that each application would have to be considered on its own merits and in accordance with the Council's own policy at that time. This remains to be the case and we can see no reason why that this matter is being considered again.

3. As mentioned in previous correspondence the main reason in our opinion that two members in particular voted not to resolve was because existing operators would not be assured that their applications would be renewed and having consequences upon their business and secondary trade, for example taxis, restaurants, other services and businesses that support the night time economy. This remains the same and as it was acknowledged by Mr Greco on the night that even though there is a nil policy and exception for those existing businesses to apply, it does not mean those existing businesses will automatically receive a licence and in fact their applications would be judged by the new policy, and could be refused if the premises and its location are in conflict with the Policy which had been adopted by the Cabinet on the 11th September 2013.

We have had the opportunity to read the letter of Jeffrey Green Russell of 6th January and support the comments made within. For the reasons set out above we do not believe that the Cabinet resolved for the licensing committee to consider this evening to recommend to full council to adopt. Furthermore the council has already resolved not to adopt and we can see no lawful reason why that decision should be overturned and we would expect the council to be open and transparent in its dealings and if it is unhappy with the decision made 8th October 2013 then it should say so and start the process again to reconsider the point.

Therefore we do not believe it will be lawful for the licensing committee to reconsider its lawful decision of the 8th October 2013.

We ask that this letter be placed before members of the licensing committee and confirm as previously written our Mr Dadds will be in attendance.

Yours faithfully

Dadd

Importance: High
Dear Mr Tolley

Thank you for indicating that this missive would be circulated to members of the committee prior to the hearing. I confirm that I shall be representing the Nag’s Head 17-19 Whitechapel Road London E1 1DU that has provided nude entertainment at this site since 1982

I have had the benefit of reading my colleague Gareth Hughes’ letter of the 6th January and adopt his representations and would make the following additional comments.

The Agenda papers record that the Council delegated power to the Licensing Committee to decide whether or not to adopt the legislative scheme to licence sexual entertainment in the Borough. The committee decided that, following due process, it should not be adopted.

In an apparent rush to revisit that decision (see para 5.13 page 15), the committee is being asked to consider the appropriate level of fees for the licences that it has decided cannot granted. If the Council wishes the decision to be revisited, due process requires that it should start the process afresh

The agenda papers record that the existing public consultation “must be taken into account” (para 5.8, page 14) but it was flawed and the papers go on to speculate what the result would have been without that flaw. The only way that issue can be resolved is, due process which requires it to consult afresh without that flaw

The agenda papers recite at 1.5 page 5 that “there is currently no control on the number of venues in the Borough” which is not true. The present licensing regime is controlled by the Licensing Act 2003. Any new application can be refused, any change in style of operation can be the subject of Review and revocation, see also paragraph 3.3 page 6 which correctly states that any application for a sexual entertainment licence must be decided “on its merits”. The new regime does not allow councils to refuse licenses on moral grounds

The Nag’s Head has provided sexual entertainment (as defined) under a licence since 1982 and the concerns expressed in relation to the White Swan apply equally here and raise the fundamental issue of the protection of human rights (as defined). The holders of licences are entitled to expect organs of government to protect their property, in this case a license (see Tre Traktorer Aktiebolag v Sweden 1989). Adoption of the new legislation puts that in jeopardy (see White Swan arguments).

Should the committee decide to recommend adoption of the legislation (and it is difficult to understand how it could recommend that given that the Council has delegated the decision to the committee) the Nag’s Head should not have any additional conditions as is proposed by the standard conditions
Should the committee adopt the standard conditions may I suggest that the word "drunk" is substituted for "intoxicated" in condition 31. Most customers where alcohol is sold are intoxicated to some degree, it is only when they become drunk that intervention is required.

The course of conduct or process recommended by the Agenda papers is fundamentally flawed. The strength of argument and the strength of feeling expressed elsewhere, would suggest that, if the legislation is adopted, it will be the subject of costly challenge. The appropriate way for the Council to reconsider its previous decision is not to fudge it as suggested, but to apply due process, give local democracy a fair hearing by re-consultation and armed with that voice of democracy, reconsider the matter afresh with open minds.

Thank you once again for agreeing to circulate this missive.

Dear Mr Tolley

Adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Venue Licensing Regime under Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982

I have been requested by my clients at Metropolis and at Astons (Majingoe) Champagne Bar to make further submissions to you in respect of matters to be determined at the Licensing Committee Hearing on 8 January 2014. I would be grateful if a copy of this letter could be placed in front of members prior to the meeting in the same way as you did on the previous Licensing Committee and Council Meeting Agenda.

I would ask that my two previous letters to the Council and both to the Licensing Committee dated 7 October and to full Council dated 27 November 2013 be included within the correspondence as well.

There are several comments which we would seek further to add with regard to the latest report to the Licensing Committee both in terms of procedure and content.

Procedure

It is submitted that the Licensing Committee on 8 October did not request an Extraordinary Meeting to be held to discuss the proposed fee structure for Sexual Entertainment Venues as is suggested in paragraph 1.1. This was certainly a matter considered at that meeting but, of course, the eventual decision was to reject the proposal altogether so accordingly there would be no requirement for any report back on the fees in circumstances where the Committee had rejected the proposal outright in any event.

It is therefore submitted that there is no lawful basis for this Extraordinary General Meeting because the Committee which sat in October rejected the proposal outright, and the necessity, therefore, to consider fees was rendered obsolete.
In our respectful submission the decision of the Committee on 8 October 2013 must stand as a valid decision. The revised report at paragraph 3.5 recognises that:

"A properly made decision not to adopt the framework legislation to enable licensing of Sexual Entertainment Venues was made (on 8 October 2013)".

Given that the author of the report and the Council's legal advisor clearly take the view that the decision in October was "properly made" no legal authority is presented to the Committee which sets out its status in determining this matter in light of the valid previous decision.

Furthermore, the full Council sought to call in this matter for further consideration in December but this was subsequently withdrawn from its consideration by the Council's legal advisor and monitoring officer. There has therefore been no overriding of the October decision.

The monitoring officer of the Council meeting in December agreed that there was no mechanism for tabling this matter before a meeting of the full Council.

In the new report of this meeting the recommendations are ones which involve further recommendation to full Council. Whilst this may be the correct way of removing a matter such as this into a meeting of a full Council there is still the obstacle in the way of the initial rejection properly determined by the Licensing Committee under delegated authorities on 8 October 2013.

Furthermore, whilst the report states that this Extraordinary Meeting was requested by 8 October 2013 Committee it is to be noted that such an Extraordinary Meeting was only suggested in order to discuss the issue of the proposed fee structure which is made clear in paragraph 1.1. It is did not recommend an Extraordinary Meeting of the Committee in order to discuss the validity of the decision which it was taking to reject the proposals outright on the 8 October. The lawfulness of the Committee meeting to discuss this matter is therefore in question on this ground.

As a further point, we would ask the Committee to note that it apparently has no power in any event to consider the issue of fees in respect of Sexual Entertainment Venue licences under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982.

Paragraph 3.3.7 of the scheme of delegations in the Council's constitution sets out the powers of the Licensing Committee and the Committee can determine fees and charges in respect of a number of licensing consents and approvals for which it already has responsibility.

Paragraph 1, referring to its functions, does not include matters under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 and it is currently therefore unable to make any such recommendation to the full Council.
We would further submit that there is no documented evidence that the 8 October Licensing Committee formally requested an Extraordinary Meeting on the issue of fees. There is no signed Minute of the Meeting of the Licensing Committee on that occasion and it is not clear, therefore, on what basis it is suggested that such an Extraordinary Meeting was sought. In any event, as we have submitted above, no Extraordinary meeting could have been sought in circumstances where the Committee rejected the adoption of the legislation outright.

With specific regard to Extraordinary Meetings of Committees the Council’s constitution sets out clearly the procedure for so doing in Part 4 which is entitled “Rules of Procedure”. Paragraph 3 refers to the calling of Extraordinary Meetings and indicates that this may only be done by the Council or the Chairman of the Council as well as the monitoring officer and any five members of the Council or relevant Committee if they have signed a requisition presented to the Chairman of the Council and he has refused to call a meeting within 7 days of the presentation of the requisition.

There is no reference in the Committee report as to why the meeting is an Extraordinary Meeting other than the suggestion in paragraph 1.1 that the Licensing Committee suggested such a meeting on 8 October 2013. However, that may only be done if 5 members of the relevant committee have signed a requisition which has been presented to the Chairman of Council and the Chairman of Council has refused to call a meeting within 7 days of the presentation of the requisition.

The Council is now put to proof and we request sight of the relevant requisition document signed by 5 members of the Council set out in paragraph 3.1.1 of the Rules and Procedure and the nature of the subject matter contained within the resolution, request or requisition which led to the Extraordinary Meeting being called.

Finally, if the report of the Licensing Committee is correct at paragraph 1.1 and the Extraordinary Meeting has been called in order to discuss the issue of fees then it is clear from the Council’s constitution at paragraph 3.3 of the Rules of Procedure that no other business may be conducted at the Extraordinary Meeting other than that specified in the Resolution which led to its being called. There are clearly other matters set out in the report which officers are seeking the Committee to consider which were not part of the original request of the Extraordinary Meeting which was based upon fees only.

In summary, the Committee may not deliberate on the issue of the adoption of the legislation at this meeting and this is without prejudice to our contention that the adoption was, in any event, rejected at 8 October hearing.

Treatment of Existing Premises

Paragraph 3.9 of the report now acknowledges that there is no guarantee that existing premises would be successful in obtaining licences under an adopted scheme as all applications must be considered on their merits. This was clearly an issue which concerned members of the Committee sitting on 8 October and was one of the reasons why the adoption was rejected. We make the same submissions that we made on that occasion in respect of this point and that is that the legislation should not be adopted in circumstances where operators who have been based in the area in, for example, in the case of the Pleasure Lounge for 40 years without any significant incident should face the removal of its ability to operate in the way it has done for that period of time. All of the premises in question have been subject to annual renewals in the past without incident and have been subject to the Licensing Act 2003 regime which provides for the review of such licences in the event of any breach of conditions.

That reasoning still applies and we would invite Committee members to consider it at their hearing on 8 January 2013.

Fees

Despite further elaboration in the Committee report it is still not made clear precisely how the fees are comprised.

We make the same point as previously set out in the letter to both the Licensing Committee and the full Council, that 210 hours is an excessive amount to be able to spend upon one application with possible enforcement costs added in.

At paragraph 3.17 the report states that times required for overtime in both covert and overt visits are undertaken by two officers. It is presumed that these are the officers listed in the table on page 8 of the report as "licensing officers" and "compliance enforcement visits". However, there is a total number of hours set out at 210 which at one 2 hour visit would add up to over 100 visits per annum when currently operators are experiencing not a single visit per annum.

It is not clear why given the history of the premises for which this firm acts, and their good records, why a licensing enforcement office visit would be required once every 3 days. Even if each visit were between 4 and 5 hours this would still add up to 42 separate visits and this seems vastly excessive in the circumstances. Our clients currently report to us that they are not even aware of one visit per annum.

The processing of the application also appears to be somewhat excessive given that there is built in an estimate of 15 working days at 8 hours a day on administering one application. This would add up to some 120 hours of officer time simply to process an application which again seems vastly excessive. It should also be remembered that all of the premises named are already subject to the Licensing Act 2003 regime meaning that officers will already be aware of those premises and compliance with plans and surveys. In order to maintain their current status as premises licence holders under the Licensing Act 2003 they are under a duty to ensure that the premises are suitable in terms of public safety and if there is any doubt about this then officers will be aware of such matters under the existing regime. This is not a brand new regime where all matters with which officers have to be familiar are new.

It is accepted that officers may have to spend time liaising with applicants and objectors during the consultation process and preparing report for Committee and attending those hearings. However, it is again suggested that the time in this respect is excessive.

At the moment, under the Licensing Act 2003 regime premises pay between £315 and £635 for the renewal of their premises licence.

The figures set out in the recent report represent something like a 2,500% increase on fees compared with those under the 2003 Act.

Accordingly, without prejudice to the argument set out above about the validity of this process, the Committee is invited not to impose fees of this level but at a substantially lower rate.

Consultation

We refer to the points we have previously made in letters to both the Licensing Committee and full Council with regard to the consultation. We invite members to consider the points that we have raised in respect of the consultation in those previous letters. Reference is again made to the “industry” running a campaign. In this case, the “industry” consisted of a handful of local premises licence holders arranging for themselves a doorstep campaign as anyone is titled to do on any issue. No vast amounts of money were spent on this campaign which consisted merely of the voluntary efforts of those in support of the premises in question. In contrast to the 4 or 5 operators in question there has been a significant national campaign with significant financial backing run by both Object and Fawcett Society who have been present in the debate with regard to the adoption of this legislation in nearly all Boroughs where it is being considered. It was entirely open to them, and it is assumed that this has happened, to run their own doorstep campaign.

It is submitted that just under 5,000 responses to a local government consultation is a significant number and one which councillors will have to take seriously into consideration.
The results within the total vote with 97.8% indicating that they do not wish the Act to be adopted in this area is in our submission an overwhelming number.

In paragraph 3.30 it is suggested that the overall consultation represents only a small percentage of those who live and work in the Borough and that it is not possible to know whether those who did not make representations would have supported or were against adoption of the scheme. This would be an argument against having consultation at all on the basis that one could never know how those who did not vote would have voted had they done so. It is submitted that if a local authority decides to consult then it has to take on board the views of the significant number of people who did actually take time to participate in that exercise rather than make assumptions about how the rest of the population might have voted. There is no way of knowing, without a 100% consultation, how those other people would have voted in the circumstances and accordingly this should not be a matter taken into consideration in this context. There is further a reference to the fact that the adoption of a scheme could "facilitate policy interventions that enhance the ability of the Council to limit the impact of SEVs on the community and on particular groups at risk of exploitation" but it does not go on to say what such "policy interventions" might be or who the groups are who are at risk of exploitation. There is no evidence within the report of any group that is exploited or facing exploitation and whilst this may be an argument for the future in terms of subsequent adoption of the legislation it cannot be submitted as an argument here for such issues that might arise at some non-distinct time in the future.

Further reference is made to the proposed policy providing "support" for the continuation of existing premises but it is submitted that this is not what is proposed with that policy. It only indicates that existing operations will not be subject to the nil policy but it does not provide any protection for existing premises who will still be subject to an application process hearing and to representations that may be made. Such representations may persuade Councillors sitting on the Licensing Committee not to grant the Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence.

Finally, there is a reference in paragraph 3.30 of a new licensing regime "limiting the negative impact on local communities brought about by these venues". However, there is no reference at any point in the report to what these "negative impacts" might be. There is no broad concern expressed in the report from any source about the so called "negative impact" on local communities and it is therefore submitted that this is not a ground or a reason for adopting a policy on this occasion.

Finally, paragraph 5.8 which contains the comments on the legal directorate indicates that the consultation which took place on the adoption of the Sex Establishment Licensing Regime is "the more relevant of the two consultation exercises referred to in the report".

It goes on to advise the Council that if it wishes to take a different approach to that expressed in the consultation then there would need to be good reason for that approach and then points out that reasons are set out in the report both for and against. However, we can see no reasons set out in the report for or against the adoption of the legislation and have set out our views in this respect in the above paragraphs.

We would be grateful for the ability to elaborate on these points at the Licensing Committee on 8 January 2014 as we did before 8 October hearing and we would respectfully ask that this letter and two previous letters which we submitted both to the October Licensing Committee and to the full Council are attached to this submission.
6 January 2014

We are grateful for your consideration of these matters.

Kind regards.

Dear Sirs,

Re: Consideration of the adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Venues Licensing Regime in Tower Hamlets

Further to your email of yesterday's date we take the view that there was insufficient time in which to respond fully before 2pm today however we have taken our client's instructions and we are of the view that the decision whether or not to adopt the policy was properly delegated to the Licensing Committee on the 11th September 2013. They have resolved not to adopt the Policy and that is the decision from the resolution of the council.

We would need to reconsider the point on quashing the decision of the council. It is our understanding briefly looking at the Constitution, that there is a mechanism for doing such, however your note suggests this only applies to Full Council and not council meetings. If we are wrong on this point please let us know, i.e. have we misunderstood. We see no provision, or been directed to any decision to allow for the decision to be made again, given the clear democratic rule made by the Licensing Committee.

We note that the council report has not been written in a way that reflects the meeting of the licensing committee. Our Mr Dadds was present along with other solicitors, barrister and members of the public. It was clear, as far as this firm is concerned, that a decision was made.

The salient point why the decision was refused was because there could be no guarantee that the existing trades and business that held a licence would be guaranteed to obtain a new licence. A legal advisor said each application would be made on its own merits subject to policy of the existing Cabinet and there was the possibility that the existing licence may not be reissued and it was that reason in our opinion the two particular members of Committee decided against the resolution.

We ask that this matter be deferred from tonight’s council meeting to allow those who may be affected by the decision time to consider the report and its contents and make appropriate representations if necessary. We remind you that we wrote to the licensing authority on 15th October 2013 asking for an update. We enclose a copy of our letter for your reference. We do not believe it is appropriate that we should be asked to comment and only given short notice of this matter being revisited.

In the absence of the deferral we seek permission from the Speaker of tonight’s meeting to make oral representations and make reference to this letter. Our Mr Dadds could be in attendance if permission is given.

We look forward to hearing from you as a matter of urgency.

Dear Mr Tolley and Councillors

Adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Licensing Regime, Policing and Crime Act 2009

We note that the Council has now been asked to adopt the provisions of Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 in respect of Sexual Entertainment Venues which we understood had been rejected by the Licensing Committee at its meeting in October 2013. Notwithstanding that decision, officers have chosen to bring this matter back to full Council and we would ask the Council to adopt the same view as its delegated Licensing Committee.

We would make the following points about the Report submitted to the full Council meeting, whilst relying on all those points made in our previous letter of 7 October 2013 which was before the Licensing Committee.

1. Fees

1.1. It is still not clear that fees have been properly calculated either mathematically or in accordance with law. The figures set out at 3.9 of the Report to Council are based upon one establishment and add up to £9,000. However, it is not made clear why a licensing officer should take 105 hours to process an application at a cost of £2,625. 105 hours to administer an application for a sexual entertainment venue licence seems excessive and extreme. Further, it is not made clear as to why it is suggested that a further £2,625 is required under the heading "Compliance Visits and Costs". It is suggested at paragraph 3.10 that certain test purchasing monies are required to pay for lap dancing session for licensing officers. The average cost of a 3 minute dance from a dancer is about £20 so it is difficult to see how a licensing officer visiting such a premises would require 130 lap dances before deciding whether there was compliance with or breach of licensing conditions.

1.2. As we made clear in our previous letter to the Licensing Committee in October 2013 the recent case of Heming v Westminster City Council (2013) makes clear that the costs of paying for enforcement are not recoverable by way of a licence fee.

1.3. It is hard therefore, to see how there can be such a dramatic difference in licence fees under the Licensing Act 2003 as those which Tower Hamlets are seeking to impose under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982. The difference is that between what is currently a £600 fee for a premises licence to that which is proposed of a £9,000 fee for an SEV licence.

1.4. The Licensing Committee expressed grave concern over the level of fees and before they rejected the adoption of the Act in their area had asked for a review to be carried out of the fee rates. In our submission, this has not been answered by paragraphs 3.9-3.11.

2. The Consultation

2.1. With regard to the consultation we make the same points that we made in our letter of 7 October 2013 referring to paragraph 3.7, 3.8 and 3.9 of the Licensing Committee Report and would invite the Council to adopt that reasoning.

2.2. In essence, it is inappropriate for Council officers to refer to the fact that the participation in the democratic process has somehow "undermined the consultation". Anyone in the United Kingdom has the right to canvass for support for a particular proposition which stands to be decided in front of a Council Committee or for that matter Parliament. There has certainly been a coordinated campaign run by members of Object and the Fawcett Society society to adopt the provisions of the Act and it was entirely open to those who wished to support the adoption of the Act to themselves canvass local residents to ascertain their views. In this particular incident a decision was taken by the very concerned operators of establishments which have been located in this Borough for many years to conduct a door to door campaign to see how people felt about the adoption of the Act. They obtained responses and submitted these responses with the agreement of all parties to the Council as part of the process.

2.3. A point was raised in the Licensing Committee that 4,973 respondents opposing the policy was a fraction of the total population of Tower Hamlets, and whilst this may have been true it is a fraction which is far in excess of the minuscule total in comparison that supported the adoption of the Act, namely 108 people.
2.4. It is totally denied, therefore, that the inappropriate remarks contained within the Report about a campaign which has produced a significant number of people opposed to the policy which officers seek to introduce has somehow skewed the process. In our submission it should inform the process and the nearly 5,000 people who oppose the adoption of the Act within the London Borough of Tower Hamlets will clearly be monitoring the Council Committee meeting to see if their views are taken into account. The officers within paragraph 3.15 seek to compare a consultation on the adoption of the Act within the London Borough to a consultation which took place on the adoption of the Policy. However, that consultation was evenly split and give or take the differentials could have resulted in a majority against the adoption of the Policy.

2.5. It should be pointed out that the individual operators within Tower Hamlets carried out the same exercise with regard to the adoption of the Policy as they did with regard to the adoption of the 1982 Act. It is interesting to note that officers do not suggest that the results have somehow been skewed in that particular case which appears to be inconsistent thinking.

2.6. In any event, a survey on the adoption of the Policy is a very different survey to one on the adoption of the Act. It might be assumed that people thinking about the adoption of the Policy may already assume that the Act has been adopted and that therefore there would have to be a policy of some nature operating underneath that Act. It is then open for people to say that if there has to be a Policy because the Act has been adopted then there will be a greater percentage of support for that Policy given that some form of policy is to be introduced in any event.

3. Further reason for Licensing Committee Decision

3.1. There is a singular omission in the Report to Council Committee which is that there was a third reason why the Licensing Committee chose not to adopt the 1982 Act and that is that members were concerned, by a majority, that there was still no guarantee that the existing operators, many of whom have been in the Borough for decades, would retain their licences under the new system.

3.2. Whilst officers make clear in the Report that existing operators will not be subject to the "Nil" Policy that is no guarantee that Sexual Entertainment Venue Licences will be granted to those operators. It merely exempts them from one part of the policy. This was of significant concern to some of the members on the Licensing Committee and it was this that eventually led to the dismissal of the option to adopt.

3.3. Accordingly, paragraph 2.5 of the Report to Council is misleading when it suggests that the Policy "supports the continued operation of existing premises including The White Swan." The Policy singularly does not support the continued operation of the existing premises but merely indicates that they should be exempt from the "Nil" Policy. That is not, a guarantee of their continued existence under the new regime. Given that this is a significant risk the operators for which this firm acts would oppose the adoption of the Act within the Borough.

3.4. It is clear that to date the premises for which this firm acts, namely Majingos and Metropolis, have operated without any issues or intervention from the Police or the Local Authority in many years, and that they are well controlled by way of conditions under the premises licence already in existence granted to them under the Licensing Act 2003.

This completes the further submissions that we would make on behalf of our clients in respect of the adoption of the 1982 Act by full Council, and we would ask that members take these matters into account as well as those which we still seek to rely upon set out in our letter of 7 October 2013, a copy of which is also attached.

We would respectfully ask that this letter be placed before members prior to the meeting of Full Council on 27 November 2013.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sirs,

Re: Sexual Entertainment Licensing

We write further to the Council Licensing Committee Meeting held on 8th October 2013, where it was resolved not to adopt Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

Please confirm what steps, if any, our client will need to undertake following the above decision, also please confirm if this concludes matters for this municipal year?

We look forward to hearing from you

Dear Mr Tolley,

Adopting the Sexual Entertainment Licensing Regime, Policing and Crime Act 2009

I refer to the report which is due to go to Licensing Committee on the evening of 8 October 2013, and would indicate here that we would, given, the Chairman’s leave, intend to say a few words about the adoption of this policy to that Committee on Tuesday evening.

However, in the meantime, we would be grateful if you could kindly forward to the Chairman and members some further comments about the report which is drafted, and which will be before them at the Hearing.

As you know, this firm acts for the Pleasure Lounge, known as the Metropolis in Cambridge Heath Road, and for the Majingos Club in Canary Wharf. Both premises have operated as lap dancing venues for a number of years and the Metropolis, in particular, has operated as a dancing venue, and striptease club for decades, and since at least the 1970s.

We have already made our views known as part of the submissions to the consultation exercise which took place with regard to the adoption of the Act, and would refer the Committee to those submissions and we trust that they will be before it on Tuesday evening.

However, we make the following comments on the Report with specific regard to referenced numbered paragraphs within the Report as follows:

Paragraph 3.7

It is indicated that the consultations hosted online on the Council’s website and paper copies would be provided if requested. This is not the case insofar as our client’s experiences is concerned, or that of the campaign team who found it almost impossible to find paper copies even when asking Council officers, and eventually had to run off copies of the online screens in order to act as the questionnaire. We also pointed to the Council, on several occasions during the consultation process, that only one reply could be sent from one computer. This prevented, for example, groups of people in residential care homes or old people’s homes who may all have wished to respond to a consultation but could not do so because the computer in their place of residence only allowed for one reply. This problem was highlighted during the consultation process to Council officers by my firm. Copies of the relevant emails are available for inspection by the Committee.

Paragraph 3.8

This paragraph asserts that whilst 4,973 responses were received, some 1,400 forms were received from a single sexual entertainment premises within the Borough. In our submission, this is perfectly acceptable. It is true that a campaign was formed in order to illicit support for the venues arguments that the provisions of the 1982 Act should not be adopted in the Borough. The 1,400 forms collected from the premises were signed by people who either lived in the area or visited the premises regularly. The consultation process did not distinguish between those who lived in the area and those who did not, so there can be nothing wrong with the submission of 1,400 forms from individuals who were interested in responding to this consultation survey.

Paragraph 3.9

There is a reference in this paragraph to the fact that “it is probable” that some of the sexual entertainment venues have coordinated a response to the consultation. It is not probable – it is true. As we have indicated previously, at least three or four of the venues in this area felt under threat after decades of operation, and decided amongst themselves to mount a doorstep campaign which is perfectly legitimate in a democratic society in order to gather support to place before elected decision makers. Paragraph 3.9 seems to suggest that the coordination of the response is to such an extent that it has undermined the consultation as being one that can provide an accurate picture of wider community opinion.

It is unclear what is meant by this statement.

Leaving aside the 1,400 forms returned from one of the premises (which we still say should be included within the consultation) there are still left some 3,500 responses, all of which indicate that the provisions of the 1982 Act should not be adopted in the Borough. These responses have been raised as a result of a doorstep campaign as is perfectly proper and mounted by three of the four premises operating in the Borough. It is not clear why it is suggested that this has somehow “undermined the consultation” when, in fact, it can only serve to support the consultation given the numbers that have taken part. It was perfectly legitimate for those who supported the introduction of the legislation in the Borough to mount their own campaign and indeed Object the campaign group has been a vociferous part of the debate within the Borough. They were perfectly entitled also to mount a doorstep campaign in the same way as our clients, and in the same way as any other campaign group concerned about any other issue in which the Council is involved. It is all part and parcel of the legitimate process of persuading Councillors by gathering in public opinion.

In our submission, it is not open to the Council to somehow assume what the "wider community opinion" is in this respect when the response to the consultation has been quite enormous and far more substantial than to many Council consultations that would normally take place where one may be lucky if one received a handful of replies.

Paragraph 3.9 also goes on to suggest that these results are in contrast to the community response received at the Council's consultation exercise on the adoption of the policy. However, the consultants used by the Council in scrutinising the results of that consultation came to the view that there was a 50:50 split on the adoption of the policy allowing for a plus or minus variation in numbers. It is incorrect to suggest, as this paragraph does, that there was a 52% vote in support of the policy and a 48% vote against it. The SMSR Report commissioned by the Council to analyse the results of the consultation indicated that there was a sampling error of approximately plus/minus 2% in the figures, and that, accordingly, their conclusion was that, insofar as the nil sexual establishment policy was concerned, opinion was split. They conclude that the survey has produced an inconclusive split result.

While it is correct to say in the report that, in one case, 75% of consultees were in favour of aspects of the sexual establishment policy, it must be pointed out that this figure only relates to the delineation of localities within the policy. An expression in favour of the manner in which the Council has defined the localities contained within the policy is clearly not an expression in favour of the policy itself as the figures reflect in the 50:50 split. In our submission that 75% figure should not be used as a reason for adopting the legislation which is the concern of this Report. That figure arose in the context of the adoption of a policy.

It is not agreed that the results obtained on the Sexual Entertainment Policy Consultation are in contrast necessarily to those obtained on the adoption of the legislation consultation. It would be quite open for someone to suggest that the legislation ought not to be adopted but then to take a different view on the question of whether, if it is adopted, the policy suggested is the right one. It does not necessarily follow that because 98% of respondents were against the adoption of legislation that 98% of respondents should be against the proposed policy.

In our submission, there is therefore no inconsistency with regard to the consultation on the adoption of the legislation. A full, and proper, democratic exercise has been carried out with which the Council has found no fault. There is no allegation by Council officers, nor should there be, that there has been any wrong doing in the gathering in of support. As indicated above, it is a perfectly correct exercise in a democratic society that proponents of particular arguments on either side may approach members of the public to gauge their support. The response is not misleading or inaccurate if 98% of respondents take a particular view and only 2% take the opposite view.

Accordingly, it is clear to those making this submission that, in the absence of any other indications to the contrary, the Council should take on board the views of nearly 5,000 of its own residents or 3,500 of its residents (if one excludes the 1,400 forms from the venue) which is still an enormous majority against the adoption of the legislation.

Paragraph 3.10

The paragraph fairly states what we have set out in our submissions above. That it is for elected members to determine whether a campaign which involves knocking on doors to obtain support for a particular view is legitimate or illegitimate in a democratic society. It is clear that elected politicians, during elections, do exactly the same in order to obtain votes for their own parties on the basis of the attractiveness of the policies offered, and elected members will readily recognise this legitimate function. The same is also true of those who choose to campaign on particular issues whether it be, for example, the closure of a local hospital, the abolition of a school bus service, or a planning development located near to a particular group of residents. All of these issues would engender concerns, both for and against, amongst members of the community, and it would be perfectly valid for those on either side of the argument to gather in support for those arguments. This is exactly the case with regard to the adoption of the provisions of the 1982 Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act.

Whilst it is true that a strong “no” response does not prevent adoption by the elected members, and it is perfectly legitimate for them to find in the alternative, it must be right that such a substantial response of 4,973 responses, as set off against 108 in favour of the policy, should weigh heavily in elected members decisions. It is clear, that certainly 3,500 of those submitting submissions are local residents who will be keen to test whether elected members come to a view fairly based upon what those individuals have expressed in consultation and will bear this in mind during Council elections in 2014. That is the democratic process.

Paragraph 3.11

We are told in paragraph 3.10 that a strong “no” response does not prevent adoption if there remain good reasons for the regulation of sexual entertainment venues.
However, it is submitted that paragraph 3.11 and 3.12 do not go on to provide those “good reasons”. Paragraph 3.11 merely says that the scheme gives local people a greater say over venues in their area. However, it is clear that many of the venues have been operating for many years in Tower Hamlets without causing any problems to the local community, and there has not been, over the last 40 years operation of the Metropolis in Cambridge Heath Road, any individuals coming forward to say that the premises should not be in this area. All premises are well controlled already under the Licensing Act 2003, and are subject to strict conditioning about the performances that take place at the premises and the conduct of both dancers and customers. The Police have not expressed any concerns with regard to crime and disorder that is often alleged outside any of the premises and there is no great well of opinion that would demonstrate that, under the Licensing Act 2003, any of these premises are causing any of the problems set out by objectors.

Paragraph 3.11 simply asserts that there are “negative impacts on local communities brought about by these venues” but does NOT provide any evidence of what those negative impacts are. There has certainly been no great campaign over many, many years from members of the public demonstrating against the existence of the current licensed premises, setting out what are the “negative impacts on their local communities”. The Council is invited to list these negative impacts. A mere assertion that there are such impacts is, in our submission and before the adoption of legislation, insufficient.

Members are invited to consider the evidence of what it is alleged are the “negative impacts” on the local communities in reaching this decision. It is submitted by this firm that there is no such evidence presented in this Report that could persuade members to run counter to the expressed views of almost 5,000 people in that area.

Paragraph 4.1

This paragraph relates to the fees of £9,000 per application as set out in the Appendix to the Report. However, it is not clear how this figure is to be comprised, and the Council will be aware of the recent decision involving Westminster City Council and Hemmings which was decided in the Court of Appeal, which indicated that costs of enforcement could not be recovered under this heading and that it was in fact only the cost of the administration of the licence application system that could be so recovered. The Appendix to the Report does not set out the basis upon which the figure of £9,000 is worked out, and it is, therefore, submitted that without that detailed explanation of how the figures are comprised the licensing committee run the risk of falling foul of the Hemmings decision in seeking to recover monies in respect of which there is no right of recovery.
We would be grateful if these submissions could be placed before the members of the Committee prior to, or at the hearing, on Tuesday evening. We would also seek an opportunity of a few minutes to present such arguments before that Committee.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely

1. APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE

Apologies for absence were submitted on behalf of the following Members:

§ Councillor David Edgar § Councillor Marc Francis
§ Councillor Md.Maium Miah
§ Councillor Joshua Peck

Apologies for lateness were submitted on behalf of Councillor Denise Jones.

2. DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST

There were no declarations of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests.

The Chair declared a personal interest in that she had received multiple representations regarding agenda item 4.1 – “Adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Licensing Regime, Policing and Crime Act 2009”, specifically in favour of adopting the new regime, although she had also received some representations against its adoption. However, whilst noting the representations her opinion had not been influenced by them.

Councillor Peter Golds declared a personal interest in the same agenda item on the basis that he would be speaking in favour of the White Swan Public House, 556 Commercial Road, and had visited the premises on occasion.

3. MINUTES

RESOLVED

That the minutes of the Licensing Committee meeting held on 4 June 2013 be confirmed and signed as a correct record by the Chair.

4. ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION

The Chair indicated that the order of business of the meeting would be varied so as to consider agenda item 4.4 after item 4.2. However, for ease of reference the order of business in these minutes remains as set out on the original agenda.

4.1 Adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Licensing Regime, Policing and Crime Act 2009

At the request of the Chair, David Tolley, Head of Consumer and Business Regulations, introduced the report requesting the Committee to adopt Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009, which would allow the licensing of sexual entertainment venues (SEVs) and bring into effect the policy for control of sexual entertainment premises as adopted by Cabinet on 11 September 2013.

Mr Tolley pointed out that 11 existing businesses held premises licences under the Licensing Act 2003 with permissions that would be affected by the adoption of the SEV legislation and these businesses could submit applications to operate under the new legislation. Such licences would be reviewed annually.

The Chair indicated that she would allow two persons, who had requested speaking rights, to address the Committee. The speakers would be allowed three minutes each, in line with the time limits for speaking at full Council meetings.

Gareth Hughes, speaking on behalf of Aston's Champagne and Wine Bar, 187 Marsh wall, London, E14 9SH, stated that supporters of the premises had experienced difficulties during the consultation on SEV legislation in obtaining paper copies of documents to allow representations. There had also been problems in sending electronic representations from premises where there was only one computer.

Mr Hughes added that the report indicated that 4,973 responses had been received, with 1,400 being submitted from one establishment in the Borough. However, his Clients considered this perfectly acceptable as the forms garnered were signed by local residents or people who visited the premises regularly. This also meant that some 3,500 responses had been received indicating that the SEV regulations should not be adopted and these had been raised as a result of a doorstep campaign by premises operating in the Borough. He made the point that supporters of the SEV legislation (the group "Object") had also led their own campaign in favour of adopting the legislation. He expressed the view that the amount of replies submitted supported non-adoption of the legislation and there had been no hint of foul play in conducting the campaign. There had been no abuse of the consultation process and the Committee should take account of the resulting outcome. Whilst the "no" response did not prevent the Committee from adopting the SEV legislation, there was no evidence to suggest it should be adopted.

David Dadds, speaking on behalf of White's Gentleman's Club, 32-38 Leman Street, London, E1 8EW, stated that he supported all the previous speaker's comments and felt that the Officer request in the report to support adopting the legislation was an undemocratic approach, as the Committee should take account of the results of consultation and give this appropriate weight. In addition, there was an issue relating to staff and job protection, as some 2,000 people in the Borough were employed by establishments affected by the legislation. Businesses should not have to apply annually for licences, as proposed if the new regime were adopted. Mr Dadds expressed concern that the SEV policy had already been adopted and there could be pre-determination of the matter accordingly. He referred to the Chair's remarks that she had not been unduly influenced by representations and asked whether the Committee might have been influenced by the policy.
The Chair stated that it was not unusual for councillors to receive representations from residents on many issues. She had received representations from both sides of the argument but this had not influenced her responsibilities under the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Paul Greeno, Senior Advocate, legal Services, added that the SEV policy had been adopted by Cabinet but none of the Licensing Committee was a Cabinet Member and it was confirmed that none had spoken in favour of the legislation at the Cabinet meeting.

The Chair then invited Members to put questions to the speakers, who responded that:

- The consultation representations were very significant in that almost 5,000 people felt aggrieved enough by the proposals to say that the legislation should not be adopted. This far outweighed the number in favour.
- No specific details of claimed negative impact of the premises affected by the SEV legislation had been given.
- The Cabinet report had raised concerns over women's safety but contained no further details and the current Licensing Act provisions provided satisfactory regulation of licensed premises.

The Chair invited Members to put questions to Officers, who responded that:

- There had been initial problems in the consultation problem with no more than one response being allowed from any individual computer. However, people had been advised that paper documents were available and the computer bar had been removed later. No complaints had been received from retirement home or care home residents in this connection.
- There was no way of knowing whether responses had been made by Tower Hamlets residents.
- The consultation had contained no reference to adverse impacts of SEV premises and simply asked whether or not the legislation should be adopted.
- The Committee was not obliged to follow the results of the public consultation but must be satisfied in their own minds that it would be appropriate to adopt the SEV legislation. There could be challenge by judicial review, should the legislation be adopted and this could eventually be referred to the European Court of Appeal. However, a decision not to adopt could likewise be challenged.

Councillor Peter Golds asked why the White Swan Public House was included as a SEV establishment as it provided no entertainment such as lap dancing or pole dancing. An amateur strip night was held once per week and people disrobed to their underwear – this was simply burlesque. Like many gay venues in the Borough, the White Swan was experiencing hard times and the proposed £9,000 annual licence fee could put it out of business. The inclusion of the White Swan in this legislation had elicited a world-wide response.
Mr Tolley commented that this pub had been included with all premises that had existing licences containing the provision for regulated sexual entertainment. All such premises would be assessed to see whether they would be covered by the SEV regime. If it were determined that they were not covered, they would only be monitored as usual. There would be an all-encompassing process to examine whether businesses were affected by the legislation and the White Swan was included in this process due to the terms of its current licence.

Councillor Golds expressed concern that the consultation procedure had been launched originally at the London Mosque, where there was unlikely to much favour for SEV establishments. He felt that the White Swan should be excluded from the SEV policy as it was by no means such a venue. There had never been any complaints about the premises made by responsible authorities or residents during its existence for the best part of a quarter of a century. It was being put forward to be included in the policy on the basis of an event lasting about an hour and a half each Wednesday night. The White Swan was one of the last gay venues in the Borough and he was convinced that the SEV policy would put it out of business. There had been discussions about the premises a year and a half ago and he could not understand why it was included unless due to latent homophobia.

Mr Tolley replied that relevant conditions were already on the premises licence but if sexual entertainment were not offered, it would not be included in the proposed new regime.

Mr Greeno added that the Committee did not have the remit to decide the SEV policy, which had already been decided by Cabinet, but had to consider whether or not to adopt the legislation under which the policy could be implemented. The Committee could not place any premises outside the SEV policy and Officers would have to carry out an assessment to determine whether or not the White Swan was included in that policy.

Councillor Peter Golds then proposed a motion, seconded by Councillor David Snowdon: “That the White Swan Public House be excluded from the proposed SEV policy.”

The motion was put to the vote and was agreed unanimously. The Chair indicated that she would confer with Councillor Golds on how best to bring this decision before full Council.

Discussion then ensued on the proposed level of SEV licence fees, with Councillor David Snowdon asking how the proposed £9,000 fee had been decided.

Mr Tolley replied that this had been benchmarked with other London Councils who already operated the SEV regime. The fee included compliance time, incorporating premises visits and assessing applications, legal costs and bringing such matters to committee. This was a new fee and could be reviewed, including a downward adjustment. There was a potential for work equivalent to an additional one to one-and-a-half full time posts. In response to queries, Mr Tolley added that the current liquor licensing fee was in the region of £300.

Councillor Khales Ahmed felt that an increase from £300 to £9,000 could not be justified, especially when there had only been 5,000 consultation responses, and felt that there should be a cap on the 11 SEV premises which were proposed and these should be excluded from the new policy. If this were done, an annual licence review should not be needed.

The Chair commented that the SEV policy would have the effect of applying a cap and the annual review was required by the new legislation.

Members put forward the view that the proposed fee was very high compared to other annual fees that were already charged and no financial analysis was contained in the report to justify this. Mr Tolley referred to his previous comments on matters that had been taken into consideration in deciding the licence fee and stated that benchmarking showed that the proposal was about on parity with neighbouring local authorities that had adopted the policy. The Licensing Committee could review the fee annually and the next review would allow more details of the elements comprising it.

The Chair indicated that a decision on the actual licence fee could be deferred but this would have an impact on the start date for the SEV policy and would potentially require an extraordinary meeting of the Committee. If there were to be further discussion on the proposed fee, members were not best placed to try and set an alternative amount at this meeting.

Councillor David Snowdon proposed a motion, seconded by Councillor Peter Golds: “That any decision on a fee level for a SEV licence be deferred for consideration at an extraordinary meeting of the Licensing Committee to be held prior to a Licensing Sub-Committee this year and contain details of a breakdown of related costs and the outcome of the benchmarking process.”

The motion was put to the vote and was agreed unanimously.

The Chair indicated that she would confer with Officers on how best to proceed with the matter and added that it would be necessary to hold extraordinary meetings within the next few weeks to allow a policy implementation date of 1 January 2014.

Councillor Rajib Ahmed referred to the earlier comments of Councillor Khales Ahmed relating to the capping of the number of premises allowed by excluding the 11 premises mentioned in the report. Mr Greeno stated that it would not be possible to adopt new legislation whilst excluding some premises that were affected. He added that, if the Committee did not adopt the legislation, SEV licensing would not apply in Tower Hamlets and premises would continue to be regulated under existing Licensing Act provisions.

The Chair then put to the vote the Officer recommendation to adopt Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009, whilst excluding a decision on the licence fee to be charged.

On being put to the vote, with three votes for and four against, it was –

RESOLVED

That the Officer recommendation in the report to adopt Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009, be NOT AGREED.

The Chair indicated that the report, therefore, fell.

At the request of the Chair, David Tolley, Head of Consumer and Business Regulations, introduced the report advising Members of a review that had taken place regarding licence fees that could be set locally and proposing revised levels thereto.

After a short discussion, it was unanimously –

RESOLVED

1. That the fee for Massage and Special Treatment Fees be increased by RPIX 3.1%.

2. That the fee for both a new application and an application for Renewal for Intense Pulse Light laser treatment shall be £500.

3. That the fee for a Betting Shop Licence shall be £500.

4. That the fee for an Adult Gaming Centre Licence shall be £650.

5. That all fees are non refundable once an application has been submitted due to the commencement of processing the licence.

6. That, where a business operates a selection of beauty treatments, only the higher fee is payable.

7. That these fees will commence on the 1st November 2013 and will apply to all new and renewed licences applications received from on or after that date.
4.3 Licensing Act 2003 - Responsible Authorities

The Chair indicated that a document from the Metropolitan Police had been provided for the meeting on a restricted basis and might result in Members asking follow-up questions of the Police in the next few days. Inspector Kevin Wheeden confirmed that Members could retain the paper but asked that its contents be regarded as confidential.

In introducing the report, David Tolley, Head of Consumer and Business Regulations, indicated that relevant Service Heads and Metropolitan Police representatives were in attendance to provide details of the evidential basis on which representations or reviews were brought to the Licensing Sub-Committee.

The Chair then invited those present to address the Committee.

Inspector Wheeden commented that his report showed that:

§ 500 calls complaining of anti-social behaviour were being made each week, although these were not necessarily related to licensed premises.

§ A tri-borough partnership was being set up to include the Tower Hamlets wards of Spitalfields & Banglatown and Weavers. This was currently in the planning stage. He invited suggestions for the best way to present information so as to be of most use to councillors.

§ Theft from the person cases in those wards were very high and much of this related to licensed premises.

§ A monthly licensing visit was undertaken, that included all licensed premises, not only liquor licences. Checks were made that numbers SIA staff were provided in accordance with licence requirements.

Andrew Weaver, Service Head Environmental Protection, presented the information contained in the circulated agenda pack and stated that a 10 year database was available concerning complaints and requests for intervention. When a new application was received, its management plan was examined and Members advised accordingly.

Chris Lovitt, Associate Director of Public Health, presented the information contained in the circulated agenda pack and added that, whilst only the Director of Public Health was able to make representations, bodies such as Barts NHS Trust were invited to make contributions. He added that:

§ Health was not yet a licensing objective, with its closest link being to the public safety objective.

§ London Ambulance Service data around binge drinking callouts was provided in the report, showing a substantial increase over the last year. LBTH had the 5th highest such callout of all London Boroughs and all wards except four had higher such callouts than the average in England.

§ The service was looking at means of highlighting possible problems such as the situation of licensed premises near homeless hostels and the NHS was very supportive of the saturation policy around the Brick Lane area.
Kathy Driver, Principal Licensing Officer, presented the information contained in the circulated agenda pack and indicated that:

§ Her service acted to provide evidence at such time as licence reviews were triggered and it was unlikely they would object to a licence unless another Responsible Authority did so. However, more activity was expected as the saturation policy came into play.

§ Operation Dimmock was an enforcement operation that had started in August this year and targeted instances of complaints from residents and other Responsible Authorities.

The Chair commented that she was particularly interested in noise complaints against pub and takeaways and was staggered by the incidence of such report in the Bow East ward, which had relatively few such premises. She felt that it would be helpful to differentiate between domestic and other premises.

Replies to questions from Members, included the following Officer comments:

§ The location of the Shoreditch triangle resulted in drunken people from other areas entering Tower Hamlets.

§ Operation Dimmock used Officers from other services for test purchases, etc., as Licensing staff were well known locally.

§ Premises selling food were almost exempt from framework hours and any proposal for policy change in this respect would need to be heavily evidence-based.

The Chair then thanked those present for their contributions to the report.

4.4 Legal Review

At the request of the Chair, Paul Greeno, Senior Advocate, Legal Services, introduced the first quarterly report setting out details of prosecutions and appeals relating to licensing enforcement activity.

The Chair thanked Mr Greeno for the information provided.

Councillor Golds thanked Mr Greeno particularly for information regarding 93 Feet East, which demonstrated that decisions made by members at Licensing Sub-Committee were fully justified.

RESOLVED

That the report be noted.

5. ANY OTHER BUSINESS THAT THE CHAIR CONSIDERS URGENT

§ Councillor Joshua Peck
2. DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST

There were no declarations of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests.

3. ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION

3.1 Consideration of the Adoption of the Sexual Entertainment Licensing Regime, Policing and Crime Act 2009 - Update

At the request of the Chair, David Tolley, Head of Consumer and Business Regulations, introduced the report and explained that the Licensing Committee on 8th October 2013, had requested for an extraordinary meeting to be held to discuss the proposed fees structure for Sexual Entertainment Venues (SEV). It was noted that the report covered a cost analysis of the fees structure and gave the Licensing Committee the option of reconsidering its decision not to adopt the legal framework to licence sexual entertainment venues by proposing recommendations to Full Council.

It was noted that the issues which were of concern were the exclusion of the White Swan Public House from the Sexual Entertainment Policy, the reconsideration of the fees and not to adopt the framework legislation to permit a licensing regime for SEVs.

It was further noted that there was no specific licensing regime in place for SEV’s and therefore there is currently no control on the number of venues permitted in the Borough. Mr Tolley explained that 11 existing businesses held premises licences under the Licensing Act 2003 with permissions that would be affected by the adoption of the SEV legislation and these businesses could submit applications to operate under the new legislation and such licences would be reviewed annually.

It was noted that venues including the White Swan as an existing operator would benefit from the exemption of the “nil limit” provided for existing premises in the SEV policy. Mr Tolley stated that it was not possible to withdraw or waiver the White Swan from the policy. However it would benefit from the nil limit as an existing premises.

Mr Tolley then explained the breakdown of the £9000 fee and detailed the costs in relation to compliance visits. He explained that the Council must determine its fees on a cost recovery basis so comparison with fees in other boroughs was not a relevant consideration. However it was noted that compared to 13 other London boroughs there was 5 boroughs charging below Tower Hamlets and 8 boroughs charging higher than Tower Hamlets ranging from £10,000 - £22,523.
Mr Tolley concluded by highlighting the consultation process that took place and was noted that the overall consultation response represented only a small percentage of those who worked and lived in the borough.

The Chair indicated that he would allow three persons, who had requested speaking rights, to address the Committee. The speakers were allowed three minutes each, in line with the time limits for speaking at full Council meetings.

Mr Gareth Hughes, speaking on behalf of Metropolis and Aston's Champagne and Wine Bar, stated that the decision made at the previous Licensing Committee on 8th October 2013 was a valid decision and still stands, he explained that there had been an attempt to take to take a report to full Council on this matter, which was withdrawn on the night due to legalities.

Mr Hughes questioned the procedure and process which was followed to call the extraordinary meeting as he believed that an extraordinary meeting was not requested at the previous meeting and that the consideration of fees did not allow discussion for the adoption of the legislation. He concluded by asking Members to consider his previous concerns stated in his representations.

Mr David Dadds, speaking on behalf of White's Gentleman's Club, stated that he supported all comments made by the previous speaker. He highlighted the findings from the consultation process and expressed concerns around the fees. He stated that a decision was made on 8th October 2013 not to adopt the legislation and this was valid.

Mr Dadds believed to have had concerns of pre-determination as this meeting was to re-visit the previous decision and to re-open that decision to reconsider the option to adopt the legislation.

Members then heard from Mr Julian Skeens, representing Nag's Head, he also supported the comments made by his colleague Mr Gareth Hughes and added that the agenda papers recorded that Council had delegated power to the Licensing Committee to decide whether or not to adopt the legislative scheme to licence sexual entertainment in the Borough and the Committee had decided that following due process it should not be adopted, therefore the decision was valid.

The Chair then invited Members to put questions to the speakers. There were no questions for the speakers.

The Chair asked Mr Paul Greeno, Senior Advocate to provide legal advice to Members in response to the concerns raised. Mr Greeno explained that issues had been raised in relation to the lawfulness of the Licensing Committee in considering this matter.

It had been stated that the Licensing Committee on 8th October 2013 did not request an extraordinary meeting. This was not correct. He explained that the extraordinary meeting had not been called as a result of that request. It had been called by the Monitoring Officer. This was following the report that was to go to full Council on 27th November 2013. That report was pulled and following that, the Monitoring Officer advised that a report be re-submitted to full Council dealing with the same matters raised in the full Council report but via an extraordinary meeting of the Licensing Committee.

In respect of calling of an Extraordinary Meeting, Mr Greeno stated that Part 4 of the Council's Constitution set out the Rules of Procedure and which includes the Council Procedure Rules. Paragraph 3.1 of those Rules lists those persons who can request an Extraordinary Meeting. This list is to be read disjunctively as opposed to conjunctively. Paragraph 3.1.3 referred to the Monitoring Officer and the Chair. Following the Monitoring Officer's advice, contact was made with the Chair of the Licensing Committee and he had been advised that The Chair was happy for an extraordinary meeting to be called to consider this matter.

As the Monitoring Officer and the Chair were engaged in the context of the pulled report to full Council then the business on the agenda was not just restricted to merely fees and charges. Further as the Monitoring Officer and Chair were involved there is no need for a requisition document to be signed by five Members of the Council.

It was correct that the mechanism of calling the meeting was not addressed within the report but it was not realised that this was an issue until the representations were received.

It has also been stated that the Licensing Committee had no power to deal with the matters in the report. This was incorrect. Part 3 of the Council's Constitution deals with responsibility of functions and 3.1.1.2B provides for Licensing and Registration Functions. Paragraph 15 provides that the functions under The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, section 2 and schedule 3 have been delegated to the Licensing Committee.

Part 3.7.7 sets out the Terms of Reference of the Licensing Committee and paragraph 4 gives to the Licensing Committee the power to determine fees and charges for the issue, approval, consent, license, permit or other registration for functions for which the Committee has responsibility. Pursuant to Part 3.1.1.2B paragraph 15, this is a function for which the Licensing Committee has responsibility.

Given the matters for which the Committee has responsibility it is reasonable for the Committee to be consulted before a report is then presented to full Council.

As to the fact that the Licensing Committee previously decided not to adopt the framework legislation does not stop the Committee from considering this matter afresh. A decision not to adopt a regime, or not to take some other administrative action, is not binding in the sense that the Council is stopped from revisiting it. At the end of the day, all Members are being asked to do is recommend to full Council and it will be for full Council to take the final decision whether to adopt.
As to the reasons why Members made their decision on the last occasion, as members did not give reasons for their decision (and are not required to do so) to suggest what was in Members minds when they made the decision is speculation. At the end of the day, Members were entitled to consider the matter afresh.

Mr Greeno concluded that there was no need for the matter to go firstly to the Mayor in Cabinet. The decision to adopt and in relation to fees and conditions was a non-executive function and as to notice of the meeting, the statutory time limits were met.

The Chair invited Members to put questions to Officers, who responded that:

- The Licensing Committee was not making a decision but had the option to refer recommendations to Full Council.
- That the minutes of the meeting held on 8th October 2013 would be available on the agenda of the Full Licensing Committee meeting scheduled for 11th March 2014.
- That case law provided that one could look forward in relation to fees that would be needed therefore the costs of monitoring an applicant’s continued suitability can be included in the calculation for the fee for the licence.
- That costs for compliance can often be very costly as test purchases were necessary.
- That the proposed fee had been benchmarked with other London Councils who already operated the SEV regime. The fee included compliance time, incorporating premises visits and assessing applications, legal costs and bringing such matters to committee. This was a new fee and could be reviewed.

On being put to the vote, with five votes for and one vote against, it was –

RESOLVED

1. That Full Council is recommended that Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, as amended, shall apply in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets with regards to sexual entertainment venues.

2. That Full Council is recommended that the said Schedule 3 shall apply in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets from 31st March 2014, with regard to sexual entertainment venues.

3. That the proposed Standard Conditions for Sexual Entertainment Venues set out in Appendix 2 of the report is recommended to Full Council.
4. That the Sexual Entertainment Fee Structure set out in Appendix 3 of the report is recommended to Full Council.

5. That the Sex Establishment Licensing Policy set out in Appendix 1 be noted and applied in the application of Schedule 3 in London Borough of Tower Hamlets and supports continued operation of existing premises.

Is the policy or function strategic, developmental or operational/functional? Operational/Functional

Date when the original policy/function was initiated: N/A

Date on which the policy/function is to be reviewed: Licensing Committee 8/10/13

Names and roles of the people carrying out the Equality Analysis:

David Tolley: Head of Consumer and Business Regulations Service (CLC)
Section 2 – Aims and Objectives

What are the aims, objectives or purpose of the policy/function?

Legislation gives local authorities the opportunity to control SEV’s. The legislation was drafted to allow communities to have a say about whether sex establishments should be allowed to operate in their community and it gives the local authority the power, through its licensing arrangements, to determine limits on numbers and localities.

The Council’s Sex Entertainment Policy was developed with "One Tower Hamlets" as a key part of its rationale and was adopted by Cabinet on the 11th September 2013. To enable the Policy to be brought into effect the provisions under the schedule 3 of the Local Government (miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 as amended by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 must be applied to the London Borough of Tower Hamlets area.

What are the main activities of the policy/function?

The adoption of the legislation enables the agreed policy to be applied: The policy establishes a cap on the total number of SEV premises that will be licensed, and it provides a basis for agreeing or refusing licenses with reference to:

- The suitability of any given location
- The management of the establishment
- The conduct within, and in the vicinity of (i.e., associated with) the establishment.

The policy includes both statutory and discretionary conditions that protect performers and help control the management of the premises.

Who is expected to benefit from the policy/function?

The adoption of the legislation will enable the agreed policy to be implemented (Note; a separate EQIA has been undertaken in relation to the setting of the policy framework).

The adoption of the legislation will affect the whole borough and potentially everyone that lives in, works in or visits the area and whom might be affected by the existence and operation of Sexual Entertainment Venues in the locality. Consultation has identified additional considerations in relation to cohesion amongst the LGBT community which have taken into account in developing the policy that this legislation enables.
Section 3 – Consideration of data and research
Identifying Differential / Adverse Impacts

Question -
A policy/function can aim to treat all people fairly but unless you analyse data and stats and speak to the people it is going to affect how do you really know?

Evidence Base -
For each of the equality strands in the table below please now evidence how you came to the conclusions around differential and negative impacts in relation to the policy or function.

Please use the evidence prompts below to form an evidence base to justify your claims around differential impacts. If there is limited evidence we strongly recommend undertaking consultation

Please note – during consultation, if you identify a differential impact it may be advantageous to discuss whether this impact is also negative and record your findings accordingly. If no differential impact is identified there will be NO negative impact.

Evidence Prompt
1 List all qualitative and quantitative evidence
List all examples of quantitative and qualitative data available (include information where appropriate from other directorates, Census 2001 etc)

2 Equalities profile of users or beneficiaries Use the Council’s approved diversity monitoring categories and provide data by target group of users or beneficiaries to determine whether the service user profile reflects the local population or relevant target group or if there is over or under representation of these groups

3 Equalities profile of staff
Indicate profile by target groups and assess relevance to policy aims and objectives e.g. Workforce to Reflect the Community. Identify staff responsible for delivering the service including where they are not directly employed by the council.

4 Barriers
What are the potential or known barriers to participation for the different equality target groups? Eg, communication, access, locality etc

5 Recent consultation exercises carried out
Detail consultation with relevant interest groups, other public bodies, voluntary organisations, community groups, trade unions, focus groups and other groups, surveys and questionnaires undertaken etc. Focus in particular on the findings of views expressed by the equality target groups. Such consultation exercises should be appropriate and proportionate and may range from assembling focus groups to a one to one meeting.

6 Additional factors which may influence disproportionate or adverse impact Management Arrangements - How is the Service managed, are there any management arrangements which may have a disproportionate impact on the equality target groups?

7 The Process of Service Delivery
In particular look at the arrangements for the service being provided including opening times, custom and practice, awareness of the service to local people, communication

Please Note -
Reports/stats/data can be added as Appendix – Please send any reports/consultation findings/data and stats to the One Tower Hamlets team

There have been two consultations in relation to the establishment of regulatory controls on sexual entertainment venues. The first, a more detailed consultation was held on the policy direction and the second a basic consultation on the adoption of the legislation which was a Yes/No response. Impacts of the policy can be viewed in the Cabinet report on the 11th September 2013. The adoption of the legislation would have a neutral impact it is the policy that would have relevant impacts.

<td>The implementation of more stringent licensing policy and conditions is likely to require additional monitoring, evidence gathering and enforcement action to be undertaken by council staff. Appropriate training and support should be provided to protect staff engaged in these areas from any adverse impacts. The consultation carried out for the adoption of the legislation was a basic Yes/No response. The information detailed in the grid has been drawn from the consultation that has come from the provision of a policy – thus demonstrating the community interest in the enactment of a policy. The consultation for adoption was 97.8% not in favour of adopting the powers, but as discussed in the report, sexual entertainment venues had canvassed their supporters, which is their right, but may have skewed the community response.</td>

Section 4 – Conclusions and Recommendations

Is there any evidence of or view that suggests that different equality or other target groups have a disproportionately high/low take up of the service/function?

Yes

If yes, please detail below how evidence influenced and formed the policy? e.g. why things were added/removed.

O&S review findings
Consultation on adopting the policy
Campaign group responses
LGBT response
Consultation on adopting the legislation
Employment issues
Human Rights issues

Does the policy/function comply with equalities legislation?

Yes

If there are gaps in information or areas for further improvement, please list them below:

Scientific research in relation to SEV’s is not sufficiently developed in relation to their impact on protected groups to support more detailed impact assessment.

How will the results of this Equality Analysis feed into the performance planning process?

The SEV project and this associated EA have been incorporated into the Service Plan for Business Regulation and Consumer Protection along with appropriate measures and milestones for delivery, performance monitoring and review.
Section 5 – Action Plan and Monitoring Systems

As a result of these conclusions and recommendations what actions (if any) will be included in your business planning and wider review processes (team plan)? Please consider any gaps or areas needing further attention.

| Continue to monitor research to further inform analysis of equalities impacts | Ongoing | David Tolley |

Have monitoring systems been put in place to check the implementation of the policy/function and recommendations?

Yes

How will the monitoring systems further assess the impact on the equality target groups?

A set of operating conditions form an intrinsic part of the Policy and associated licensing controls. These include controls that have been specifically designed to improve protection of the public in external areas and performers inside the establishments. Breaches of these conditions (and therefore likely to have a negative impact on protected groups) will result in the implementation of enforcement controls and any breaches will form part of the material considerations for the Licensing Committee at the point at which applications for licence renewals are considered and determined.

Section 6 – Completed Equality Analysis
The draft Equality Analysis will be peer assessed and recommendations made (if needed)

Once any recommendations have been made to the equality analysis – it will be sent back to the author to be signed of by the relevant service head/manager. The equality analysis will then be sent to the One Tower Hamlets Team to be published on the council website.

Section 2 – Aims and Objectives

What are the aims, objectives or purpose of the policy/function?

Legislation gives local authorities the opportunity to control SEV’s. The legislation was drafted to allow communities to have a say about whether sex establishments should be allowed to operate in their community and it gives the local authority the power, through its licensing policy arrangements, to determine limits on numbers and localities.

The Council’s draft Sex Establishment Policy was developed with “One Tower Hamlets” as a key part of its rationale and it is drafted to establish a clear and unambiguous position on Sexual Entertainment Venues.

What are the main activities of the policy/function?

The policy establishes a cap on the total number of SEV premises that will be licensed, and it provides a basis for agreeing or refusing licenses with reference to:

- The suitability of any given location
- The management of the establishment
- The conduct within, and in the vicinity of (i.e., associated with) the establishment.

The policy includes both statutory and discretionary conditionsthat protect performers and help control the management of the premises.

Who is expected to benefit from the policy/function?

The policy affects the whole borough and potentially everyone that lives in, works in or visits the area and whom might be affected by the existence and operation of sexual Entertainment Venues in the locality. It has particular relevance for people who own, work in or frequent SEV’s.

The policy is based on a consideration of the potential impact of SEV’s on these groups as well as the wide community and is aimed at ensuring that any negative impacts on individuals or the community that might arise as a consequence of the operation of SEV’s are minimised or negated.
Section 3 – Consideration of data and research
Identifying Differential / Adverse Impacts

Question -
A policy/function can aim to treat all people fairly but unless you analyse data and stats and speak to the people it is going to affect how do you really know?

Evidence Base -
For each of the equality strands in the table below please now evidence how you came to the conclusions around differential and negative impacts in relation to the policy or function.

Please use the evidence prompts below to form an evidence base to justify your claims around differential impacts. If there is limited evidence we strongly recommend undertaking consultation.

Please note – during consultation, if you identify a differential impact it may be advantageous to discuss whether this impact is also negative and record your findings accordingly. If no differential impact is identified there will be NO negative impact.

In the Borough we are not aware of people trafficking and that performers work in venues freely. Personal incomes would be affected if premises closed. The organisations OBJECT (a human rights organisation specifically set up to challenge the sexual objectification of women) and CAPE (Communities Against People Exploitation) presented written responses to the consultation supporting a nil policy on the basis that SEV's have a negative impact on the safety of women. Section 4 – Conclusions and Recommendations

Is there any evidence of or view that suggests that different equality or other target groups have a disproportionately high/low take up of the service/function?

Yes

If yes, please detail below how evidence influenced and formed the policy? e.g. why things were added/removed.

- O&S review findings
- Consultation on adopting the policy
- Campaign group responses
- Consultation response from Rainbow Hamlets
- Consultation on adopting the legislation
- Employment issues
- Human Rights issues

Does the policy/function comply with equalities legislation?

Yes

If there are gaps in information or areas for further improvement, please list them below:

- Research in relation to SEV’s is inconclusive as to the impact of the establishments on protected groups.

How will the results of this Equality Analysis feed into the performance planning process?

- The SEV project and this associated EA have been incorporated into the Service Plan for Business Regulation and Consumer Protection along with appropriate measures and milestones for delivery, performance monitoring and review.

9.3 Free School Meals for Primary Age Pupils - Virement Proposal

The Council considered the report of the Acting Corporate Director, Resources on a proposed virement in connection with the Mayor’s Executive Decision to introduce a local scheme for free schools meals for all primary age pupils.

Councillor Alibor Choudhury moved, and Councillor Oliur Rahman seconded, the recommendation as set out in the report.

Councillor Carlo Gibbs moved, and Councillor Sirajul Islam seconded, a tabled amendment to the recommendation. Following debate the amendment was put to the vote and was agreed. The substantive motion as amended was then put to the vote and was agreed.

DECISION

This Council notes:

- There were NO proposals for Free School Meals in the Mayor’s original 2014/15 Budget, in fact, in that Budget the Mayor removed the funding already allocated for Free School Meals.
• The Labour Group’s Budget amendment was the only one which contained a pledge for Free School Meals.

• Labour’s Budget amendment would have fully funded Free School Meals on a sustainable basis and Labour’s candidate for Mayor of Tower Hamlets, John Biggs, has pledged to ensure that Free School Meals for all primary school pupils is a priority of his administration.

• After removing funding from his original Budget, the Mayor refused to accept Labour’s Free School Meals proposal and on 6th March his supporters voted to block it.

This Council Further notes:

• The Mayor opposed Labour’s Free School Meals plan for purely political reasons.

• The Mayor promised to bring a fully funded proposal back to Council for two full academic years.

• The Mayor has broken his promise as the actual proposals before Council are not only for one year only, but are not funded at all.

• The proposed virement is not only totally unfunded, but it raids the Council’s emergency reserves which will require over £2.5m in additional service cuts in future years.

This Council believes:

• If the Mayor wanted to invest in Free School Meals he would have included it in his original Budget rather than cutting the already allocated funding.

• Labour’s campaign for Free School Meals has attracted widespread support and the Mayor is now desperately trying to save face in light of his opposition to Labour’s plans.

• Whilst we welcome the Mayor’s conversion to support Free School Meals, it is clear that he has absolutely no idea how to fund this and he is irresponsibly trying to buy his way out of the problem.

• The Mayor’s plan to provide skills training for women to work in the healthcare sector could easily be achieved by using the power of the Mayor’s office to work with business, third sector and NHS partners to deliver the project on a sustainable basis and not just as a one off.
This Council further believes:

- Budget setting is a matter for Full Council and that any attempts by the Executive to circumvent this process would be unlawful, including through cumulative virements below the £1m threshold;

- This Mayor is endangering the long term financial health of this council with his desperate actions and that it is the responsibility of the council and its elected members to protect tax payers money from this abuse;

- The financial virement protections in the constitution have been agreed by full council and it is full council that should provide clarity on their application;

This Council resolves to amend the report Recommendations to:

Delete the current bullet point and replace with:

- In order to avoid the use of further reserves, which would result in further cuts to services in later years, we will reduce the need to call on reserves over the course of the scheme by granting the mayor the power to implement the following virements:
  - A virement of £1.3m from the Healthcare employment project
  - Virements of £296,000 and £30,000 from the budgets for mayoral advisors and the mayoral car respectively
  - A virement to ringfence £1,050,000 from the efficiencies and any additional funding resulting from the 2015/16 public health grant.

- To instruct officers to bring a draft amendment to the constitution to the 2014 AGM meeting which would act to prevent the Executive from issuing cumulative smaller virements to one budget head which would otherwise exceed the £1m limit requiring approval by Council.

- In the interim, to add a paragraph to the section of the Council’s constitution on virements reading:

  “Virements for the same budget head, project or substantively similar purpose which are below the £1m threshold should not cumulatively (over a period of three months) exceed the £1m limit without the approval of Council.”
To highlight to all officers responsible for the interpretation and application of the Constitution that it is Council’s view that using cumulative virements which exceed the £1m marker for reporting to Council intentionally breaches the spirit of the Constitution and that from henceforth these should be prevented as is the explicit will of the council.

(Action by: Chris Holme, Acting Corporate Director, Resources; and Meic Sullivan-Gould, Interim Monitoring Officer)

Council considered the reference from the Human Resources Committee on the Pay Policy Statement 2014/15.

Councillor Carlo Gibbs moved, and Councillor Motin Uz-Zaman seconded, the recommendations as set out in the report.

DECISION

1 To adopt the authority’s Pay Policy Statement for the year 1 April 2014 to 31 March 2015 as recommended by the Human Resources Committee and presented at Appendix 1 to the Human Resources Committee report.

2 To agree that if any minor changes to the 2014/15 policy statement are required as a result of future government guidance, these amendments be delegated to the Head of Paid Service after consultation with the Service Head (HR and WD), the Chair of the Human Resources Committee and the Monitoring Officer. 12. TO CONSIDER MOTIONS SUBMITTED BY MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

12.1 Motion regarding Lutfur Rahman's legacy of failure

Councillor Sirajul Islam moved, and Councillor Rachael Saunders seconded, the motion as printed in the agenda.

The motion was put to the vote and was agreed.

This Council notes:

- That under Lutfur Rahman’s leadership:

  Jobs

  - The number of people long-term unemployed in the borough has risen 23%
  - The number of young people aged 18-24 who are long-term unemployed in the borough has more than doubled. (Up 111%)
  - During the Olympics there was little discernable impact in terms of the number of young people employed in the borough.

  Cleaner Streets

  - Residents have reported 24,000 bins as uncollected.
  - The introduction of charges for bulk waste collections led to 7,000 fewer bulk collections.
  - Street cleaning was cut to only two days a week

  Crime and ASB

  - Crime is up 1.4% since Lutfur Rahman came to power.
  - Over the same period crime in neighbouring in Newham is down 8% and in Barking and Dagenham it is down 10%.
  - 20,000 reports of Anti-Social behaviour last year
  - Tower Hamlets has the second highest levels of anti-social behaviour in London.
  - Between October 2009 and September 2012 robberies were up 50%, knife crime was up 49%
  - In the 2013 Annual Residents Survey 41% of people said crime was one of their top three concerns, this was the biggest overall concern from residents.

  Housing

  - Lutfur Rahman has actually SOLD more Council homes than he has built o 15 built since Lutfur Rahman came to power o 46 homes sold off under right to buy o 14 homes sold off through Lutfur Rahman’s asset stripping
  - There are over 20,000 families on the borough’s housing waiting list
  - Plans were drawn up to ship up to 500 families out of London this year.
  - 94 vulnerable families have unlawfully been placed in ‘temporary’ accommodation for more than 6 weeks.
  - Only 27 of almost 700 homes on the Olympic Park were allocated to Tower Hamlets families
COUNCIL, 26/03/2014
SECTION ONE (UNRESTRICTED)

Cost of Living

- 14,000 families have been hit by the Government’s Benefit Cap.
- Lutfur Rahman cut the borough’s stretched advice centres to the bone with cuts in their grants of up to 50%
- The cost of privately renting in Tower Hamlets now takes up 60% of the average household income.

Schools

- 30% of secondary school children missed out on their first preference school last year. 157 children didn’t get any of their 6 preferences.
- The provision of school places varies significantly between areas. For example in Limehouse, last year only 54% of students got a first preference Secondary School place.
- The school place crisis has been ignored.

Council Finance

- The Council has made no progress on invest to save strategies.
- The Council has developed a budget gap of £80m in coming years.
- Over £18m has been spent on redundancy payments with countless more on out of court ‘settlements’

Waste

- £42,000 a year wasted on a vanity chauffeur driven Mercedes
- £296,000 a year wasted on ‘mayoral advisors’
- Hundreds of thousands wasted on unnecessary publicity

Contempt

- Residents have had their questions, petitions and expectations ignored.
- Councillors were removed from community organisations with their seats left vacant.
- A Commonwealth minister was banned from visiting the Town Hall during the Olympics

This Council Believes:

- Tower Hamlets is a great place to live and can do so much better than this.
- People feel totally let down by Lutfur Rahman’s out of touch, divisive and secretive administration and that a change is needed.
- That the current Mayor is too weak to face up to the real challenges facing this council and the people who live in our borough.
- That John Biggs is the man to make that change.
This Council resolves:

- To condemn Lutfur Rahman for his four years of failure.

12.3 Motion regarding supporting building of the Columbia Market War Memorial Councillor John Pierce moved, and Councillor M.A. Mukit M.B.E. seconded the motion as printed in the agenda.

During debate Councillor John Pierce accepted an amendment proposed by Councillor Kabir Ahmed to add, under ‘This Council Resolves’,:- “To call on the Executive to provide a suitable site within the Sivill House Rose Garden for this memorial”.

The motion, as amended, was put to the vote and was agreed.

This Council Notes:

On the first night of the Blitz, 7th September 1940 a German bomb entered the ventilation shaft of the air raid shelter situated under the Great Hall of Columbia Market which had a glass roof which caused mass devastation and killed at least 51 people.

This Council believes:

This tragedy should be commemorated and a fitting memorial should be erected near the site of the Great Hall to remember the 51 people who lost their lives in this tragedy.

This Council Resolves:

To commemorate the air raid on Columbia Market, Columbia Road, and to support the Columbia Market War Memorial Group with building of the Columbia Market War Memorial.

To call on the Executive to provide a suitable site within the Sivill House Rose Garden for this memorial.

(Action by: Aman Dalvi, Corporate Director, Development and Renewal)

Motions 12.2 and 12.4 – 12.11 were not considered due to lack of time.

The Council agreed to suspend Procedure Rule 13.1 to enable an additional, urgent motion to be included on the agenda regarding Former Crown Estate Tenants. However this urgent motion was also not considered due to lack of time.

The meeting ended at 11.03 p.m.

In the absence of the Chair and Vice-Chair, Ms Simmi Yesmin, Democratic Services welcomed everyone to the meeting and sought nominations for Election of Chair for the meeting.

Councillor Mahbub Alam nominated Councillor Andrew Cregan for Chair of the Extraordinary Licensing Committee.

Councillor Muhammed Ansar Mustaquim and Councillor Suluk Ahmed seconded the nomination.

RESOLVED

Councillor Andrew Cregan be elected Chair for this meeting of the Extraordinary Licensing Committee.

1. DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST

There were no declarations of interests made.

2. RULES OF PROCEDURE

The Chair announced the procedure of the meeting, which was noted by the Committee.

3. ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION

3.1 Application for a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence for the Nags Head, 17-19 Whitechapel Road, London, E1 1DU

At the request of the Chair, Mr Mohshin Ali, Licensing Officer introduced the report which detailed an application for a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence under Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (as amended by reg 47 (4), Provisions of Services Regulations 2009 ‘the service regulations’) and the Policing and Crime Act 2009 for The Nags Head, 17-19 Whitechapel Road, London, E1 1DU.

Mr Ali referred to the appendices in the report and stated where the relevant documents were contained in the agenda. It was also noted that the report author and the Officer who undertook the inspection of the premises was present at the meeting and was available to answer any questions.
At the request of the Chair, Mr Julian Skeens, Applicant’s Legal Representative explained that he would go through sections of the report and address the concerns raised.

He explained that para 3.3 of the report made reference to the existing licence being granted in 2005, he pointed out that this was incorrect and that the Applicant’s father had originally acquired the premises in 1983 and the premises has had a licence for Public Entertainment since 1986, which confirmed the fact that the Applicant was an experienced operator. Mr Skeens asked Members to note the photographs of the premises which were contained in the supplemental agenda pack.

In relation to para 4.1 of the report, Mr Skeens explained that under the existing licence there was no requirement for a CCTV camera system, however the Applicant still operated CCTV cameras on the premises. He further explained that during a visit by the Licensing Officer, concerns were raised in terms of the number of CCTV cameras at the premises, within two days of the visit the Applicant had additional digital cameras installed. It was noted that the CCTV images could also be viewed and monitored via the Applicant’s mobile phone which insured an extra level of supervision at all times. Mr Skeen then referred to page 145 of the agenda which detailed a map of the premises and the points where the additional CCTV cameras were located.

It was agreed that the Applicant was happy for the Licensing Officer to revisit the premises to check that the CCTV camera system met all the Council requirements.

Mr Skeens then referred to para 6.0 of the report and it was agreed that the Licensing Officer and the Applicant’s Legal Representative would consult and decide upon the wordings of the conditions. It was also noted that Members of the Licensing Committee had the discretion to modify conditions or add appropriate conditions.

It was also noted that a comprehensive dance tariff and drinks price list had been supplied and copies of the poster would be displayed in all dedicated areas of the premises. These were also included in the supporting documents.

Mr Skeens then went through the assessment and information for the vicinity, highlighting the fact there were no schools in close proximity and the area had predominately commercial licensed properties. Mr Skeen reemphasised the fact that the premises had been trading since 1986 without having any complaints or reported incidents.

It was noted that the consultation process was undertaken and every premise in a 50 meters radius, all responsible authorities and Ward Councillors were given notice of the application. There had been no objections from responsible authorities or residents except for the one.
Mr Skeens referred to the resident’s objection and explained that there had been no representation from the Police or environmental health and therefore unable to link crime and disorder and noise nuisance to the premises. He concluded that that there were no problems at the premises and management have never received any complaints.

Mr Skeens, referred to the witness statements of Mr Manpal Singh, Applicant, Ms Angie Riberio Boccato, Performer, and Ms Tattiana Ferreria Silva Lima, Performer on pages 21-24 of the supplemental agenda. Upon questioning, all three, accepted the witness statements were a correct record.

It was noted that the objector was not present at the meeting but Members would considered and note the objections raised.

In response to questions from Members the following was noted;

- That allegations about women being approached by customers inappropriately were not correct, Mr Skeens said that there had been no complaints from anyone and had never been raised before and therefore did not accept this. However, if this was to ever happen the customer would not be allowed entry to the premises.
- That all premises in a 50 meter radius were notified of the application.
- That there was no residential accommodation above the premises or on the main road as they were primarily used for commercial purposes. However, there were residential developments accessed from Old Montague Street and Green Dragon Yard.
- That there had only been one incident 2 years ago when police were called to the premises when a customer was not allowed entry.
- Concerns were raised as to the close proximity of the premises to the East London Mosque, Synagogue and the Whitechapel Art Gallery, Officers informed Members that these places of worship and culture were over 100 meters away from the premises.
- Concerns were raised in relation to the growth in youth population in the area and risks of exportation and women trafficking, Mr Skeen explained that this would not be a problem as the Police often prefer this type of premises as customers arrive and leave the premises and area discreetly.
- That anti-social behaviour prevention methods included; CCTV cameras, staff monitoring and restricting entry to the premises.
- That item 1, of the Performers Welfare Policy could be included as a condition on the licence to address any concerns of women trafficking.
- Allegations of school children being insulted was disputed as this had never been raised, there had been no complaints and not witnessed.
- That the premises operated zero tolerance to drugs policy, there had been no incidents, no complaints and the Applicant gets along with all the neighbours.
- That the Authority had been regulating this style of premises since 1986 without any objection.
- That the presence of the premises did not impact on the community as the front of the premises was a blank façade, with just the signage on the top of the premises displaying ‘The Nags Head’ and there were no notices outside the premises enticing customers.
- Posters and tariffs were inside the premises and not visible from outside, a customer would have to enter the premises to see posters etc. and if they were not interested they could leave without going further into the premises.
- That there was a door man outside the premises and passers-by often felt safe walking past as there was a presence of safety.
- That the premise was monitored via CCTV cameras and there were Council CCTV camera right outside the premises too.
- That there were no objections from responsible authorities or ward councillors.
- That the report categorised the area as predominately commercial.
- That no moral objection were valid
- That the style of entertainment was lawful and licensable.
- That the Applicant was a good operator and had a lot of experience in running this type of venue hence the lack of objections received.
- That the Applicant did not accept that the premise was on a faith based route as it was more commercial. The Licensing Officer also confirmed that the route was predominantly commercial.

In summation Mr Skeens stated that all issues raised had been explained in detail, and that Tower Hamlets had been issuing the licence for the premises since 1986 without any objections. It was noted that there were conditions on the licence and the Applicant was happy to accept the standard conditions proposed by the Licensing Officer. Mr Skeens concluded by stating that the operator was very experienced and was respectable to all faith cultures.

The Chair thanked everyone for attending and contributions to the meetings and informed everyone that the decision will be notified to the Applicant once all the applications in this first round have been considered.

The meeting ended at 8.30 p.m.

1. DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST

There were no declarations of interest made.

2. ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION

2.1 Application for a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence for Whites Gentleman's Club, 32-38 Leman Street, London, E1 8EW

At the request of the Chair, Ms Kathy Driver, Licensing Officer introduced the report which detailed the application for a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence under Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (as amended) for Whites Gentleman’s Club, 32-38 Leman Street, London E1 8EW.

Ms Driver explained that the premises currently held a licence under the Licensing Act 2003 that permits sexual entertainment. It was noted that the hours applied for were the same hours as the current premises licence however it was noted that the premises opened at 5pm despite having a licence to trade from 12noon. Ms Driver explained that the Applicant had met the advertising/notice requirements, and all objections were contained in the agenda and additional documents were contained in the supplemental agenda.

It was noted that the Licensing Officer who undertook the inspection of the Premises sought clarification on pricing and CCTV cameras and its coverage of the premises. Mr Driver explained that the details on complaints and enforcement history were jointly received by the Licensing Services and Trading Standards.

Ms Driver referred to the appendices in the report and stated where the relevant documents were contained in the agenda. It was also noted that the report author and officer who undertook the inspection of the premises was present at the meeting and was available to answer any questions.

At the request of the Chair, Mr Philip Kolvin, Applicant’s Legal Representative explained that he acknowledged the range of views from interested parties and as a result had offered extended conditions to help alleviate concerns. He explained that it was a small venue with a maximum of 80 persons at the premises at any one time. He stated that there were always 8 SIA security staff on the premises, increasing to 10 during peak times, so that together with bar staff there were approximately 16 members of staff on the premises at each time, with a ratio of at most 1 staff member per 5 customers which he said allowed for good supervision of performers and customers.

Mr Kolvin stated that the Applicant was happy to accept the standard conditions set by the Council which were set out on page 72 of the agenda. Mr Kolvin explained that the two matters which arose from the inspection meeting by the Licensing Officer were in relation to providing further CCTV cameras or complete coverage, which had now been completed. He stated that there was complete coverage of the area where regulated entertainment is provided and that all performers would now know that their actions were being recorded. He stated that this was a guarantee that the premises will be run in a suitable manner. Officers from Responsible Authorities can also access this footage at any time. The map of the premises, including the location of CCTV Cameras was noted.

Mr Kolvin explained that high sums were expended at the premises, 90% of the customers were city workers and they had 27,000 VISA transactions last year. He accepted that some transactions were queried but said that when customers were shown CCTV footage of the incidents they withdrew allegations.

It was noted that concerns were raised in terms of transparency, and Mr Kolvin explained that the Applicant having consulted with Trading Standards had made an agreement that all prices for dances would be fixed and the price list would be displayed in prominent places within the premises. His client would end the system of dancers negotiating charges orally which he said was a recipe for misunderstandings. All tariffs would be posted. It was also agreed that all VIP rooms will be hired out by a written agreement form which would make it clear what the charges were, requiring signature by the customer and countersignature by a Manager. Mr Kolvin further stated that the transactions would be made in an area roped off at the end of the bar, which would be well lit and have CCTV cameras. He hoped that this would leave no room for any misunderstandings, and stated that the applicants were grateful to Trading Standards for bringing it to their attention.

Mr Kolvin moved on to address the external impact on the locality. He explained that it was not a moral debate and moral issues/concerns were not relevant under the legislation. He referred Members to page 121 of the report which detailed the Council’s Policy on SEVs and highlighted the reference on the impact of the premises on the character of the locality and other uses in the vicinity. He stated that any sensibly run premises would take account of sensitivities in the vicinity.

It was said that the Applicants were volunteering further controls to diminish the impact. Mr Kolvin then said that he would describe venues in other places and what they were able to do away with doing. He then gave a list of practices that other SEV venues did but they would not be doing, namely:

- There would be no leafleting in the vicinity for business
- No branded transportation e.g. limousines
- No advertising on billboards around the locality
- No visibility into the premises
- No visible red, neon, pink or flashing lighting
- No explicit imagery or wording of sexual connotation such as 'strip' or 'nude'
- Door staff outside the premises, so that nobody wanders in without knowing what they were going into, but who look like those that can be seen outside clubs or bars
- Dancers do not gather outside the front of the premises to drum up custom (the smoking area is at the back)
- Minicabs would be ordered, so customers discreetly leave the premises rather than misbehaving in the locality.
- There is no noise breakout.

He stated that the level of objection overall was low. There were no objections from Responsible Authorities with no adverse comments from local business, Offices, Landlords, Religious or Educational institutions.

He explained that the ward population was 14,940 and that objections were from one resident from the immediate area, and a proforma letter from 13 pupils’ parents (seven sets) out of 222 pupils at the nearby English Martyrs School – one of whom described themselves as living in Wapping and not in close proximity to the premises. The premises had been trading in the area for around 10 years. He mentioned that some objections made reference to prostitution and drugs in the area and said that this had not been mentioned by the Police or evidenced in any way.

He then referred to the objection from the Ward Councillors whose concerns were that the venue may impact on the area but it was to be noted that the premises already exists and they had not mentioned that it was having any impacts at the moment. Mr Kolvin said that the premises were not holding up any development. There was also reference to Harry Goslin Primary School but it was to be noted that this was some way off, and there had been no complaints from the school or parents of the school children.

Mr Kolvin stated that Council Officer themselves say that the area is a mix of commercial and residential accommodation, with the area within 100 metres being assessed to be of commercial character. There was a busy A-road with ‘red routes’. It was not a quiet residential side street. He emphasised that no public or private sector organisations have made objections but merely a small minority of residents.
In conclusion Mr Kolvin referred to concerns raised in relation to operating during school time or when children were walking home from school. He stated that the school closes at 3.15pm. The club current opens at 4pm. As a gesture the Applicant would delay opening time to 5pm to separate customers from school children and allow for after-school clubs. Mr Kolvin explained that there were no complaints about the exterior of the premises but stated that the Applicant would voluntarily remove imagery of the female silhouette and the word ‘Gentlemen’s’ from the signage outside the premises. He stated that the licensed activities were not going to be seen and there would be no impact. He hoped that this would be workable for at least one year. Mr Kolvin concluded at just after 7.15pm.

At the request of the Chair, Dr Mary Dengler, local resident explained that she has been a local resident for a considerable amount of time even before the opening of White’s. She explained that she had knowledge of the area, and knowledge of planning and geography. She explained that the local school didn’t receive notification about the application and that due to holidays and timings other parents had not been notified and were unable to attend. She explained that she has noticed prostitution on the streets which was not there before the premises opened. She explained that she uses a different route home to avoid confronting prostitutes and drug takers on the streets that she would otherwise encounter if she walked from Aldgate East. Dr Dengler explained that when the premises first got their licence there were not many residents however the demography had now changed and it was now a more residential area. The borough had in her view been improving with an increase in residents, services and amenities. The development plan for Tower Hamlets was seeking to improve the character, residential quality and environment. There had already been a shift towards residential character and this would continue as new buildings were completed.

Dr Dengler raised concerns that were more low budget hotels opening nearby which could attract large gatherings etc. It was noted that Dr Dengler had two school aged children and avoided walking past the premises. It was further noted that school clubs finished at 6pm and therefore school children were still in the area after 5pm. In her opinion, the concession to open at 5pm was insufficient. Children often walked home on their own.

Members then heard from Ms Triona O’Keeffe who again was a parent of child who attended the English Martyrs School and lived in Wapping. She explained that her objection was based on location as the premises was adjacent to a school, so children would be going past the premises to and from school, during school trips, and after school clubs. She explained that she is questioned by her son about the premises and feels it inappropriate to explain when walking past what type of establishment the premises is. In her view, the immediate area was and should be focused on education. She added that it had become more of a residential area than a commercial area which it first was. There were more students in the area. Clubs like White’s could operate more effectively in other areas, in her view. Ms O’Keeffe stated that the delay in opening hours and changes to the facade were positive, however the location was not appropriate for this type of venue.
Lastly Members heard from Mr Martin Dengler, a long-time resident and parent of school children who attended the English Martyrs School. He stated that the licence would impact on the local character of the area, and stated that the character of the local area had undeniably changed since the Whites first opened and the area was more of a residential area. He stated that in his experience one of the first things that people he met tell him is that a strip club is located in the area, rather than mentioning the Tube improvements. He stated that applying to open from midday would double the current opening hours. He explained that the premises were immediately identifiable and were inconsistent with the council’s nil policy on SEV licences. He then said that lack of objection from the local School was due to the fact that they had not been made aware of the application. Mr Dengler also stated that the signage had actually increased in prominence since the premises had opened.

Mr Graham and Ms Driver pointed out that local residents living within 50m of the premises were consulted, as stated at paragraph 13.1 of the committee report, and Ms Driver said that the school was not in a 50m radius.

In response to questions from Members the following was noted:

- That the application plan showed only the area within the red line as being licensed but that it was intended for the whole premises to be licensed with the licensable entertainment activities taking place only within the red line.
- That all regulated entertainment would have CCTV coverage
- That the applicant was happy to add CCTV cameras in the lobby areas.
- That the condition which makes reference to dancers being fully clothed should include covering of breasts and genitalia.
- That the word Gentleman’s and the silhouette of a women would be removed from the front signage.
- That the boards detailing the reviews of the premises would also be taken off the windows and therefore there would only be a blank façade external to the premises with just the words ‘White’s Club’ and nothing else showing.
- That the premises did not advertise in Tower Hamlets and nor would it advertise in the City of London. It would advertise only on the website.
- That the Applicant has been managing the premises since 2009
- That there were CCTV cameras in all VIP rooms
- There were no doors preventing access to the VIP rooms except for ‘studio 54’ room, which had a one-way glass mirror which can be seen through by security staff.
- That there were 6 SIA Security Staff who monitor the VIP rooms and cubicles etc.
- That the school was within 100 metres of the premises but under the Policy consultation only needed to be undertaken 50 metres of the premises. There was also a notice outside the premise, there were public notices and newspaper adverts giving notification of the application.
- That Dr Dengler had asserted that with the new hotels being opened, customers could arrange to meet with dancers afterwards in hotels.
- Dr Dengler felt threatened by street prostitutes. The area was trying to attract property investment and the club would inhibit the transformation of the area. In her view, the premises were no longer aligned with the character of the neighbourhood anymore and were a blight.
- That residents, had not complained before but are doing so now as circumstances have now changed and they were now parents.
- That according to Mr Kolvin, there was no set capacity at the premises but the premises were usually very sparsely occupied. There were always required to be at least 8 security staff on duty under the 2003 Act licence but during peak times extra SIA staff were on duty.
- That the voucher system was in place for customers paying in cash, whereby vouchers were issued that customers could use as if they were cash to call of individual dancers to cubicles; however this would now change to written agreement forms for the VIP suites.
- That there had been no complaints received since the application has been made.
- All CRB checks and relevant forms had been submitted to the Licensing Officer by 5th March 2015.
- That regular staff training was conducted every 3 months.
- That the premises got their business through their website, word of mouth and repeat business.
- That, according to Mr Kolvin, the drinks price list was displayed in booklets on tables however the Applicant was happy to make this more robust. The premises did not make their money from drinks and according to Mr Kolvin, it was up to officers to come in to say that the display of pricing was insufficient.
- That there was always a Manager at the premises and during busy periods there were two. If there were 'pinch points' where many VIP rooms were required, Mr Kolvin stated that his client would have to make provision, or customers would have to wait for a few minutes.
- That there was no other venues owned by this company.
- That, according to Mr Heron, the number of complaints from the premises was disproportionately large compared to other similar venues.
- That not all complaints had been brought to the Applicants’ attention as some were only intelligence reports, and the 2 complaints brought to their attention were withdrawn once CCTV footage was shown. No complaints had actually materialised into prosecutions or civil claims.
- That there would be no direct negotiations with dancers as there was now a tariff/price list in place.
- That the crystal decanter in the Studio 54 VIP room had been removed.
- That a ‘Challenge 25’ policy is operated at the premises and the Applicants were happy to add this as a condition in relation to sexual entertainment.
- Councillor Ronald asked about how the Applicant ensured that they were not hiring vulnerable individuals as dancers. Mr Stewart answered that there was no advertising. He said that they only take experienced dancers, Dancers are hired through an application process. They have to sign an agreement. They are given the option of a working audition where they are monitored. Most work 2 or 3 nights a week and are not solely the applicant’s employees. Cllr Ronald asked how long they stay with the applicant. Mr Stewart said that this was ‘not long- about 2 to 3 months. A lot are students doing degrees, Mr Kolvin thanked Cllr Ronald for raising it and said that more could be done.

- That the outside of the premises down Alie St and Lehman St is covered by a CCTV that moves back and forth.
- That intoxicated customers are challenged by greeters at the door and details of refused customers are recorded in a refusal book.
- That the premises do not advertise externally and the Applicant was happy to accept this being a condition.
- Member then questioned whether the Applicant would be happy to limit the hours to open the premises at 6.30pm each day, to have a clear separation between the premises and the School.

Members adjourned the meeting at 8.25pm in order for Mr Kolvin to seek instructions from the Applicant. Members reconvened the meeting at 8.40pm

The Chair asked for all interested parties to make their summations.

The Licensing Officer stated that he had nothing further to add to the report.

In summing up on behalf of the objectors, Ms O’Keeffe stated that their objection was based on locality and the effect on the community as the neighbourhood had changed and continues to change so that it was not aligned with a venue like White’s, that there was a primary school within 100 metres of the premises with 222 pupils regularly in the vicinity exposed to the advertising which had been increasing. She stated they were concerned before the hearing and were now even more concerned due to issues raised during questioning. They were concerned about the staff attrition, the vulnerability of the women and what was being done to address that. They were concerned about management of the activities. The red-lining on the plan accompanying the application was misleading. The agreement regarding client rooms was not robust and the services were undefined. Comments had been made about City workers ‘charitably redistributing’ heir wealth, and she was concerned about a lack of respect towards the clientele. This was not a new owner; they had been in place for a number of years. It was only now, subsequent to the application, that concessions had been made such as timing and advertising, which had not been in place before. They had had opportunities to be respectful of the local community but this had not happened before.

In summation on behalf of the Applicant, Mr Philip Kolvin stated that the Applicant was content to open at 6.30pm under this licence, to ensure proper a separation between the activity of the school and the premises, and would undertake to immediately apply to vary the 2003 Act licence to bring it into line. All that anyone would see if they walked past was ‘White’s Club’. He also said that they would look into devising a dancers’ welfare policy that would be extended to vulnerable women, if the Committee thinks they should test applicants to see if women are vulnerable, and would be happy to add
Mr Kolvin addressed some of the concerns raised such as allegations of prostitutes hanging around the club, he said that this had not been mentioned before by anybody and there was no evidence of this being connected with his client. That dancers will have no solicitation with customers and if there is ever evidence of that then it can be brought to the Committee on review of the licence. In terms of low cost hotels he said that this was a speculative matter and there was no large gathering outside the premises as this was not that type of venue. In terms of blight, it was noted that the Licensing Officer’s report had said that the area was a commercial area. All the development which had already occurred with his clients being there. There was no evidence that the Applicant had been a brake on development.

Mr Kolvin stated that with the reduction in hours – 6 hours 30 minutes having been given away since the application was lodged- and the effect from the removal of sexual connotations from the frontage should help address the concerns raised by objectors. The allegation of blight could no longer stick. He stated that on the vulnerability of performers, while he did accept that it was a perfectly proper point, it was not an issue raised before. It was a new standard that was wanted. It would be pursued vigorously by his client in the weeks to come.

Mr Kolvin concluded by explaining that the Applicant have made legitimate investment into the premises, including its lease, had goodwill and employed a number of people. It had been there a long time. There would need to be strong grounds to refuse the application. He said that the fears of parents could now be alleviated as opening hours had been reduced. He stated that further conditions had been proposed and if Members grant the application they will at least know that they had ‘raised the bar’ with real wins for regulatory services. If there are any problems then this can be reviewed each year.

The Chair thanked everyone for attending and for all their contributions to the meeting. He informed everyone that the decision will be notified to the Applicant once all the applications in this first round have all been considered. Mr Kolvin thanked the Chair for what he said had been a conspicuously fair and thorough hearing.

The meeting ended at 9.00 p.m.

Gurwinder Olive – (Senior Lawyer, Legal Services)
Simmi Yesmin – (Senior Committee Officer, Democratic Services)
The Chair welcomed everyone to the meeting and announced the procedure of the meeting, which was noted by the Committee.

1. DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST

There were no declarations of interest made.

2. ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION

2.1 Sexual Entertainment Venues

At the request of the Chair, Ms Gurwinder Olive, Senior Lawyer introduced the report which set out the terms of reference of the Licensing Committee and the process for the determination of Sexual Entertainment Venues (SEVs) transitional applications by existing operators under the statutory scheme.

It was noted that the function for determining SEV applications was reserved to the Licensing Committee by the Council when the legislation for licensing of SEVs was adopted on 26 March 2014.

Ms Olive explained that the Tower Hamlets Sex Establishment Licensing Policy proposes 'nil' as the appropriate number. The Policy provides that the Council will not apply this limitation when considering applications from existing operators if they can demonstrate in their application:
- High standards of management
- A management structure and capacity to operate the venue
- The ability to adhere to the standard conditions for SEVs

It was noted that applications had been received from four existing operators and the Licensing Committee Hearings for these applications had been listed separately to allow Members sufficient time to consider the separate applications.

A Licensing Committee Hearing took place on 17 March 2015 in respect of Nag's Head and a further Licensing Committee Hearing took place on 14 April 2015 in respect of White's Gentleman’s Club. It was noted that the Committee did not make a decision on either of the above dates. The meeting on each occasion was concluded with applicants being advised that matters would be determined after consideration of all applications.

It was further noted that the applications for White Swan and Metropolis would be considered by the Licensing Committee at this meeting, as these applications are to be considered on paper in the first instance, as there were no objections or history of complaints.

Ms Olive concluded by stating that further legal comments were contained in the reports for each application.
At the request of the Chair, Ms Kathy Driver, Licensing Officer introduced each application in detail making reference to the report and appendices contained in the agenda packs.

Ms Driver highlighted each application as follows;

White Swan
- That the transfer of the licence took place in 2013
- That they had a licence historically
- That the venue was split in two parts, one part was designated for SEV activity and one part was for the bar area.
- That there was one licence for the whole venue
- The pub was mainly for the Gay community.
- That the consultation and advertisement processes were complied with.
- That there were no objections against the application
- That the hours applied for were in line with current hours.
- That the CCTV camera system was now of a better quality.
- That residents within 50 meters of the premises were written to
- That the determination of the vicinity around the premises was set at 100 meters from the premises.

Metropolis
- That the licensee was in place since 2005
- Current licence was under the old regime
- That the current premises licence was for the ground floor, 1st floor and 2nd floor.
- That there were no objections against the application
- That all requirements for advertisement were complied with.
- That complaints were minimal
- That the area was majority a commercial area.

Concerns were raised by Members that they have often seen a mobile vehicle advertising the premise with sexually images.

Nags Head
- That the hearing for the application was heard by Members on 17th March 2015
- That there had been no objections from Responsible Authorities except for one local resident.
- That there had been support from the staff at the premises.
- That minutes of the meeting was included in the agenda.
- That the applicants were happy to accept standard conditions and had also agreed to further conditions specific to their premises which had been agreed with Licensing Services and Trading Standards and were included in the supplemental agenda.
Whites Gentleman’s Club

- That the hearing for the application was heard by Members on 14th April 2015
- At the hearing the Applicant had amended the hours to 18:30 hour to 04:00 hours to help address the concerns raised by parents of the children who attended the School which was in close proximity to the premises.
- That all requirements for advertisement were complied with.
- That after a site visit from Officers, a plan of the premises detailing CCTV camera locations was produced.
- That further conditions had been offered by the Applicant i.e. Introduction of agreement forms for the hire of VIP rooms, the removal of the word ‘Gentleman’s and the silhouette of a female image from the signage at the front of the premises, no advertising in the borough or outside the borough.
- That in addition they would devise a policy for the welfare of the performers, and add additional CCTV cameras in the lobby area and would operate a challenge 25 policy instead of the current challenge 21 policy.

It was noted that the residents’ concerns were mainly in relation to the premises being in close proximity to the school, changes to the area, the development of residential homes and allegations of prostitution in the area however there had been no evidence to substantiate that.

In response to a question it was noted that the school was not part of the consultation process as it was not in the 50 meter radius.

With no further questions the Chair adjourned the meeting at 7.12pm to deliberate on each application. The Chair reconvened the meeting at 8.40pm.

The Chair announced that Legal Officers would contact the Applicants/or their Legal Representatives for each premises and ask a few questions which would then help Members determine a decision for each application.

The Chair thanked everyone for attending and for all their contributions to the meeting. He informed everyone that the decision will be notified to the Applicants once correspondence is received from the Applicants.

The meeting ended at 8.50 p.m.

The Chair welcomed everyone to the meeting and announced the procedure of the meeting, which was noted by the Committee. The Chair enquired how long Mr Ladenburg required to present his case and stated that he would allow the objector the same amount of time. Mr Ladenburg and the objector indicated that they were content with the procedure.

1. DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTEREST

There were no declarations of interest made.

2. ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION

2.1 Application for a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence for Charlie's Angels, 30 Alie Street, London, E1 8DA

At the request of the Chair, Ms Kathy Driver, Licensing Officer introduced the report which detailed the application for a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence under Schedule 3 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (as amended) for Charlie’s Angel, 30 Alie Street, London E1 8DA.

Ms Driver explained that this application was a new application trading as London City Traders Ltd. The existing operator was Mr Abdul Malik who was also the sole director of London City Traders Ltd. Ms Driver referred to page 60 of the agenda, a letter to Ms Maria Guida, Solicitor acting on behalf of the Applicant, from Mr Andrew Heron dated 16th February 2015 clarifying the transitional provisions in the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions Act) 1982.

It was noted that the premises currently had a licence under the Licensing Act 2003 that permits sexual entertainment. The licence was originally granted on 10th March 2006 and amended by a variation application on 8th September 2009 and a further minor variation on 8th January 2014 in relation to the layout. Mr Abdul Malik had been the licence holder since June 2011 and the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) since May 2013. It was noted that the history and the running of the business was a relevant consideration.

Ms Driver continued to highlight and refer to the hours applied for, the maps and layout of the premises, the complaints and enforcement history, and the site visit made at the premises by Officers. Ms Driver confirmed that the Applicant had met the advertising/notice requirements, and all objections were contained in the agenda and additional documents were contained in the supplemental agenda.
Ms Driver continued to refer to the appendices in the report and stated where the relevant documents were contained in the agenda. It was also noted that the report author and officer who undertook the inspection of the premises was present at the meeting and was available to answer any questions.

At the request of the Chair, Mr Guy Ladenburg, Legal Representative for the Applicant, explained that this was a straightforward application with a twist which required clarification. It was noted that the application was set out as a new application; however, he explained that there had been a clerical error when completing the application form. He urged Members to treat this application as an existing operator as there was clear links that the premises already existed and was operated by the same management. He explained that law treats new applicants and existing operators very differently and that it would not be fair to penalise the Applicant due to a clerical error made by their solicitor.

He explained that it was evident from the papers, objections and history of the premises that this premises was an existing operator and for it to be noted that the premises had been providing sexual entertainment since 2008. Mr Ladenburg explained that there were 30-40 performers working at the premises together with 8-10 members of staff.

It was also noted that no responsible authorities had objected to the application which clearly illustrated the good management of the premises. Mr Ladenburg referred to the Tower Hamlets Sex Establishment Policy on page 142 of the agenda which detailed Club Oops (now known as Charlie’s Angels) as part of the existing businesses that held premises licences under the Licensing Act 2003 with permissions that would be affected by the adoption of the sexual entertainment venue licensing regime. This demonstrated that the law protects existing premises as the Tower Hamlets SEV Policy has a nil policy on new applications.

Mr Ladenburg concluded that London City Traders Ltd Director and Mr Abdul Malik was the same person and can demonstrate clear historic management of the premises. Mr Ladenburg said that he recognised that they were legally separate entities but it was obvious and clear that it was the same person, this is also evident from the objections received which refer to the existing premises and therefore believed it to be unfair to penalise an existing operator due to human error/clerical error. He stated that it was a unique set of circumstances and if a licence was not granted the business would have to stop trading on 1st June 2015.

In response to questions from Members it was noted:

- That the premises had been trading as Charlie’s Angels since January 8.
- That Mr Abdul Ali was the previous manager from May 2008 to June 2011 when the licence was transferred to Mr Abdul Malik.
- That both Mr Abdul Malik and Abdul Ali continue to manage the premises and have both been in control since 2007.
Mr Leo Charalambides, Legal Advisor to the Committee questioned on behalf of Members why Mr Abdul Ali was absent and not mentioned in the application, however present during the site visit conducted by Licensing Officers on 8th April 2015. Mr Ladenburg stated that that there was no obligation to detail every manager in the application, as Mr Abdul Ali, worked part time as a manager and consultant and therefore not included in the application as there was no formal obligation to outline the hierarchy of the management structure.

Further questions were raised in relation to the sub lease contracts, share of profits, operation structure etc.

The Chair adjourned the meeting at 7.15pm for Mr Ladenburg to seek instructions from his clients. The meeting was reconvened at 7.30pm.

Mr Ladenburg explained that Mr Abdul Malik was in charge of the premises, the Premise Licence Holder and the Designated Premises Supervisor, Mr Antonio Pomerico (detailed in the application) was the floor manager and Mr Abdul Ali was a part time manager with a consultancy role. He then explained the relationship between the freeholders, management company and leaseholders this was also detailed on page 52 of the agenda. It was noted that the initial management agreement was between JK Holdings and Club Oops however Club Oops went into voluntary liquidation and JK Holdings have now given the management control to Mr Abdul Malik. It was noted that Mr Malik was responsible for the management of the premises and sole director of the company and that profits were not shared.

The Chair varied the procedure of the meeting at the request of the Objector who made their submission before the Applicant.

Ms Bronagh Nugent, Head Teacher of English Martyrs School, explained that when the premises first got their licence there were not many residents however the demography had now changed and it was now a more residential area. The borough had in her view been improving with an increase in residents, services and amenities. There had already been a shift towards residential character and this would continue as new buildings were being completed. It was noted that the School was in very close proximity to the premises which caused concerns to parents and children from the school.

She raised concerns as to the fact that there were two SEV premises in such close proximity, that parents of children who lived in a 50 meter radius had not been consulted and therefore asked Officers to look at better ways of consultation as not all people read the East End Life newspaper or walk past premises to see adverts displayed.

Ms Nugent continued to explain that 157 families had signed a petition opposing the licence for the premises and those parents and children are often faced with sexual activity and drug abuse around the area. It was also noted that the bright façade, signage of the premises and performers visible and audible in the streets and outside the premises makes Ms Nugent also highlighted the fact that there had been an increase of drug dealing in the area. That performers were hanging around outside the premises and walking to local shops wearing inappropriate clothing or wearing dressing gowns.

Ms Nugent concluded that the performers were not following the company’s code of conduct and management were not managing the premises. Lastly Ms Nugent requested that the Applicant should consider reducing their hours of operation and starting at a later time of 6.30pm in order to have a clear separation between the premises and the school.

In response to questions the following was noted;

- Ms Nugent confirmed that the drug dealing and sexual activity seen on the streets were not directly linked to the premises.
- That the consultation process was adhered to and residents in a 50 meter radius were written to.
- That complaints relating to noise nuisance from taxis outside the premises could not be linked to the premises.
- That the changing nature of the area was due to big developments, regeneration of the area, development of student accommodation, more residential apartments, family homes, 4 local supermarkets, coffee shops and other local amenity in the area.
- Ms Nugent confirmed that that the vicinity was a mix of commercial and residential accommodation as stated in the report.
- That the School car par overlooked the premises and can be on the journey route to and from the school.
- That the comments in relation to sexual activity and an increase in drug dealing were anecdotal from parents and members of staff, they included one parent and mostly staff.
- That any offending signage or advertisement would be removed as suggested in the conditions put forward by the Applicant.
- That the applicant was happy to add a condition that performers would not go out of the premises unless they are appropriately dressed.
- That the Applicant would be happy to start SEV activity from 6.30pm and start licensable activity (bar) from 4pm.

Members then heard from Mr Ladenburg, in making his submission he made reference to the Tower Hamlets Sexual Entertainment Venue Policy and explained that the premises already existed and was trading with express permission under the Licensing Act 2003. He referred to the complaints/enforcement history on pages 18-19 of the agenda and stated that the issues relating to taxis outside the premise was hard to manage as it was outside their control, however they would consider a condition to help address such concerns.

Mr Ladenburg stated that the personal statements in the supplemental agenda addressed the concerns raised by the objectors and as for the use of the rubbish bin outside the premises, the Applicant should not be criticised for others using the bin and causing an overflow. It also noted that there had not been a police objection in terms of an increase in drug dealing in the area.

He then referred to the objection from the Ward Councillors whose concerns were that the venue may impact on the area but it was to be noted that the premises already exists and they had not mentioned that it was having any impacts at the moment. He also claimed that the allegations from Ms Nugent were anecdotal and not substantiated by any evidence. Mr Ladenburg stated that the Applicant was happy to start SEV activity from 6.30pm onwards in order to clearly separate any SEV activity from the School and would also remove any imagery of sexual nature or suggestive signage from outside the premises.

Mr Ladenburg concluded that the premise was an existing premise, recognised and known as ‘Charlie’s Angels’. He said that if the premise is not dealt with by way of an existing premises then with its previous track record and strong management operation there was sound reason for the policy to dis-apply. He stressed that there would be no chance of a repeat clerical error and for Members to note that out of the previous 11 existing premises only 5 applications had been submitted.

In response to questions from Members the following was noted;

- That the Applicants did not think it was reasonable to reduce the hours to 6.30pm, however, would accept the reduced hours if Members felt it necessary and proportionate and would help fall in line with other SEV venues in the borough.
- Concerns were raised in relation to the terrace area outside the premises which was visible to walkers that goes by.
- That the Applicant was happy to raise the barrier/screen outside the premises so that people using the terrace would not be visible.
- That the terrace/smoking area was used by both performers and customers.
- That there was no separate smoking area for performers.
- The Applicant proposed that they could raise the canopy and screen and separate the area into two, with a small area for performers and the other area for customers.
- That there would be a sign inside the premise which would indicate clearly who the duty manager was on that day and time to ensure there is management on the premises at all times.
- That security staff take more of an active role in advising patrons leaving the premises to leave quietly and respect the needs of local residents.
- That four of the performers lived above the premises.
- That management and performers did not accept that there was anti-social behaviour or crime and disorder at the premises.
- That management and staff ask customers to leave quietly and use a registered taxi firm.
- That the performers leave after the customers have left, if performers are intoxicated, management do not let them drive home and always arrange for a taxi to take them home.
- That waiters/waitresses and security staff often go to the shops on behalf of the performers.
- That the closest shops were approximately 200 yards away from the premises.
- That the entrance to the flat above the premises was approximately 1-2 minutes, walk away.

In response to questions from Mr Charalambides, Mr Ladenburg explained that there had been a change in the area but did not accept the changes to be of such extreme to change the character of the area. Mr Ladenburg accepted that there were further residential properties but the nature of this premises was not inappropriate as the premise was well run and if it doesn't offend anyone then it shouldn't affect the fact that there would be two SEV venues in close vicinity.

Mr Charalambides summarised a few amendments that required noting;

That the code of conduct on page 98 should make reference to coats rather than jackets, to include plans and layout of the premises, including designated smoking areas for customers and for performers, that advertising would not be permitted, to display tariffs and price lists and to keep records of performers etc.

Mr Ladenburg accepted these amendments and confirmed that they would remove the advert outside the premises and change the signage to remove the silhouette of a naked woman. Mr Ladenburg stated that the Applicant was happy to accept the varied conditions set by the Council which were circulated at the meeting.

There were no closing remarks from either parties.

The Chair thanked everyone for attending and for all their contributions to the meeting. He informed everyone that the decision will be notified to the Applicant once all the applications in this first round have all been considered.

The meeting ended at 9.10 p.m.

STANDARD CONDITIONS FOR SEXUAL ENTERTAINMENT VENUES

General
1. The Licensee must remain in personal control of the premises at all times that it is trading or nominate in writing an individual over the age of 18 with the authority to direct activities within the Premises.
2. The licensee shall notify the Council, in writing, of any change in directors, trustees, partners or other persons concerned in the management of the licensed activities within fourteen days of such change.
3. The Licensee shall provide in a timely fashion copies of any documents reasonably required by an authorised officer of the Council to prove compliance with this Licence.
4. The licensee must give written notice to the Council if s/he wishes to surrender the licence.
5. The Council reserves the right to amend or alter these conditions (provided that such change will not prevent the operators from viably carrying on the business of the premises) following consultation with licensees
6. The meaning of “sexual entertainment” is given in Section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

Management
7. A suitable and sufficient number of door supervisors and trained staff will be employed (based on a risk assessment) when sexual entertainment is offered. Their duties will include monitoring customers and performers to ensure that the Code of Conduct for Dancers and the House Rules are being obeyed and enforcing if necessary.
8. The Licensee shall prepare and implement a Code of Conduct for Performers. The Code shall be approved by the council and will not be altered without their consent.
9. The Licensee shall prepare House Rules governing the conduct of customers. The Rules shall be approved by the council and shall not be altered without their consent.

Premises
10. The approved layout of the premises shall not be altered without prior consent of the council.
11. The Licensee shall ensure that the interior of the premises where sexual entertainment is offered shall not be capable of being seen from the outside of the premises, and that the exterior is maintained to a satisfactory level of decorum.

12. The sexual entertainment shall take place only in the areas designated by the Council and the approved access to the dressing room(s) shall be maintained whilst sexual entertainment is taking place and immediately thereafter.

13. All cameras shall continually record whilst the premises are open to the public and the recorded images shall be kept available for a minimum of 31 days. Recorded images shall be made available to an authorised officer or a police officer together with facilities for viewing. The recordings for the preceding two days shall be made available immediately on request. Recordings outside this period shall be made available on 24 hours’ notice.

Advertising

14. The Licensee shall not permit the display outside of the premises of photographs or other images, excluding trademarks or logos, which are unacceptable to the Council, and which indicate or suggest that sexual entertainment takes place on the premises.

15. Where the Council has given notice in writing to the Licensee objecting to an advertisement on the grounds that, if displayed, it would offend public decency or be likely to encourage or incite crime and disorder that advertisement shall be removed or not be displayed.

Admission to the Premises

16. No person under the age of 18 years shall be permitted on the premises when sexual entertainment is being offered, and a clear notice to this effect will be displayed at the entrance.

17. Customers who appear to be under the age of 21 must be asked to provide a Pass-Scheme approved photographic card, their passport or photographic driving licence to prove their age. Prominent notices must be clearly displayed to this effect at the entrance(s) to the premises.

18. The content of the House Rules will be made known to customers prior to their admission to the premises when sexual entertainment is provided.
19. Signs must be displayed at appropriate locations advising that any customer attempting to make physical contact with a performer will be asked to leave;

Performers

20. Entertainment will be given only by the performers engaged by or through the Licensee and there will be no audience participation.

21. The licensee shall keep a record of each performer, including their proper name and any aliases, and their residential address. With each record the licensee shall keep a copy of a photographic form of identity and proof of address of the performer.

22. On days when sexual entertainment is provided, the licensee, or their representative, shall keep a record of those performers working at the premises on that day in a daily record. The daily record shall be immediately available for inspection by authorised officers.

23. The licensee shall ensure that each performer signs the code of conduct in their proper name, acknowledging that they have read and understood and are prepared to abide by the code of conduct, and signed copies be kept on the premises for inspection by authorised officers.

24. During a performance there shall be no full bodied physical contact between the customer and the dancer other than the transfer of money or token at the beginning, during and conclusion of the dance.

25. During a performance there shall be no full bodied physical contact between dancers and they are not to touch each other’s breasts and or genitalia.

26. Performers must remain fully dressed while on the premises, except while performing in areas approved by the Council for sexual entertainment and in the approved changing rooms.

27. Performers must redress at the conclusion of the performance.

28. Performers must never be in the company of a customer except in an area open to the public (excluding the toilets) within the premises.

29. The Licensee is to implement a policy for the safety of the performers when they leave the premises.

Customers

30. The House Rules regarding customer behaviour will be implemented at all times that the premises are operating with sexual entertainment.

31. No member of the public shall be admitted or allowed to remain in the dance area if they appear to be intoxicated or under the influence of illegal substances.
32. Customers may not be permitted to photograph film or electronically record any performance.
33. Customers shall not be permitted to enter non-public areas of the premises such as changing rooms.

Revised standard conditions

Definitions

In this Licence,

'approved layout' means the layout of the Premises shown on the attached plan.

'authorised officers' means officers of the Borough Council or of the Police

'drinks tariff' means a tariff showing the price of all drinks

'entertainment tariff' means a tariff showing the price of all sexual entertainment performances, displays of nudity and related services (including charges for admission to any part of the Premises; for hire of rooms, booths or reserved areas; or for the company of performers)

'nudity', 'display of nudity' and 'sexual entertainment' are references to those terms as defined by section 27 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

'performers' means persons engaged by or through the Licensee who provide or participate in sexual entertainment

'premises' includes land, buildings, stalls, structures or erections, and all forms of vessels or vehicles (including for the avoidance of doubt bicycles, motor vehicles, boats and aircraft). It does not include any private dwelling to which the public is not admitted.

'the Premises' means the premises authorised in this Licence as a sexual entertainment venue and shown on the attached plan.

'public area(s)' means the area(s) outlined in blue on the attached plan, being the area within the Premises that the public are permitted to enter.
'the public' includes customers, guests and visitors to the premises, but excludes performers and those employees or agents of the Licensee lawfully engaged in managing or operating the Premises.

'sexual entertainment area(s)' means the area(s) outlined in red on the attached plan, being locations where sexual entertainment is permitted to take place.

'suggestive advertising content' means photographs, sculptures, images, tableaux, displays, sounds, spoken words or writing – including graphics, logos or trademarks– that indicate or suggest that sexual entertainment takes place on the Premises.

General

1. The Licensee must remain in personal control of the premises at all times that it is trading or nominate in writing an individual over the age of 18 with the authority to direct activities within the Premises.

2. The Licensee shall notify the Council, in writing, of any change in directors, trustees, partners or other persons concerned in the management of the licensed activities within 14 days of such change.

3. The Licensee shall admit authorised officers to the Premises at all reasonable times and at any time when the Premises are providing sexual entertainment. The Licensee shall provide in a timely fashion copies of any documents reasonably required by an authorised officer to prove compliance with this Licence.

4. The Licensee must give written notice to the Council if s/he wishes to surrender the licence.

5. A suitable and sufficient number of door supervisors and trained staff will be employed (based on a risk assessment) when sexual entertainment is offered. Their duties will include monitoring customers to ensure that the Code of Conduct for Performers and the House Rules are being obeyed.

6. The Licensee is to implement a suitable policy for the safety of the performers when they leave the Premises.

7. The Council reserves the right to amend or alter these conditions (provided that such change will not prevent the operators from viably carrying on the business of the Premises) following consultation with the licensees.

Premises

8. The approved layout of the Premises shall not be altered without prior consent of the Council.

9. The Licensee shall ensure that the interior of the Premises where sexual entertainment is offered shall not be capable of being seen from the outside of the premises, and that the exterior is maintained with a suitable level of decorum.

10. Sexual entertainment shall take place only in the designated sexual entertainment areas.

11. No member of the public shall be permitted to go anywhere outside the public areas. The public shall not be permitted access to the performers' changing rooms.

12. Without prejudice to condition 13 below CCTV shall be installed to cover the inside and the outside of the Premises, covering all public areas, including private performance areas and booths, entrances and exits, but excluding the interior of toilets. All cameras must be maintained in working order. All cameras shall continually record whilst the Premises are open to the public and the recorded images shall be kept available for a minimum of 31 days. Recorded images shall be made available to an authorised officer together with facilities for viewing. The recordings for the preceding 2 days shall be made available immediately upon request. Recordings outside this period shall be made available on 24 hours' notice.

13. CCTV cameras shall be installed and maintained at the locations shown on the attached plan, to the reasonable satisfaction of the licensing authority.

14. Members of the public may not enter or remain in the toilets in the company of any performer. Only one person at a time to enter a toilet cubicle.
Advertising

15. The Licensee shall neither cause nor permit the display of suggestive advertising content which is directed at or may be seen or heard by any person:

   a. on any public highway, street, waterway or railway;
   b. in any place of general public use or access; or
   c. in publicly accessible areas of premises open to the public.

This condition shall apply to prevent suggestive advertising content being displayed on the exterior of the Premises or handed out as flyers on the street. It shall also apply to prevent suggestive advertising content being displayed on or in street furniture; telephone booths; hoardings, billboards, screens or projections; as well as advertising displayed on or within any vehicles located on or near the highway. The Licensee shall not permit any person to tout for business or encourage other persons to visit the Premises whilst on a public highway.

For the avoidance of doubt, this condition shall not be taken to prevent the Licensee from advertising the Premises using suggestive advertising content in media that restrict access to persons over the age of 18 years and would not reasonably be expected to be directed at persons in a public place (for instance, in adult magazines, websites or television channels).

16. All persons engaged or employed to attend to the entrance area or exterior of the Premises must be suitably dressed and conduct themselves so as not to indicate or suggest the availability of sexual entertainment at the Premises.

17. Where the Council has given notice in writing to the Licensee objecting to an advertisement on grounds that it would offend public decency or be likely to encourage or incite crime or disorder, that advertisement shall be removed or not be displayed.

Admission to the Premises

18. No person under the age of 18 years shall be admitted to nor permitted to remain on the Premises when sexual entertainment is being offered, and a clear notice to this effect will be displayed at each entrance to the Premises.
19. Customers who appear to be under the age of 21 must be asked to provide a Pass-scheme approved photographic card, their passport or photographic driving licence to prove their age. Prominent notices must be clearly displayed to this effect at each entrance to the Premises.

House Rules

20. The Licensee shall prepare House Rules governing the conduct of customers.

21. The House Rules shall be prominently and legibly displayed close to each entrance of the Premises.

22. The House Rules must be made known to customers prior to their admission to the Premises when sexual entertainment is provided.

23. Signs must be displayed at appropriate locations advising that any customer attempting to make physical contact with a performer will be asked to leave.

24. No member of the public shall be admitted or allowed to remain at the Premises if they appear to be intoxicated or under the influence of illegal substances.

25. Customers may not be permitted to photograph, film or electronically record any performance.

26. The House Rules must be implemented and effectively enforced at all times when the premises are operating with sexual entertainment.

Performers

27. Sexual entertainment will be given only by the performers engaged by or through the Licensee and there will be no audience participation in any performances.

28. The Licensee shall keep a record of each performer, including their proper name and any aliases, and their residential address. With each record the Licensee shall keep a copy of a photographic form of identity and proof of address of the performer. With each record the Licensee shall keep a clear copy of an authorised document demonstrating that each Performer and each member of the staff is entitled to work within the UK. A clear copy of this record shall be kept on the Premises at all times and be made immediately available for inspection by authorised officers.

29. On days when sexual entertainment is provided, the Licensee or their representative shall keep a record of those performers working at the Premises on that day in a daily record. The daily record shall be retained securely for at least 31 days and shall be made immediately available for inspection by authorised officers.

Tariffs

30. The Licensee shall prominently and legibly display the drinks tariff at or by the bar and at the entrance. No charge shall be made nor payment accepted for any drink other than in accordance with the tariff, save for clearly advertised discounts to the tariff.

31. The Licensee shall prominently and legibly display the entertainment tariff in the entrance area and at the place(s) at which payment for any performance or service is transacted. No charge shall be made nor payment accepted by the Licensee for any services other than in accordance with the tariff or clearly advertised discounts to the tariff.

32. The Licensee shall keep such records as are necessary to prove that the sums charged and payments taken are for products or services advertised on the relevant tariff at the amount shown on that tariff. These records must be made available within a reasonable time if requested by an authorised officer.

Code of Conduct

33. The Licensee shall prepare and implement a suitable Code of Conduct for performers.

34. The Licensee shall ensure that each performer signs the Code of Conduct in their proper name, acknowledging that they have read and understood and are prepared to abide by the Code of Conduct, and signed copies be kept on the premises for inspection by authorised officers.

35. During a performance there shall be no physical contact between a performer and the customer other than the transfer of money or token at the beginning, during and at the conclusion of a dance into the hand or a garter worn by the performer.

36. The Licensee must not permit gratuities or any other items to be thrown at performers.

37. During a performance there shall be no full body physical contact between performers and they are not to touch each other's breasts or genitalia either with their bodies or with objects. Any performance shall be restricted to dancing and the removal of clothes. There must not be any other form of sexual activity, including but not limited to acts or the simulation of acts of personal stimulation.

38. Performers shall be provided with a changing room to which the public have no access.

39. Performers must remain fully dressed while on the Premises, except while performing in the sexual entertainment areas and in the changing rooms shown on the approved plan. [Without prejudice to this requirement, there is to be no display of nudity in the public areas of the Premises, other than during the course of a performance].

40. Performers must re-dress at the conclusion of a performance.

Dear Sirs,

Re: David Tunmer
Application for the grant/renewal of a Sexual Entertainment Venue licence - 556 Commercial Road

We write with reference to the above and further to your letter of the 11th May 2015.

Standard Conditions

We confirm our client has no objection to the draft conditions however we ask you if you would consider the revised wording for condition 31 and delete the words: “or clearly advertised discounts to the tariff”.

It is our understanding the tariff is to avoid any misunderstanding with the client regarding charges for services provided.

If a discount is being offered then no complaint is anticipated. Should a discount be negotiated and/or given a record will be kept. Whilst writing we could not envisage a situation where someone receiving a discount would raise an objection to it.

For the avoidance of doubt the above is merely a comment by way of an observation which you may consider appropriate.

Should you require any further information or clarification please do not hesitate to ask.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sirs,

Re: Whites Venues Limited, 32-38 Leman Street
Application for the grant/renewal of a Sexual Entertainment Venue Licence

We write with reference to the above and further to your letter of the 11th May 2015.

(1) Standard Conditions

We confirm our client has no objection to the draft conditions however we ask you if you would consider the revised wording for condition 31 and delete the words: “or clearly advertised discounts to the tariff”.

It is our understanding the tariff is to avoid any misunderstanding with the client regarding charges for services provided.

If a discount is being offered then no complaint is anticipated. Should a discount be negotiated and/or given a record will be kept. Whilst writing we could not envisage a situation where someone receiving a discount would raise an objection to it.

For the avoidance of doubt the above is merely a comment by way of an observation which you may consider appropriate.

(2) Additional Conditions Specific to Whites Gentlemen’s Club

We ask that condition number 45 omit the word booth, so as to read:

“No charge shall be made to any customer for hire or use of any room, or reserved area within the Premises, unless the customer has first been made aware of the cost and signed an order form consenting for the charge be made. The order form shall be counter-signed by the manager of the Premises. The order form shall state in a legible form:

(a) The date and time of signature;
(b) The room or area to be used or hired by the customer;

W: www.dadd's.co.uk  DX: 32202 BILLERICAY

Authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority - Dadd's LLP (OC306162). A list of the members is open to inspection at the office.
(c) The date, time and duration of the agreed hire or use of the room or area;
(d) The details as to what, if any, sexual or other entertainment will be provided and by how many performers;
(e) The names of any agreed performers;
(f) The total agreed price and the manner of payment;
(g) The full name of the manager; and
(h) The full name of the customer.

The order form must be filled in and signed, and payment for the room or area taken, in the designated area shown on the attached plan. The designated area must be well-lit and covered by a CCTV camera which accurately records the transaction and the time and date of the footage. After payment is taken, the customer shall be provided with a receipt and the Licensee shall retain a copy.”

As the committee may be aware the booths are only used by customers exchanging a token/voucher at a fixed fee of £20. We enclose herewith a copy of the fixed tariff where it says amongst other things:

“Booths dances at Whites are also performed in our booths. The price for a dance in one of the booths is £20 if you are paying by cash or £24 if you are paying by card. The dance will last approximately 3 minutes or the length of a song whichever is sooner.”

Whites have adopted a voucher scheme system for these dances. Vouchers are available from the bar or the entrance to the booths.

As you will be aware the mischief that is seeking to be avoided is over charging. The charging policy for the booth use is clear and transparent. It is our understanding our client has never had any complaint regarding any use of the booth. Furthermore it would not be practical or proportionate for a customer purchasing a voucher to go through the steps set out in A through to H.

It is our understanding that trading standards are content with the amended wording in our application to exclude the booths because of the voucher system which are purchased in advance.

Should you require any further information or clarification please do not hesitate to ask.

Yours faithfully,

Dadd

BOOTH

Dances at Whites are also performed in our booths. The price for a dance in one of the booths is £20 if you are paying by cash or £24 if you are paying by card. The dance will last approximately 3 minutes or the length of a song, whichever is sooner.

Whites have adopted a voucher system for these dances. Vouchers are available from the bar or the entrance to the booths.

THE NAGS HEAD GENTLEMAN’S VENUE: PROPOSED SET OF CODIFIED CONDITIONS FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE LICENSING COMMITTEE OF THE LONDON BOROUGH OF TOWER HAMLETS PURSUANT TO THE HEARING ON 17/03/16

Appendix Two
STANDARD CONDITIONS FOR SEXUAL ENTERTAINMENT VENUES

General

1. The Licensee must remain in personal control of the premises at all times that it is trading or nominate in writing an individual over the age of 18 with the authority to direct activities within the Premises.

2. The licensee shall notify the Council, in writing, of any change in directors, trustees, partners or other persons concerned in the management of the licensed activities within fourteen days of such change.

3. The Licensee shall provide in a timely fashion copies of any documents reasonably required by an authorised officer of the Council to prove compliance with this Licence.

4. The licensee must give written notice to the Council if s/he wishes to surrender the licence.

5. The Council reserves the right to amend or alter these conditions (provided that such change will not prevent the operators from viably carrying on the business of the premises) following consultation with licensees.

6. The meaning of “sexual entertainment” is given in Section 37 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009.

Management

7. A suitable and sufficient number of door supervisors and trained staff will be employed (based on a risk assessment) when sexual entertainment is offered. Their duties will include monitoring customers and performers to ensure that the Code of Conduct for Dancers and the House Rules are being obeyed and enforcing if necessary.

8. The Licensee shall prepare and implement a Code of Conduct for Performers. The Code shall be approved by the council and will not be altered without their consent.

9. The Licensee shall prepare House Rules governing the conduct of customers. The Rules shall be approved by the council and shall not be altered without their consent.

Premises

10. The approved layout of the premises shall not be altered without prior consent of the council.

11. The Licensee shall ensure that the interior of the premises where sexual entertainment is offered shall not be capable of being seen from the outside of the premises, and that the exterior is maintained to a satisfactory level of decorum.

12. The sexual entertainment shall take place only in the areas designated by the Council and the approved access to the dressing room(s) shall be maintained whilst sexual entertainment is taking place and immediately thereafter.

13. CCTV shall be installed to cover the inside and the outside of the premises covering all areas to which the public have access, including private performance areas and booths, entrances and exits but excluding toilets. All cameras shall continually record whilst the premises are open to the public and the recorded images shall be kept available for a minimum of 31 days. Recorded images shall be made available to an authorised officer or a police officer together with facilities for viewing. The recordings for the preceding two days shall be made available immediately on request. Recordings outside this period shall be made available on 24 hours' notice.

Advertising

14. The Licensee shall not permit the display outside of the premises of photographs or other images, excluding trademarks or logos, which are unacceptable to the Council, and which indicate or suggest that sexual entertainment takes place on the premises.

15. Where the Council has given notice in writing to the Licensee objecting to an advertisement on the grounds that, if displayed, it would offend public decency or be likely to encourage or incite crime and disorder that advertisement shall be removed or not be displayed.

Admission to the Premises

16. No person under the age of 18 years shall be permitted on the premises when sexual entertainment is being offered, and a clear notice to this effect will be displayed at the entrance.

17. Customers who appear to be under the age of 21 must be asked to provide a Pass-Scheme approved photographic card, their passport or photographic driving licence to prove their age. Prominent notices must be clearly displayed to this effect at the entrance(s) to the premises.

18. The content of the House Rules will be made known to customers prior to their admission to the premises when sexual entertainment is provided.

19. Signs must be displayed at appropriate locations advising that any customer attempting to make physical contact with a performer will be asked to leave;

Performers

20. Entertainment will be given only by the performers engaged by or through the Licensee and there will be no audience participation.

21. The licensee shall keep a record of each performer, including their proper name and any aliases, and their residential address. With each record the licensee shall keep a copy of a photographic form of identity and proof of address of the performer.

22. On days when sexual entertainment is provided, the licensee, or their representative, shall keep a record of those performers working at the premises on that day in a daily record. The daily record shall be immediately available for inspection by authorised officers.

23. The licensee shall ensure that each performer signs the code of conduct in their proper name, acknowledging that they have read and understood and are prepared to abide by the code of conduct, and signed copies be kept on the premises for inspection by authorised officers.

24. During a performance there shall be no full bodied physical contact between the customer and the dancer other than the transfer of money or token at the beginning, during and conclusion of the dance.

25. During a performance there shall be no full bodied physical contact between dancers and they are not to touch each other’s breasts and or genitalia.

26. Performers must remain fully dressed while on the premises, except while performing in areas approved by the Council for sexual entertainment and in the approved changing rooms.

27. Performers must redress at the conclusion of the performance.

28. Performers must never be in the company of a customer except in an area open to the public (excluding the toilets) within the premises.

29. The Licensee is to implement a policy for the safety of the performers when they leave the premises.

Customers

30. The House Rules regarding customer behaviour will be implemented at all times that the premises are operating with sexual entertainment.

31. No member of the public shall be admitted or allowed to remain in the dance area if they appear to be intoxicated or under the influence of illegal substances.

32. Customers may not be permitted to photograph film or electronically record any performance.

33. Customers shall not be permitted to enter non-public areas of the premises such as changing rooms.
SECTION H: OPERATION OF THE PREMISES

Additional Conditions proposed by the Applicant

1. The total number of persons to be accommodated at the premises at any one time shall not exceed 100 persons.

2. The number of performers that are performing within the 'personal dance' area (excluding VIP area) at any one time shall not exceed three.

3. There shall be no physical participation by the audience.

We have assumed that you and the committee would prefer this standard condition to be amended for all licences, but it is entirely a matter for you.

We assumed that you would always want to have a capacity condition – clearly "100" is site specific.

We proposed these conditions as "standard conditions" for all premises and understood that you were happy to commend them to the committee as standard.

Dear John

RE: VARIATION TO WORDING OF CONDITIONS ON PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT LICENCE - PLEASURE LOUNGE, 234 CAMBRIDGE HEATH ROAD

I am writing to thank you and Paul Greeno for meeting with my clients Steven and Victor Martin and for what I thought was a very productive meeting. The comments which you made were most helpful in our discussions and I thought I would just write to confirm briefly what we had discussed.

At outset of the meeting Paul Greeno indicated that officers would not be making any formal objection to the grant of the renewal of the public entertainment licence in respect of the Pleasure Lounge the hearing for which will be coming up shortly before the licensing committee.

In respect of the types of entertainment which are to be permitted at the premises, it was agreed that I would write to you describing the various performances which we were seeking so that that letter could be referred back to the condition on the licence prohibiting various kinds of activities other than those set out in a letter of agreement. I agree with Paul Greeno’s suggestion that it would not be sensible to allow conditions on a licence to become too wordy and descriptive when the purpose of conditions should be to indicate in straightforward language what is permitted and what is disallowed.

With regard to the shower dance where the performers step onto a podium containing a glass divider with a steady stream of water running down it. The performers remove their towels and begin the dance by getting their bodies wet and applying soap. As the dance proceeds they message their bodies with the soap before finally washing it all off with the water and retiring from the podium with a towel covering them up. In respect of this kind of entertainment you were able to agree that there would be no problems from the officers' point of view and that the activity should be described and referred back to condition in the licence.

We also discussed the use of the spray guns in the same booth as the shower dance. We were also able to agree that subject to the pressures inside the spray guns being agreed with the council officers there will be no objection to this form of entertainment either. This form of entertainment consists of the above describe shower dance but with the performers being sprayed with water from the toy guns in order to remove the soapsuds from her body. It was also agreed that the entertainment should not consist of the spray gun being used to shoot water at the performers genitalia.

We also examined the requirement on the existing licence that all performers should only dance on platforms or podiums which have previously met with the approval of the council. However, my client did raise the issue of allowing the performers to dance on the floor next to customers which appeared to be allowed in other clubs such as Majingos and Stringfellows. It was noted by the meeting that the Majingos licence which also came under the jurisdiction of Tower Hamlets did not contain any similar provisions to those contained in my client’s licence with regard to dancing only being able to take place in area separate from the audience and on stages or platforms. I think it was suggested by Paul Greeno that this would require an amendment or variation to existing condition 17 on the public entertainment licence. I would suggest that condition 17 be deleted and that special condition 3 be amended to eliminate any reference to “podiums”. In this respect, special condition 24 should also be deleted.

I would, therefore, suggest the following amendments to the licence conditions.

Special condition 3

"The number of clientele permitted in the “screened off” segregated area on the ground floor shall be limited to 12 members of the public at any given time”.

I have deleted the reference to the podiums because my client wishes to have the opportunity of removing those podiums to allow the performers to dance on the floor.

Special condition 12

For the sake of clarity it may be the case that we should define what is meant by “the approved performance areas”. I would suggest that this phrase encompass stage areas, table areas and booth areas.

Special condition 15

I would retain the wording in this condition but add a further sentence as follows:

“However, this condition shall be read in conjunction with an agreed letter of understanding between the licensee and the council which sets out certain specific forms of entertainment which will be permissible on the premises”.

Special condition 17

I would suggest that this condition is deleted altogether as it appears to restrict dancing only to a stage platform or podium or other construction whereas my client wishes to have the ability to allow the performers to dance on the floor as in other premises such as Majingos and Stringfellows.

Special condition 24

I would suggest that this special condition be deleted as it currently would appear to prohibit a dancing troop on the stage area and my client wishes to have the opportunity of allowing a group of dancing girls to perform on the large stage on the ground floor. We are all agreed that this should be subject to the provision that the girls should not touch each other whilst dancing. He would also wish as we have set out above to allow performers to dance on the floor area subject to those areas being agreed with the council.

Further, there is a distinction to be drawn at the premises between podiums which are small stands in effect just a few inches off the floor and the stage area which is a very much bigger area and more raised up than the podiums.

In our discussions both Paul Greeno and I agreed that performances which involved more than one performer on a podium at any time were permitted in areas outside of the screened off segregated area. However it appears that we were both concerning ourselves specifically with special condition 3 without considering the wording of special condition 24. In view of this agreement I advised my client that two girls on the stage area would be acceptable subject to restrictions that they do not touch each other. In light of special condition 24 which might be read so as to prohibit two performers on the stage area,(although it does only refer to podiums) I would be grateful if you could agree that the local authority would not seek to enforce in respect of this special condition as far as it relates to the stage area before we are able to amend the conditions at the subsequent licensing committee.

I hope that the above comments represent an accurate description of our conversations and would be grateful for any comments you may have if you feel that I have set out anything that is inaccurate.

I would also be grateful if you would kindly indicate if we are able to be placed upon the June committee hearing so that these matters may be resolved swiftly.

If you are in agreement with the matters as set out above, I would draft a further letter containing details of the entertainments which we would seek to put on at the premises with this letter acting as the basis of an agreed understanding between my client and the council and referable back to special condition 15 as amended in my draft above.

Please feel free to contact me at any time to discuss any of the matters set out in this letter.
I look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely

Dear John

RE: VARIATION TO WORDING OF CONDITIONS ON PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT LICENCE - PLEASURE LOUNGE, 234 CAMBRIDGE HEATH ROAD

I am writing this letter to set out a description of the entertainments my client would seek to provide in the premises in accordance with our discussions with yourself and Paul Greeno and also subsequent to my letter of 6 May 2003.

Both yourself and Paul Greeno have kindly agreed my suggested wording for special condition 15 which will contain the proviso as follows: -

"However, this condition shall be read in conjunction with an agreed letter of understanding between licensee and the council which sets out certain specific forms of entertainment which will be permissible on the premises".

I would be grateful, therefore if you would accept this letter as the letter of understanding referred to in the condition and upon which I would seek your authority’s endorsement.

The proposed entertainments upon which my client seeks your permission are as follows: -

Shower dance

I have previously referred to this entertainment in my letter of 6 May but for the avoidance of doubt would set the matter out again herein.
This entertainment will specifically take place on the second floor in what is called the shower dance area. This is a large booth much like the rest of the booths on the second floor. The large podium within the booth contains a glass divider with a steady stream of water running down it. The performers enter the booth clothed in a towel (for these purposes normal clothing would obviously been impractical) and step onto the podium. Shortly after the beginning of the music track the performer would remove the towel and begin the dance by getting their bodies wet from the water streaming down the glass divider. They also apply soak to their bodies at the same time. As the dance proceeds they massage their bodies with the soap before finally washing it all off with the water and retiring from the podium with a towel covering them up.

My client would like the opportunity of offering this as an integral part of the entertainment in the shower dance.

The idea is that whilst the performer is covered with soapsuds during the shower dance the customers will have the opportunity to remove the soapsuds from her body by shooting streams of water at her from the toy spray guns to be provided. The toy spray guns will be safe and bear the British Standard kite mark of safety. The performer will not expose her genitalia for customer to spray water at this area. Further, she will not encourage customers to spray water at her genitalia.

Roman bath

The third floor of the premises which is known as the penthouse is accessible to customers upon payment of an extra fee. Dancers perform striptease in this area also under the existing terms of the licence.

A corner of this area is themed as a Roman bath and the performer steps into this bath which is about 3 inches deep. There is a continuous fountain in the middle of the bath and there are buttons controlled by the customers remotely which adjust the height of the fountain. As with the shower dance described above the performer steps into the bath, removes her towel and wets her body with the water coming from the shower and again apply soak with a sponge. The performers build the shower into their performance but unlike the spray guns used in the shower dance the water fountain in the Roman bath is not directed by the customers who could only control its height.

Following the performance the dancer wraps herself in the towel and goes to the changing room where she immediately get changed into her normal dress or gown.

These are the entertainments which my client seeks to provide at the premises and I hope that they will meet with the approval of the council.
If you wish to discuss any of the above performances further please do not hesitate to contact me on the above telephone numbers.

Yours sincerely

Dear Messrs. Martin

Entertainments Licence for the Pleasure Lounge

Further to the Licensing and General Services Committee on the 9 July 2003 I can confirm the following on behalf of the Council.

1. Your new licence is enclosed

2. In addition, the letter from your solicitors dated the 6 May 2003 form the basis of a letter of understanding between yourselves as licensees and the Council, with the following additional points:
   • Further work needs to be done on capacity, which will be set in due course by the Council’s Entertainment Licensing Officer after discussion with the licensees
   • That the type of watergun used be that as shown to the Committee on the 9 July 2003, and as also shown in photographs circulated at that meeting

3. In addition, and not as a condition of your licence you are being asked by the Council to do what you can to alleviate parking problems in the immediate vicinity of your premises. (For example, by ensuring that all publicity issued by you contains clear advice on how to get to you by public transport).

Finally, if I can be of any further help please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

APPENDIX 15

Further conditions for consideration for Charlie’s Angels Gurwinder Olive

Subject: CHARLIES ANGELS, 30 ALIE STREET, LONDON E1 8DA - SEV LICENCE APPLICATION

Client: CDC
DatabaseID: 300
DocID: 485377
Matter: 4
NorSaved: Yes

Dear Gurwinder

Further to my earlier emails of today, and my voicemail messages, I write to request your confirmation that in the event that the Licensing Committee have not made their decision about the status of my client’s application by 1st June 2015, you will waive the requirement for an SEV Licence allowing Charlies Angels to continue trade as they do now, pending your decision – please confirm.

In order to recap from last night, and to hopefully assist the Committee, should the SEV Licence be granted, my clients will be happy to accept the following:-

1. The amended standard conditions which we were handed a copy of last night, being included on their new SEV Licence.

In addition the following conditions are agreed that:-

2. Performers will not go outside of the premises unless they are appropriately dressed, i.e. wearing long coats or jackets to cover their performance costumes.

3. In relation to the outside smoking area at the front of the premises, performers will have a section of the screened outside smoking area, separated from the public smoking area.

4. The outdoor smoking area will be screened off effectively from public view. As you know, there is already a solid brick built, rendered wall which I estimate this is approximately 3.5 – 4 feet high. Above this, there is a canopy. The intention is that the canopy will be raised and toughened opaque screening will be used around the perimeters of the outside area (placed on the upper edge of the perimeter wall) therefore effectively hiding this area from public view.

5. Opening time to be 6:30pm. Although this is not within the remit of the current SEV application, but falls under the jurisdiction of the Licensing Act 2003, as was made clear last night by Mr Ladenburg, whilst our clients would not want to lose the ability to have the benefit of other licensable activities from 11am in the morning, in practice, they only open at 4:00pm. Club Charlie’s Angels are happy to follow and fall in line with other SEV venues across the borough and/or vicinity in relation to opening times and if the Committee so require that 6.30pm should be the earliest opening time, then this is acceptable. We respectfully await your advice on this.

6. All suggestive signage to be removed, other than signage showing the venue’s name, i.e. no logos and no imagery of a sexual nature. Specifically, the signage on the left hand side of the premises (as shown on page 86 of the Agenda pack) will be removed as will any sign showing the silhouette of a naked woman.

7. Just to reiterate, although this was not discussed at the Committee meeting last night, Mr Heron’s report at paragraph 4.2, page 10 of the Appendix referred to some concerns in relation to charging. The venue has taken immediate and effective steps to address these concerns and there is now a display prominently and legibly at the entrance of the venue, indicating the entrance fee structure. To recap, this is: before 8pm – no admission fee. Between 8pm and 10pm - £5.00 admission fee. After 10pm - £10.00 admission fee. This will be reflected in all other relevant materials such as the House Rules.

8. That no rubbish shall be deposited from the premises into its commercial waste bin between the hours of [11pm and 8am] [or whatever hours the committee so decides is reasonable].

I re-iterate that on the related matter of refuse problems raised by a neighbour my clients do not agree that there is any refuse “problem” as such - since their bin is a lockable bin, although it does appear that other residents and businesses seem dump their rubbish next to it. I viewed this area for myself last night at approximately 10pm and the area around the bin was clear. They will also be carrying out a full review of the resident performers’ conduct in relation to access to and from the flat – although it is denied that there is any issue with their behaviour.

9. Notices to be displayed by the exists reminding patrons who are leaving the club to respect the fact that this is a residential area and to leave the club quietly.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you think I have missed anything in the above conditions or if there are other points that the Committee wish to have addressed.

Please pass this email onto the Committee for their consideration. I am grateful for your time and consideration of this matter.

Kind regards
