London Borough of Tower Hamlets
Constitution
Part A – Summary and Explanation
1 Introducing the Council’s Constitution

1. This Constitution sets out how the Council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures which are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local people. Some of these processes are required by the law, while others are a matter for the Council to determine.

2. The Constitution is divided into four parts:
   - Part A – Introduction and Explanations
   - Part B – Responsibility for Functions and Decision-Making Procedures
   - Part C – Codes and Protocols
   - Part D – Supplementary Documents

3. The purpose of the Constitution is to ensure that:
   - The Mayor and Council provide clear and accountable leadership to the community in partnership with citizens, businesses and other organisations;
   - The roles and responsibilities of the executive, non-executive, scrutiny and officer functions are clearly defined and documented, with clear delegation arrangements;
   - Citizens, businesses and other organisations are actively involved in decision making;
   - Citizens are effectively represented by their Mayor and Councillors;
   - The delivery of services to the community is improved;
   - Decisions are taken efficiently, effectively and transparently;
   - Decision-makers are clearly identifiable, that they explain the reasons for their decisions and can be held to public account.
   - The highest standards of conduct of Members and officers of the authority is maintained and that no one will review or scrutinise a decision in which they were directly involved;
   - It provides a comprehensive document explaining how the Council operates, who is responsible for taking decisions and how they will be taken.

4. The Council will exercise all its powers and duties in accordance with the law and this Constitution.
2 How the Council Operates

1. The Council operates the directly elected Mayoral form of Executive. The Council is composed of a Mayor and forty-five Councillors. The Mayor is directly elected by the electors of the Borough, normally for a four-year term of office. The Mayoral election will be held on the same day as the ordinary Council elections, at which Councillors are elected to represent each of the Wards within the Borough every four years. Councillors are democratically accountable to residents of their Ward. The overriding duty of Councillors is to the whole community, but they have a special duty to their constituents, including those who did not vote for them.

2. The Council may also appoint additional ‘Co-opted’ Members to certain Committees and Sub-Committees. Co-optees are people who are chosen to represent a specific area of interest or issue of consideration. These representatives are not elected members of the Council and are appointed because of their level of knowledge and experience. These co-opted members make a very useful contribution to discussions and help make the correct decisions in relation to important matters.

3. The Mayor, Councillors and Co-optees are together known as ‘Members’ of the Authority. Members have to agree to follow a Code of Conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties. The Council’s Standards Advisory Committee is responsible for advising Members on the Code of Conduct and ensuring that they receive training on the requirements of the Code, which they are required to observe in carrying out their duties and responsibilities as Members.

4. The Mayor and all Councillors meet together at Council. Meetings of Council are normally open to the public. Here Councillors decide the Council’s overall policies and set the budget each year. Council appoints annually an Overview and Scrutiny Committee, Regulatory Committees, a Standards Advisory Committee, and other statutory, advisory and consultative bodies.

5. The Mayor appoints a Deputy Mayor and (up to nine) Cabinet Members who form the Council’s Executive, they are responsible for most day to day decisions. The Mayor and other Executive Members meet together as the ‘Cabinet’. The Mayor is responsible for the Council’s main executive decision-making powers and the overall delivery of Council services.

6. The other executive decision-making bodies are:
   - the King George’s Field Charity Board to administer the affairs of the King George’s Field, Mile End charity of which the Council is the sole trustee; and
   - the Grants Determination Sub-Committee.
7. The Executive Scheme of Delegation sets out more detail on the Mayor and Executive functions.

8. The Overview and Scrutiny Committee is established to review or scrutinise decisions of the Executive and conduct reviews into functions which are the responsibility of the Executive. Section 9 of the Constitution sets out an introduction to role of Overview and Scrutiny and links to more detailed sections later in the Constitution.

9. The Overview and Scrutiny procedure rules (Part B, Section 30) set out in more detail how the Committee and its sub-committees operate.
3 How Decisions are Made

Principles of Decision-Making

1. All decisions of the Council will be made in accordance with the following principles:

   a) proportionality (i.e. the action must be proportionate to the desired outcome);
   b) due consultation and the taking of professional advice from officers;
   c) respect for human rights;
   d) a presumption in favour of openness;
   e) clarity of aims and desired outcomes;
   f) take account of all relevant matters;
   g) discount irrelevant matters; and
   h) explaining what options were considered and giving the reasons for the decision.

Responsibility for Decision-Making

2. The Council will issue and keep up to date a record of what part of the Council or individual has responsibility for particular types of decisions or decisions relating to particular areas or functions. This record is set out in Part B of this Constitution.

3. The form of the Council’s Executive Arrangements is a ‘Mayor and Cabinet’ model as defined in section 9C of the Local Government Act 2000 (as amended). Therefore, decision-making at the Council is split into the following types:

   - ‘Executive’
     - Including ‘Executive Key Decisions’
   - ‘Non-Executive’ functions.

Executive Decision Making

4. The Mayor is responsible for Executive decision-making and is therefore responsible for most day to day decisions. The Mayor can take these decisions at Cabinet, in a Cabinet Sub-Committee or the decisions can be delegated to officers.
5. These decisions must be in line with the Council’s Budget and Policy Framework. If any of these decisions change the Framework then these must be referred to Council.

Executive Key Decisions

6. A “key decision” is an executive decision which is likely to:

   A. result in the local authority incurring expenditure or the making of savings of:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Savings</th>
<th>Where the proposal is expected to result in savings of above £1 Million</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Revenue expenditure</td>
<td>Where the proposal involves revenue expenditure of above £1 Million</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Capital expenditure</td>
<td>Where the proposal involves capital expenditure of above £1 Million</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   OR

   B. be significant in terms of its effects on communities living or working in an area comprising two or more wards or electoral divisions.

   i. In considering whether a decision is likely to have a significant impact, the decision maker is to consider the strategic nature of the decision and whether the outcome will have a significant material impact, for better or worse, on the local amenity or wellbeing (including social and environmental impact) of the community or the quality of service provided to a significant number of people living or working in the locality affected.

   ii. When officers consider the impact on the Community they will, for example, consider the effect on specific groups within that Ward (defined by other characteristics such as ‘age’, ‘culture’ etc) where those groups make up a significant proportion of that Ward’s population.

   iii. In determining the meaning of “significant” for the purposes of these paragraphs, regard must be had to any guidance for the time being issued by the Secretary of State in accordance with section 9Q of the Local Government Act 2000.

   In addition to the above, officers will also consider the following guidance when determining if an issue should be treated as a Key Decision:
7. A decision to approve, update or amend a policy, strategy, plan, scheme (or similar) will only be a key decision if criterions (A) or (B) above would apply to the implementation of the document once approved, updated or amended.

8. Documents listed in Section 7 under the Budget and Policy Framework, are non-executive decisions reserved to Full Council and therefore cannot be key decisions. However, they are required to be prepared and developed by Cabinet in accordance with the Budget and Policy Framework Procedure Rules at Part B Section 28 of the Constitution.

9. A decision or report in relation to preparation and development of an issue, for example to begin a public consultation exercise, will not normally be a key decision unless criterions (A) or (B) above would also apply to that specific action. Even if the final determination of that issue would result in a Key Decision.

10. A decision not fulfilling the criteria at (A) or (B) above may follow the same process as a key decision if, in the professional opinion of the Chief Executive or the appropriate Corporate Director, it is a matter of particular political sensitivity.

11. A decision which is the same or similar to one taken in the past (for example, the approval of a previous iteration of a plan or strategy), and does not fulfil criterions (A) or (B) above, is not a Key Decision even if the comparable previous decision was identified as a Key Decision.

Taking Key Decisions

12. A decision taker, when making a decision may only take a Key Decision in accordance with the requirements of the Executive Procedure Rules set out in Part B Section 29 of the Constitution.

13. When Key Decisions are to be made, notice of these decisions must be published in advance, in so far as they can be anticipated. If these Key Decisions are to be taken at an Executive meeting (for example Cabinet) this will generally be open for the public to attend, except for restricted agenda items which include, for example, personal, commercially sensitive or confidential matters.

14. The Health and Wellbeing Board is a statutory committee under the provisions of the Health and Social Care Act 2012 but does have certain executive functions and if this Board is making a Key decision then this will be published in advance. The meeting generally is open for the public to attend, except where restricted matters are being discussed in the same way as for other Executive meetings.
15. Part A, Section 8 provides more detail of Executive Decision Making.

Executive Decision Making by Officers

16. Part B, Section 23 contains the Corporate Scheme of Delegation which must be read in conjunction with the Council-wide Operating Procedures and Directorate Schemes of Delegation published in Part D.

17. These documents set out where Officers have delegated powers to take Executive Decisions. However, the following must always be followed in respect of officer decisions:

- Officers may not take Key Decisions unless there has been a specific delegation by the Executive.
- Any officer decision resulting in (revenue or capital) expenditure or savings of over £250,000 must only be taken following consultation with the relevant Lead Cabinet Member and must be published on the Council’s website ‘as soon as practicable’ (and following any guidance from the Monitoring Officer) after the decision has been taken.

Non-Executive Decision Making

18. The Council has responsibility for all Non-Executive functions and for approving the Budget and Policy Framework. The Council, as a whole, retains responsibility for regulatory functions and has a role in holding the Executive to account.

Decision-Making by Council

• Any officer decision resulting in (revenue or capital) expenditure or savings of over £250,000 must be published on the Council’s website ‘as soon as practicable’ (and following any guidance from the Monitoring Officer) after the decision has been taken.

2. The scrutiny process provides non-executive councillors and co-opted Members with an opportunity to examine the services provided by the council and partner agencies, ask questions on how decisions are made and to consider whether service improvements can be put in place. Council will appoint an Overview and Scrutiny Committee to discharge the functions conferred by sections 9F to 9FI of the Local Government Act 2000; section 19 of the Police and Justice Act 2006 (local authority scrutiny of crime and disorder matters); or any functions which may be conferred on it by virtue of regulations under section 244(2ZE) of the National Health Service Act 2006 (local authority scrutiny of health matters).

- Assist the Council and the Executive in the development of its budget and policy framework and in the in-depth analysis of policy issues.
- Look to enhance community participation in the development of policy options including through petitions to Scrutiny meetings following the rules set out in the Council’s Petition Scheme.

Development Control and Licensing

6. Two regulatory Committees often of general interest to the public are those that deal with Development Control and Licensing.

7. Development Control – Tower Hamlets Council is a local planning authority for its area (other than parts of Bromley by Bow and Fish island which currently fall under the London Legacy Development Corporation). Local Planning Authorities must make a Local Plan for their area and make decisions on planning applications for new development that are submitted.

8. The executive Mayor, Cabinet and full Council are responsible for decisions about the Council's Local Plan. Most decisions on planning applications are made by senior planning officers under powers that are delegated to them. Applications for the largest scale developments or those which have attracted significant public interest are determined by one of the Council's two planning committees - the Development Committee and the Strategic Development Committee. They make decisions in public, in line with policies in the Council's Local Plan and other development plan documents, such as the London Plan. The Committees will hear representations from members of the public who can register to speak in support of, or in objection to, an application. The terms of reference for both committees are set out in Section 19 of the Constitution.
9. The Licensing Committee oversees the discharge of all licensing functions of the Council as the Licensing Authority under the Licensing Act 2003 and the Gambling Act 2005 (excluding the Council’s Statement of Licensing Policy). The Licensing Committee also reviews licensing fees and charges and oversees the Licensing activities of the Environmental Health and Trading Standards Service.

10. The Licensing Committee also has a responsibility to consider and determine matters under Section 2 of the Schedule 3 to the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 regarding the control of sex establishments within the borough. It also considers and determines matters under the London Local Authorities Act 1991 in respect of premises providing or wishing to provide special treatments within the borough where objections have been received and not withdrawn.

11. The Licensing Committee establishes Licensing Sub-Committees to consider Licensing matters under the Licensing Act 2003. The Sub Committees determine applications to grant, vary a license where representations have been made, or where an application to review a licence has been made. The Sub Committee is established to perform the functions of the Licensing Authority with a view to promoting the four licensing objectives:

   - The prevention of public nuisance
   - The prevention of crime and disorder
   - Public safety
   - The protection of children from harm

12. The meetings are an opportunity for councillors to make a decision based on the points of view of all relevant parties.

13. The Licensing Committee and Licensing Sub-Committee Terms of Reference are at Part B Section 19 and the Licensing Code of Conduct is at Part C Section 34.
