Executive Summary

To this cover report is attached the Standards Advisory Committee's Annual Report to Council.

It is considered best practice for Council to receive an annual report in relation to standards. The provision of an annual report highlights the importance Council places on the profile of ethical standards across the organisation and affords the opportunity to highlight areas of good practice and identify any requirements for improvement.

Recommendation:

The Council is recommended to:

1. Consider and note the Standards Advisory Committee's Annual Report.

1. REASONS FOR THE DECISIONS

- 1.1 It is considered best practice in many authorities for the full Council to receive an annual report in relation to standards. The provision of an annual report of the Committee's business will increase the profile of ethical standards across the organisation and affords the opportunity to highlight areas of good practice and identify any requirements for improvement.

2. ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS

- 2.1 Council can make such comment as it sees fit in relation to the Annual Report.

3. DETAILS OF REPORT

- 3.1 The Standards Advisory Committee, at its meeting on Thursday 30 July 2020 considered its draft Annual Report. The Committee agreed that it be presented to Council and so Council is now asked to review and note the report.
- 3.2 It is in line with best practice Council consider such an annual report covering the work of the Independent Persons and the Standards Advisory Committee.
- 3.3 This Annual Report sets out the key issues dealt with by the Committee during the past municipal year and identifies the priorities for 2020/21.
- 3.4 The Annual Report is set out at Appendix 1 to this Cover Report.
- 3.5 The Committee have also asked that Council's attention be drawn to a number of other specific matters:
- The report presented to the Committee at its meeting held on 15 October 2020 setting out work to meet the recommendations of the recent report of the Committee on Standards in Public Life. This report is reproduced as Appendix 2 to this Cover Report.
  - A background briefing note circulated to all Members setting out the legal implications of the recent 'Holborn Studios' case which impacts on how Members should deal with submissions received in relation to planning applications.
  - The Committee's workplan for 2020/21 as presented to the Committee on 15 October 2020 is attached as Appendix 3 to this report. Note that the Committee will continue to update its workplan as the year progresses.

4. EQUALITIES IMPLICATIONS

- 4.1 There are no immediate equalities implications arising out of this report.

5. OTHER STATUTORY IMPLICATIONS

- 5.1 This section of the report is used to highlight further specific statutory implications that are either not covered in the main body of the report or are required to be highlighted to ensure decision makers give them proper consideration. Examples of other implications may be:
