Procedure at the Committee meeting.

Participants (contributors) in the virtual meeting are expected to log in to the meeting in advance of the start time of the meeting, as set out in the guidance that will be provided by the Democratic Services Officer, when you register to speak. This is in order to check the connection. You will be expected to confirm your identity before the meeting starts.

The Chair will formally open the meeting and will introduce themselves and every participant. The Chair will then set out the expected meeting etiquette, including the following:

- When speaking for the first time, participants should state their full name before making a comment.
- To only speak at the invitation of the Chair.
- The method for indicating how to speak.
- If referring to a specific page of the agenda pack, you should mention the page number.
- All participants microphones must be muted when not speaking.
- Where necessary, participants may switch off their cameras when not speaking to save bandwidth.
- Participants must alert the Chair/Democratic Services Officer if they experience technical difficulties, particularly a loss of connection, or if they need to leave the meeting, as soon as possible. Where a key participant experiences a loss of connection, the Chair may adjourn the meeting until such a time the participant can re-join the meeting. A key participant is defined as a participant whose continuing contribution to the meeting is vital to allow a decision to be made.

The Chair, following consultation with Democratic Services and the Legal Advisor, may adjourn the virtual meeting for any reason should they consider that it is not appropriate to proceed.
