Dear Sir/ Madam,

London Local Authorities Act 1991

Re: Prosecution of premises in contravention of your Special Treatment Licence

Premises: Genesis Thai Beauty Spa, Unit 2, Nagpal House, 1 Gunthorpe Street, London, E1 7RG

The Council has reasons to believe that following test purchases carried out at your business premises on the 15th of October 2021 and 29th of October 2021 that you are using your premises otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions of your Special Treatment Licence, namely by offering services of a sexual nature.

In order to give you an opportunity to make representations or to comment on our observations you are required to do so in writing to us within the next 21 days.

It is alleged that a criminal offence has been committed under section 14(2) of the London Local Authorities Act 1991, and accordingly, we are required to caution you pursuant to the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984.

(1) You do not have to say anything

You do not have to say anything in this in response to this letter.

(2) It may harm your defence if you do not mention now, when questioned, something which you later rely on in court

If this matter does go to court and then you give an explanation and the court think it would have been reasonable to give that explanation in response to this letter then it could harm your defence, and the court or jury could come to their own conclusion as to why you did not give that explanation when asked via letter.

(3) Anything you do say may be given in evidence

If you do reply to this letter then what you say may be used in court.

You are advised that before replying to this letter you seek independent legal advice.

Please contact me if you have any enquiries.

Yours sincerely,

Maureen Geraldine O'Grady
Principal Environmental Health Officer
