Committee Freedom of the Borough Ad Hoc Panel	9 February 20	011	Classification Unrestricted	Report No.	Agenda Item No. 3a
Report of:		Title:
Service Head, Democratic Services		FREEDOM OF THE BOROUGH
Originating Officer(s): John S. Williams		Ward(s) affected: All

Reason for Urgency: This report was not available five clear working days before the meeting as required by statute unless there are reasons of urgency. The Chair is asked to agree that urgency does apply in relation to this report because it has been proposed that an Extraordinary Meeting of the Council will be held on 23rd February 2011 to consider nomination(s) for the award of Freedom of the Borough and it is necessary first for the Panel to consider any proposals in this regard.

1. SUMMARY

- 1.1 The Council is empowered by section 249(5) of the Local Government Act 1972 to admit as Honorary Freemen or Honorary Freewomen of the borough 'persons of distinction and persons who have in the opinion of the Council, rendered eminent services to the borough'.
- 1.2 The Council has established the Freedom of the Borough Ad Hoc Panel to consider any proposals relating to the granting of the Freedom and make recommendations.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

- 2.1 That the Panel considers whether it wishes to co-opt additional non-voting members, as provided for in the Council's constitution, to assist in its deliberations;
- 2.2 That subject to 2.1 above, the Panel considers whether it wishes at this stage to make any recommendations to the Council regarding the award of the Freedom of the Borough; and
- 2.3 If the Panel does wish to make such recommendations, that the Panel resolve to exclude the public and press from the meeting to enable consideration of any individual nominations for the award.

3. THE FREEDOM OF THE BOROUGH

- 3.1 Section 249(5) of the Local Government Act 1972 (as amended) provides for the Council of a London borough to 'admit to be honorary freemen of the [borough], persons of distinction and persons who have, in the opinion of the Council, rendered eminent services to the [borough]'.
- 3.2 The award of the honorary freedom does not in itself confer any rights on the recipient but conferring the title of Honorary Freeman or Honorary Freewoman is the highest honour that a Council of a borough can bestow and as such is given only rarely. In Tower Hamlets, no such award has been made since 1999.

The process for awarding the Freedom of the Borough

- 3.3 No Council body except the full Council itself may award the Freedom of the Borough and the 1972 Act requires that any decision to do so must be made 'by a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the members voting thereon at a meeting of the Council specially convened for the purpose with notice of the object.'
- 3.4 Following recommendations of the Constitution Working Party on the matter in October 2010, the Council has established the Freedom of the Borough Ad Hoc Panel to 'consider any proposals that may be made in due course relating to the granting of the Freedom of the Borough, including any nominations for that award, and to make recommendations'. The Panel has no delegated powers.
- 3.5 The Membership of the Panel as agreed by the Council comprises of 'Members of the Council to include the Chair of Council, the Mayor, any former Civic Mayors or Chairs of Council still serving as Councillors, and at least one representative of each political group on the Council. The Panel may co-opt additional non-voting members including other former Civic Mayors or Chairs of Council, or independent persons drawn from the business, community or public sectors. The Panel shall be chaired by the Chair of Council.'
- 3.6 In accordance with the above the Panel is asked to consider whether it wishes to co-opt any additional non-voting members to assist in its deliberations.
- 3.7 Once the Panel has identified a person or persons it wishes to propose for the award of the Freedom, it would be normal for further consultation to take place within the political groups to confirm that there is full support for the proposal(s) before they are put for formal consideration by the Council, as any controversy or debate on the merits of the award at the Extraordinary Council Meeting would be highly embarrassing to the proposed recipient(s).
- 3.8 Although it is possible for the Council to agree to make an award of the Freedom of the Borough and for the award to be presented at a future date, traditionally the whole process takes place on the same day, with the proposed Freemen/women in attendance at the Extraordinary Council Meeting which resolves to make the award. The presentation of a scroll or other gift marking the Freedom is made immediately after the passing of the resolution and the meeting would normally be followed by a reception for Members and invited guests in honour of the new Honorary Freemen/women.

Criteria

- 3.9 It is for the Council to determine which individuals may be deserving of the Freedom of the Borough. Beyond stipulating that they must be 'persons of distinction and persons who have, in the opinion of the Council, rendered eminent services to the [borough]' the 1972 Act does not provide guidance on this matter and the Council has not previously adopted formal criteria for the award.
- 3.10 However, as stated above the Freedom of the Borough is awarded relatively rarely and should be reserved only for the most exceptional persons. It is suggested that the overriding principle should be merit and that the award should recognise exceptional achievement or service by an individual that has e.g. brought distinction to the borough; enhanced the borough's reputation in the area of activity concerned; tackled disadvantage or promoted community cohesion etc. The award should not be made solely because a person has performed well in their job or reached a particular level, but rather in recognition of efforts that have gone beyond the call of duty, or achievement that stands head and shoulders above others.
- 3.11 The resolution to award the Freedom will contain the particular grounds on which the Council have come to their decision and details of the public services rendered by the recipient.

4. COMMENTS OF THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

- 4.2 Traditionally the Council has presented a sealed and illuminated certificate of the grant of the Honorary Freedom, incorporating a copy of the formal resolution and contained in a suitable casket; and has in all previous cases held a reception in honour of the recipient(s).
- 4.3 The total cost of the presentation and reception would be likely to be in the region of £5-6,000 for which there is currently no budget provision.
