BEING BORN AND GROWING UP IN TOWER HAMLETS
Building resilience: mental health and wellbeing for all	As part of our coordinated work to design new pathways of support for children and young people, we will work across the Partnership to develop an anti-stigma campaign specific to children and young people (CYP)	We will develop a public mental health and well-being programme which will include a portfolio of evidence based public mental health interventions, which will identify how we will deliver this, alongside other public mental health commitments over 2014/16	Paul Iggledun, Public Health Consultant, LBTH	September 2014 for plan
Building resilience: mental health and wellbeing for all	As part of partnership work across health, local authority, voluntary and community sectors we will improve the availability and consistency of support during pregnancy and in the first year of life to promote parent/infant attachment, parent and infant communication and emotional regulation in order to promote lifelong resilience and mental health and wellbeing.	We will map current services available to support maternal and infant mental health in order to identify gaps, improve access for groups at higher risk, improve coordination across services and develop proposals to strengthen the universal tier of the service (including Maternity services, Health Visiting and services delivered from Children's Centres, primary care and by voluntary and community organisations) (CYP)	Esther Trenchard-Mabere, Public Health Consultant, LBTH	March 2014 complete mapping and prioritisation  June 2014 proposal for training programme to support universal tier of service plus recommendations for strengthening targeted services
High Quality Treatment & Support	We will develop a model for taking a family orientated approach to mental health across the partnership to be integrated into practice, where people with a mental health problem are parents (CYP, AWA)		Richard Fradgley, Deputy Director of Mental Health and Joint Commissioning, THCCG	December 2015
Building resilience: mental health and wellbeing for all	In our review of the School Health Service, we will ensure that promotion of emotional health and well-being health is considered as a central component of future commissioned services. We will in 2015 and beyond consider the role of health visitors in promoting emotional health and wellbeing (CYP).	We will ensure that the roles of school nurses in relation to emotional health and well-being are clearly articulated in specifications for the procurement of the School Health service.	Esther Trenchard-Mabere, Public Health Consultant, LBTH	December 2014
High Quality Treatment	As part of our coordinated work to design new pathways of support for children and young people, we will ensure that they take account of the life events that impact on young people with	We will develop a refreshed service model for child and adolescent mental health services. High Quality Treatment & Support	As part of our coordinated work to design new pathways of support for children and young people, we will consider how to most effectively provide support to children at risk, including looked after children, and in particular how to most effectively support children's social care staff with developing knowledge and skills around mental health (CYP)
High Quality Treatment & Support	As part of our coordinated work to design new pathways of support for children and young people, we will develop a new model of Tier 2 mental health support to schools, childrenscentres, colleges and youth services. This will incorporate specialist mental health support, mentoring programmes, and generic support provided via the Healthy Child and Nutrition Programme. We will review the evidence base which underpins interventions. This will also include consideration of formal and informal training needs of the school nursing service and the school workforce around mental health, and standards for school counseling. We will consider the possibilities of using social media and new technologies in developing our offer to schools (CYP)
High Quality Treatment & Support	As part of our coordinated work to design new pathways of support for children and young people, we will consider Tier 2 and 3 CAMHS services, with the aim of ensuring that waiting times are as little as possible, that people who do not attend are robustly followed up, and that access to services by BME communities are in line with what we would expect (CYP)

High Quality Treatment and Support	In particular within the Clinical Commissioning Group, we will identify and secure opportunities for supporting people with mental health problems in each of our major workstreams, including: Maternity, Children and young people, Urgent care, Planned care, Integrated care, Long term conditions, Last years of life, Information and technology, Prescribing, Primary care development (G)	We will ensure that the specific barriers to access for people with a serious mental illness are addressed	Richard Fradgley, Deputy Director of Mental Health and Joint Commissioning, THCCG
Living well with a mental health problem	We will strengthen our approach to commissioning user-led grants to enable more service users to see their ideas for peer support realized in practice. We will also examine opportunities for service users to pool their personal budgets (health or social care) to form user led groups (G)	We will award 2 year grants for user led groups for 2014-16, and consider opportunities for pooled personal budgets	Richard Fradgley, Deputy Director of Mental Health and Joint Commissioning, THCCG	April 2014 for 2 year ULG contract award; June 2015 for personal budget consideration
Living well with a mental health problem	We will include in future specifications for relevant and appropriate services a requirement that an element of the service be delivered through peer support. This may include services delivered both by statutory and voluntary sector services (G)	We will consider opportunities for commissioning peer support as part of existing services.	Richard Fradgley, Deputy Director of Mental Health and Joint Commissioning, THCCG	2016
