Dear Bruno,

Tower Hamlets Police also object to the Temporary Event Notice on the grounds of Crime and Disorder.

On the 27th July 2014 at the same venue another late night dance event was held which resulted in a call to Police as a fight had broken out at the venue, upon arrival Police units requested another unit to attend due to the situation.

This is in essence a day time "Rave" where people will gather to dance to electronic dance music. With this type of event there is always the possibility of drug use and as we say at the event last weekend, violence. By having this event as part of a Temporary Event Notice, no conditions can be imposed upon the event, there is no security plan agreed with Police, or noise management plan agreed with the Local Authority. As a results stretched public services are having to pick up the peice's when things invariably go wrong.

Because of the risk of crime and disorder Tower Hamlets Police formally object to this Temporary Event Notice and ask for it to be refused.

Dear all, please accept this as a representation against this application for a Late TEN. I attended this address last night in relation to a noise complaint from a local resident. Even after I attended site and spoke to Bruno who reduced the levels, the music was clearly audible in the complainants property. I could also clearly hear the bass beat over 100m away. The site is not suitable for an outside event using a Funktion 1 type sound system playing house/dance type music.

This would cause considerable Public Nuisance and should therefore not go ahead.

Hi all ,
Hope you are well .

I've had an issue with the venue for the event on the 10th August where I had a last minute cancellation and the only venue left I have to do my event is Hancock studios . I'm so sorry for the last minute TEN but unfortunately I don't have any other place .

Here is the license for Half Baked event that will be taking take place at Hancock Studios ( 3 Hancock Road E3 3DA) on the 13th July (Sunday) from 2pm till 11 pm .

We will make sure to give a letter to ever resident with our contact number and all the details of the event in case the sound or any other reason that could potentiall disturb the residents around ( you can find the letter attached on this email ) . .

The DCBs will be on the Sound check places :

- 1- In front of the venue . ( Hancock road )
- 2- Otis Street
- 3 Washignton Street
- 4- Franklin Street
- 5- Priory Street .

To avoid the last issue we had at the last event of people that has been refused to come in trying to jump the next door gate . I made sure to book one extra steward to stay on the street overlooking the road as you can see on the 696 .

Pls don't hesitate to contact for any futher question.

Have a good weekEnd .

Regards .
