did not throw any bottles but was carrying the two wine bottles left from the park.

He denied saying "arrest me" to the attending Officers, but did however admit to saying "Fuck you bitch" to the arresting officer. He also admitted to saying, "How long do you get for criminal damage because arrest me now cos I'm gonna come back and do some serious damage, smash up some windows if it's three o'clock or in a day or three days I am gonna do it."

This he said out of frustration as he didn't understand why he was being arrested as he had not done anything and that he had been assaulted by an unknown person, having been struck to the head and having his head pushed up against the wall by Police.

He also agreed to having said, "How long do you get for head-butting a Police Officer cos I'm going to head-butt her in the face I don't care, might as well get arrested for something good."

He clarified that the meaning behind this was that he may as well be arrested for actually committing a crime as he denies being involved in the affray.

He stated that he would be happy to participate in any identification procedures if required.

Interview concluded at 12:36 hours.

Interview commenced at 13:37 hours.

During the introduction phase there appeared to be some confusion as to the advice he was given and a short intermission between 13:38 hours and 13:42 hours granted.

Upon recommencement he stated that he had been drinking in East London, Brick Lane area. He does not recall drinking wine but could taste it. He stated that he had drunk a lot, enough to not be able to recall the events of the day.

He was with three to four guys, whose names he does not know as he had met them the previous evening at a squat and had started drinking from Saturday evening (following his release from an unknown Police Station) right through until the point of his arrest yesterday afternoon.

All that he recalls his pulling two of the guys he was with back from outside a restaurant on Brick Lane as they were being confronted by a group of Asian guys, who were the aggressors, he was then struck from behind to the head by an implement but was unable to see by what or by whom. He then decided to run, managing to get between fifty to one-hundred yards before being tackled to the ground by

I have viewed the cctv and as suggested in interview the four that were arrested appear to be the victims in this crime. it is unknown how the altercations started but the four were attacked by restaurant staff and were joined by others. The restaurant staff used Bottles, golf clubs, batons fists and feet to attack the four despite the fact they were backing away and one had been punched to the floor. The four who were arrested had injuries consistent with the attack. I spoke to CCTV operators who stated they attempted to tell the arresting officers that they were arresting the wrong people

I am aware of this matter and have also viewed the CCTV. The suspects who were arrested were quite clearly attacked by members of the restaurant community in Brick Lane. The attack took place using a variety of weapons.

The suspects on this report have been NFA'D and the CCTV passed to HT Licensing with a view to taking actions against the restaurant staff.

 This matter was reviewed by the HT Licensing Unit in regards to the premises licence with Insp Weeden and DS Humphreys **

New evidence came to light from VIW3 who filmed the incident on his mobile phone (exhibited as BK/1).

SUSP2 has been contacted by telephone and written too, to ask him if he would make a witness statement regarding the beating he received as he was attacked in Brick Lane and beaten wround the head with a golf club. He has not engaged with police.

The suspects in that beating are seen to exit Muhib Restaurant at 73 Brick Lane with a golf club and food ladle which are then used as weapons.

This has led to a Sec 8 PACE warrant being executed at Muhib at 19:27 hrs on 13/11/13 - but was a negative search.

One person was however arrested for Affray and Off Weapon from A&Y Wines opposite at 116, Brick Lane as a suspect - SUSP details to be updated by arresting officers A/PS 686HT MANNING what happened, he appeared to know a fight had taken place but was sketchy on what if anything he had seen. He was identified as the SUSP in the pink t-shirt and denied it was him. CCTV from a high angle shows he has a different type of receding hairline and whilst he agrees there is a likeness. 291HT was satisfied it was not the same male - Affray NFA'd after consultation with Crime Advisor DS GEORGE

In relation to the Offensive Weapon found as a result of a Sec 32 search at A&Y Wines, he denied that it was his, he denied it was used for protection or as a weapon - but could not explain why it was there. He said it belonged to [REDACTED] and he had seen [REDACTED] putting on the red elastic bands that have formed the handle grip part of this adapted weapon which is a 14"-16" metal bar, with the adapted grip handle. As SUSP5 is a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and states that it belongs to his manager who is also the premises licence holder this was NFA'd by DS GEORGE against SUSP5.
