1	Overview of Proposal
a	Are the outcomes of the proposals clear?	Yes	This report is to ask the decision making body to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider the forward programme for adopting the Gambling Policy • Comment on whether the proposed consultation should be based on the existing Policy updated in accordance with guidance from the central government agencies. The Council's current Gambling Policy has not been controversial and has served the Council well over the last three years. All local authorities have to review their existing gambling policy and adopt a new policy by November 2016, as one of the responsibilities they have to administer licences under the Gambling Act 2005. The additional requirement to include in the Gambling Policy are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to set out a local profile, the Policy links to the Borough profile held on the website, therefore the profile can be updated without the need to re-consult on amending the full Policy. • details of the inspection format to be used • risk assessment format for operators • sample licence conditions. The identified forward programme shows that a consultation period will start on 26 October 2015 and end on 18 January 2016 and a final draft Gambling Policy, into which the feedback from the consultation is incorporated, will be submitted to the Council in September 2016. It should be noted that some major concerns about gambling

			(e.g. gambling addiction, arguments of a more liberal gambling) are not addressed in the policy. The impact of licensed premises on nearby residents, such as noise, is also out of scope.
b	Is it clear who will be or is likely to be affected by what is being proposed (inc service users and staff)? Is there information about the equality profile of those affected?	Yes	The Gambling Policy states how the Licensing Authority will exercise its authority. This policy covers the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How the Licensing Authority will use its regulatory powers in relation to applications and reviews of the activities it regulates, to the extent it is allowed by statute. • The main licensing objective for the authority is protecting the vulnerable. • The Licensing Authority approach to regulation • The scheme of delegation The proposed changes (Appendix 2) will affect businesses who apply for a licence and those who have received licences. The business operators will be requested to follow the changes of the policy, including undertaking local risk assessments in relation to their premises. These changes will not adversely affect any protected characteristics. The licencing objectives remain including protecting children and the vulnerable, including ‘people may not be able to make informed or balanced decisions about gambling due to a mental impairment, alcohol or drugs.’
2	Monitoring / Collecting Evidence / Data and Consultation a	Is there reliable qualitative and quantitative data to support claims made about impacts?	Yes	The proposed changes are listed in Appendix 2. Regarding the business related data, the Development and Renewal (D&R) directorate have corporate lead responsibility for data capture and are currently reviewing the technical implications in developing an equalities strand of their business data base.

	Is there sufficient evidence of local/regional/national research that can inform the analysis?	Yes	Specific information about localities will be provided in this policy at Annexe 6. The Gambling Commission's Licence Conditions and Code of Practice (LCCP) require gambling premises to undertake a risk assessment taking into consideration their local information. All stakeholders, including the licence Committee and people who are economically disadvantaged, will be invited to consultation, which will inform a new Gambling Policy. b	Has a reasonable attempt been made to ensure relevant knowledge and expertise (people, teams and partners) have been involved in the analysis?	Yes	The Gambling Policy is prescribed by central government and the Gambling Commission. The policy produced has to comply with guidance issued by both of these bodies. The current policy is compatible with this advice and guidance. All stakeholders will be consulted on the proposed changes between 26 October and 18 November 2015. c	Is there clear evidence of consultation with stakeholders and users from groups affected by the proposal?	Yes	All stakeholders will be consulted on the proposed changes between 26 October and 18 November 2015. People who are economically disadvantaged will be invited to the consultation too.
3	Assessing Impact and Analysis
a	Are there clear links between the sources of evidence (information, data etc) and the interpretation of impact amongst the nine protected characteristics?	Yes	The proposed changes listed in Appendix 2 highlight stakeholders that will be affected by the changes.
b	Is there a clear understanding of the way in which proposals applied in the same way can have unequal impact on different groups?	N/A
