NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

  subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK

    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Hello

My name is Josh Oldham and I am a resident of

I wish to oppose/express concerns about the license application recently made for the Widows Son pub, 75 Devons Road, E33PJ

Last time the pub operated we had repeated issues with excessive noise from the pub, particularly regarding the playing of very loud music late into the night. Sometimes this would go on well beyond their closing time - in their last month of operation we even heard it at 5am. However, even when played within their opening hours we found it greatly disturbed our evenings, and our sleep.

We tried to deal with it by speaking to the pub manager and staff on numerous occasions but the response was always dismissive, rude and sometimes vaguely aggressive and argumentative. There was an attitude of "we were here before you" so we had to deal with club-like music.

Under one manager about 3 or 4 years ago, we visited the pub frequently and contributed to it. I don't dislike pubs but this one repeatedly showed no consideration for the neighbourhood and people around it. It's worth noting that this one good pub manager left quite quickly in acrimonious circumstances under concerns and fears about how the pub was operated.

We had trouble last time finding any resolution with the council as well. The noise complaint team were always slow to come out and the system of waiting up an unknown time for people to come into our flat at night when desperately trying to sleep was not practical. We filled out lots of noise diaries but nothing really changed and no action seemed to be taken. Only a week or so before the (unrelated) pub closure did we secure a meeting with us, the council, and the then pub manager. We obviously didn't have time to see if that changed anything, but with the pub reopening after so long we imagine that progress to be lost.

Our mental health was severely impacted at this time, our work suffered, and we looked to move out, viewing four flats in a different borough. As soon as the pub closed, we stopped our search, and have happily remained at the flat.

Our main issue is the noise and music, but we also wish to note that the pub seemingly closed after an armed police raid. We have heard rumours about why and about the pub prior to that, but they could just be rumours as we have never been given any official news about this. We just hope whatever reasons they are are looked into and taken into account when considering the license, and how likely and difficult it has been to challenge the pub. We were sometimes reluctant to have our names/address on public record opposing it, but this time we are willing to to hopefully prevent it having the same impact on us as before. We are ready to involve our MP and whoever else we can and need to if we have similar issues to last time, as it was unbearable.

Thank you for considering this response Josh Oldham

PS: of course if it is possible not to publish my name and address, that'd be my preference

Josh Oldham

Dear Tower Hamlets Licensing Team,

I am writing to you as a concerned resident regarding the recent application for a license by The Widow's Son Pub located at Devons Road, Bow, London, E3 3PJ, which directly impacts our community.

As a residents of the area, I am dismayed to learn that the pub has applied for license given its history.

It is important to highlight the troubled history of The Widow's Son Pub. Prior to its closure following an armed police raid in November 2022, the establishment was frequently in breach of its license, leading to disturbances and safety concerns for residents. Instances of police intervention, including the presence of riot vans, were not uncommon. There were multiple lock ins, and it was not uncommon for me to be leaving for work as an NHS nurse at 6am, after no sleep because of the pub, to see that people (including the manager at that time) were still inside drinking alcohol and making noise.

When we confronted the manager on several occasions, he was extremely aggressive, as well as other regular customers intimidating us, for asking them to turn the music down.

The situation deteriorated to such an extent that many of us were actively considering moving away from the area. Despite our attempts to address these concerns with the council, our pleas were continuously ignored, necessitating the involvement of our local Member of Parliament.

We would spend hours on the phone to noise complaints, for them to be unavailable or either refusing to attend the pub, and wanting to come into our flat at inappropriate times.

Once our local Member of Parliament got involved, Tower Hamlets finally engaged with us and we had a meeting.

7th December 2022, where an official agreement was made that "Have agreed every day by 9 PM door will be shut and by 11 PM all live music will be stopped, maintain double glazing, consider installing a sound limiter, Either quarterly or every 6-month pub will invite residents for tea/coffee morning to discuss any issues."

Given this history and the significant impact on our community's safety and well-being, we have serious concerns about the potential consequences of granting a license to The Widows Son Pub.

It also appears that the upstairs and roof are being renovated, potentially to be used as spaces for noisy customers. The pub operated in a highly inappropriate way in a residential setting, acting more like a club than a pub.

We urge the Tower Hamlets Council to reconsider the application for a license and to ensure feedback taken into account before any decision is made.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to a prompt and considerate response.

I have cc'd in the mp as I feel tower hamlets has a history of ignoring our worries and concerns and turning a blind eye to clear illegal activity at the Widows Son pub over the years.

I would like to add that I will be escalating any concerns quickly from now on.

Please not publish my name and address on your public records.

Yours sincerely, Rebecca Oldham.
